

MILLVIEW

ROLLO BAY AND VICINITY

Gleanings From Tryon And Vicinity

MALPEQUE

RED INDIAN SERVICE STATION

At Summerside Inaugurates 24 Hour Service.

Cyclo No-Knock Motor Fuel, Marathon hi-test Gasoline, Red Indian Motor Oils.

Mrs. Eliza McDonald, Gloucester, spent Sunday in Pisquid. Mrs. K. McDonald, Pisquid, was a recent visitor to Gloucester.

Mr. Roy McLean, St. Peter's, passed through Rollo Bay recently. Mrs. Annie Trainor, 20 Grafton St., Charlottetown, is visiting friends in Rollo Bay.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rogerson of Craupud on the arrival of a bouncing baby. Mrs. Heath Chisholm of North Tryon is visiting in the provincial capital.

Mrs. Flora McGugan left recently to spend some time with relatives in Brooklyn, New York. Messrs. Sherwood and Downing, of Moncton, were visitors at Mr. John Simpson's on Saturday.

Advertisement for Red Indian Service Station, featuring Cyclo No-Knock Motor Fuel, Marathon hi-test Gasoline, and Red Indian Motor Oils. The ad is framed with a decorative border.

Miss Jean Fraser, Mass., is spending her vacation at her home in Avondale. Miss Emma Aorn is spending a few days the guest of Mrs. G. H. Jenkins.

Miss Blanch McDonald, of Boston, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald, Annandale. Mr. Angus A. McKenzie recently purchased a valuable horse from Mr. Robert Saville, Annandale.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Laval of Boston, are now spending their holidays on the island and are at present visiting in Tryon, the guests of Mrs. Laval's sister, Mrs. John Lyman.

Mr. Ernest Callbeck and son, Master Keith, of Linkletter spent a few days recently, guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Woodside, Hamilton.

Southern News BELFAST NOTES Ancient And Modern Weeds

The people of Millview were very fortunate in securing such a fine teacher as Miss Christine Bruce. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mutch and Mr. and Mrs. George Carrier, Earncliffe, motored to Victoria on Sunday.

Miss Kathryn McRae has returned to her home in Rollo Bay after spending the past two weeks in Little Pond the guest of Miss Annie Steele. Mrs. McGlynn and Miss Adelaide Chalmers, New Jersey, accompanied by Mrs. Eusebius Peters and Mrs. Ethelbert Perry, Rollo Bay, motored to Tignish Saturday.

Some of those in attendance at the Provincial Exhibition from Tryon and vicinities were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry McPhee, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Clark and little son, "Dad" Lyman, Brent Clarke, Penzie Chisholm, Mr. and Mrs. Don McFadyen and Miss Muriel, Mr. and Mrs. George Pratt and Bea Cobb.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Innis and two children, of Boston, motored to Prince Edward Island and are guests at the home of Mrs. Innis' uncle, Mr. Albert Ramsay, Hamilton. Accompanying them were Mrs. Ogilvie, who will visit relatives and friends in Malpeque and Hamilton; and Mrs. Winifred Ramsay, of Hamilton returned home after a month's visit with relatives and friends in and about Boston.

A large number of people from this vicinity attended the Charlottetown Exhibition last week. Miss Isabella Nicholson arrived home from Uncle Sam's Land on Monday, August 19th, to attend the funeral of her brother.

Messrs. Albert Drake and W. L. Jenkins were visitors to Stanley Bridge and Victoria, recently. Miss Josephine McMillan, Mass., spent a week the guest of her brother, Mr. Ernest McMillan, Vernon River.

Among those from the locality who attended the Charlottetown Exhibition were Messrs. James Chalmers, Frank Wood, Dan McRae, Rollo Bay, H. H. Aorn and George and F. Jennings, Souris.

Her many friends in Tryon are glad to know that Mrs. Euphemia Muligan of St. John, N.B., is now doing nicely after injuries received when she fell through a temporary platform placed over a deep hole, where a gasoline tank was to be placed. Mrs. Mulligan was a former resident of Tryon and it was while on a visit here that the above mentioned accident occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shirley and two children, Marion and Buddy, of Melrose, Mass., accompanied by Mrs. Shirley's mother, Mrs. Selma Wadman, have returned to their home after spending two very pleasant weeks in Tryon and vicinities, where they visited many relatives and friends. Mrs. Shirley and Mrs. Wadman were former Islanders, having resided in Craupud for several years.

The potato has a new foe now to fight, this time an insect like a flea and with all the agility and evasiveness of a flea along with far greater powers of destruction. In the economy of nature insects are out for blood and are doing their best to frustrate man's greatest efforts and highest hopes.

Mr. Borden Fraser, Avondale, has resumed his duties as teacher in Summerside. Mrs. Patrick Trainor, Johnston's River, is visiting at her old home in Vernon.

A serious motor accident was narrowly escaped this week when a Ford coupe driven by Mr. Jack McDonald, St. Peter's, was struck by a car driven by Mr. Murdoch, of Charlottetown, and badly damaged. The accident occurred on the Rollo Bay-Souris Rd. near Rollo Bay church.

Mr. and Mrs. Liebie Pooley, of Boston, is spending her vacation with relatives in Tryon and vicinity. Her many friends are glad to welcome her back, even though for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton (visitors in Victoria), spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sherren, of Craupud. Mr. Joe Joslyn, of Ashland, Mass., is visiting friends in Augustin Cove. Welcome to our Island Joe.

First and thirteenth in all things, Scotland was well to the fore in exterminating weeds. They introduced hanging for the farmer with weedy land and the fine of a sheep for his servant who was not forehand likewise. A statute of Alexander the Second of the year 1212 reads, that is, if you can read it:— "If thy malar (tenant) puttis guld (weeds) in thy land and will not cleane it he is to be punyst punyst sicut seductor . . . (hanged.) And if thy bonde servant hat fylled thy land with guld (weeds) for ilk plant of it he sall gif to thee a mutone (wether sheep) to be forfait and nevertheless he sall cleane (clean) the land of the guld."

Mrs. Ernest McMillan spent a few days the guest of her sister, Miss Mary Chisholm, Uig. Messrs. Albert Drake and W. L. Jenkins were visitors to Stanley Bridge and Victoria, recently.

Among those from the locality who attended the Charlottetown Exhibition were Messrs. James Chalmers, Frank Wood, Dan McRae, Rollo Bay, H. H. Aorn and George and F. Jennings, Souris.

Her many friends in Tryon are glad to know that Mrs. Euphemia Muligan of St. John, N.B., is now doing nicely after injuries received when she fell through a temporary platform placed over a deep hole, where a gasoline tank was to be placed. Mrs. Mulligan was a former resident of Tryon and it was while on a visit here that the above mentioned accident occurred.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Innis and two children, of Boston, motored to Prince Edward Island and are guests at the home of Mrs. Innis' uncle, Mr. Albert Ramsay, Hamilton. Accompanying them were Mrs. Ogilvie, who will visit relatives and friends in Malpeque and Hamilton; and Mrs. Winifred Ramsay, of Hamilton returned home after a month's visit with relatives and friends in and about Boston.

The people of Belfast were shocked to learn of the passing of Mr. John MacPherson, of Orwell Cove. The funeral was held on Sunday, August 25th, at the Presbyterian Church, Belfast. The sympathy of the community goes out to those who are left to mourn.

Mrs. Ernest McMillan, Miss Marie McDonald and Mrs. W. B. McNeill spent the week end at St. Peter's Bay. Mrs. Cooke, N. J., and Mrs. Francis and daughter Jean, were guests of her uncle, Mr. J. R. McDonald, recently.

The Pie Social and dance held in Gowan Brae school on Friday, 16th, was a success socially and financially. Music was furnished by Messrs. Peter Chalmers and Russell Burke, Bear River, assisted by others. The pies were auctioned by Mr. William Howlett, and brought good prices. A tidy sum was realized, which will be used by the Women's Institute for school purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shirley and two children, Marion and Buddy, of Melrose, Mass., accompanied by Mrs. Shirley's mother, Mrs. Selma Wadman, have returned to their home after spending two very pleasant weeks in Tryon and vicinities, where they visited many relatives and friends. Mrs. Shirley and Mrs. Wadman were former Islanders, having resided in Craupud for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton (visitors in Victoria), spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sherren, of Craupud. Mr. Joe Joslyn, of Ashland, Mass., is visiting friends in Augustin Cove. Welcome to our Island Joe.

Be sure that in those ancient days of the witch incinerator, of charms and of magic, weeds were suspected of being agents of the Evil One. In 1650 Sir Thomas Browne warns: "A rural charm against ditter, tetter and strangling weeds is by placing a chalked tile at the four corners, and one in the middle of its intention, was rational in the contrivance, and a good way to diffuse the magic through all parts of the area."

Messrs. Hazel McEachern, George Jenkins and Harold Smith motored to the western part of the Island Sunday, where they spent a very pleasant day. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod, Chicago, who have been spending the summer in Millview, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McEachern, left on return Monday morning. While here Mr. McLeod was engaged in remodelling the home of the late James Burke.

Some owners of local racing stock held a matinee on the track of St. N.-Dawson, North Tryon on Friday afternoon last, where some fine exhibitions of speed were shown. A regrettable accident happened to Bert Dickie of Cape Traverse, when he was kicked by a horse. Dr. E. A. Bell, who was present, administered immediate aid and according to latest reports he is resting comfortably.

Mr. and Mrs. Liebie Pooley, of Boston, is spending her vacation with relatives in Tryon and vicinity. Her many friends are glad to welcome her back, even though for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton (visitors in Victoria), spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sherren, of Craupud. Mr. Joe Joslyn, of Ashland, Mass., is visiting friends in Augustin Cove. Welcome to our Island Joe.

The people of Belfast were shocked to learn of the passing of Mr. John MacPherson, of Orwell Cove. The funeral was held on Sunday, August 25th, at the Presbyterian Church, Belfast. The sympathy of the community goes out to those who are left to mourn.

Messrs. Everett Wood, Leslie McLeod, Hayden Crons and Gordon Sheldon were among those who attended the Exhibition on Wednesday. Misses Hazel McEachern, George Jenkins and Harold Smith motored to the western part of the Island Sunday, where they spent a very pleasant day.

Some owners of local racing stock held a matinee on the track of St. N.-Dawson, North Tryon on Friday afternoon last, where some fine exhibitions of speed were shown. A regrettable accident happened to Bert Dickie of Cape Traverse, when he was kicked by a horse. Dr. E. A. Bell, who was present, administered immediate aid and according to latest reports he is resting comfortably.

Mr. and Mrs. Liebie Pooley, of Boston, is spending her vacation with relatives in Tryon and vicinity. Her many friends are glad to welcome her back, even though for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton (visitors in Victoria), spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sherren, of Craupud. Mr. Joe Joslyn, of Ashland, Mass., is visiting friends in Augustin Cove. Welcome to our Island Joe.

Be sure that in those ancient days of the witch incinerator, of charms and of magic, weeds were suspected of being agents of the Evil One. In 1650 Sir Thomas Browne warns: "A rural charm against ditter, tetter and strangling weeds is by placing a chalked tile at the four corners, and one in the middle of its intention, was rational in the contrivance, and a good way to diffuse the magic through all parts of the area."

Messrs. Hazel McEachern, George Jenkins and Harold Smith motored to the western part of the Island Sunday, where they spent a very pleasant day. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod, Chicago, who have been spending the summer in Millview, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McEachern, left on return Monday morning. While here Mr. McLeod was engaged in remodelling the home of the late James Burke.

Some owners of local racing stock held a matinee on the track of St. N.-Dawson, North Tryon on Friday afternoon last, where some fine exhibitions of speed were shown. A regrettable accident happened to Bert Dickie of Cape Traverse, when he was kicked by a horse. Dr. E. A. Bell, who was present, administered immediate aid and according to latest reports he is resting comfortably.

Mr. and Mrs. Liebie Pooley, of Boston, is spending her vacation with relatives in Tryon and vicinity. Her many friends are glad to welcome her back, even though for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton (visitors in Victoria), spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sherren, of Craupud. Mr. Joe Joslyn, of Ashland, Mass., is visiting friends in Augustin Cove. Welcome to our Island Joe.

Be sure that in those ancient days of the witch incinerator, of charms and of magic, weeds were suspected of being agents of the Evil One. In 1650 Sir Thomas Browne warns: "A rural charm against ditter, tetter and strangling weeds is by placing a chalked tile at the four corners, and one in the middle of its intention, was rational in the contrivance, and a good way to diffuse the magic through all parts of the area."

Messrs. Hazel McEachern, George Jenkins and Harold Smith motored to the western part of the Island Sunday, where they spent a very pleasant day. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod, Chicago, who have been spending the summer in Millview, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McEachern, left on return Monday morning. While here Mr. McLeod was engaged in remodelling the home of the late James Burke.

Some owners of local racing stock held a matinee on the track of St. N.-Dawson, North Tryon on Friday afternoon last, where some fine exhibitions of speed were shown. A regrettable accident happened to Bert Dickie of Cape Traverse, when he was kicked by a horse. Dr. E. A. Bell, who was present, administered immediate aid and according to latest reports he is resting comfortably.

Mr. and Mrs. Liebie Pooley, of Boston, is spending her vacation with relatives in Tryon and vicinity. Her many friends are glad to welcome her back, even though for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton (visitors in Victoria), spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sherren, of Craupud. Mr. Joe Joslyn, of Ashland, Mass., is visiting friends in Augustin Cove. Welcome to our Island Joe.

Be sure that in those ancient days of the witch incinerator, of charms and of magic, weeds were suspected of being agents of the Evil One. In 1650 Sir Thomas Browne warns: "A rural charm against ditter, tetter and strangling weeds is by placing a chalked tile at the four corners, and one in the middle of its intention, was rational in the contrivance, and a good way to diffuse the magic through all parts of the area."

Messrs. Hazel McEachern, George Jenkins and Harold Smith motored to the western part of the Island Sunday, where they spent a very pleasant day. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod, Chicago, who have been spending the summer in Millview, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McEachern, left on return Monday morning. While here Mr. McLeod was engaged in remodelling the home of the late James Burke.

Some owners of local racing stock held a matinee on the track of St. N.-Dawson, North Tryon on Friday afternoon last, where some fine exhibitions of speed were shown. A regrettable accident happened to Bert Dickie of Cape Traverse, when he was kicked by a horse. Dr. E. A. Bell, who was present, administered immediate aid and according to latest reports he is resting comfortably.

Mr. and Mrs. Liebie Pooley, of Boston, is spending her vacation with relatives in Tryon and vicinity. Her many friends are glad to welcome her back, even though for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton (visitors in Victoria), spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sherren, of Craupud. Mr. Joe Joslyn, of Ashland, Mass., is visiting friends in Augustin Cove. Welcome to our Island Joe.

Be sure that in those ancient days of the witch incinerator, of charms and of magic, weeds were suspected of being agents of the Evil One. In 1650 Sir Thomas Browne warns: "A rural charm against ditter, tetter and strangling weeds is by placing a chalked tile at the four corners, and one in the middle of its intention, was rational in the contrivance, and a good way to diffuse the magic through all parts of the area."

Messrs. Hazel McEachern, George Jenkins and Harold Smith motored to the western part of the Island Sunday, where they spent a very pleasant day. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod, Chicago, who have been spending the summer in Millview, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McEachern, left on return Monday morning. While here Mr. McLeod was engaged in remodelling the home of the late James Burke.

Some owners of local racing stock held a matinee on the track of St. N.-Dawson, North Tryon on Friday afternoon last, where some fine exhibitions of speed were shown. A regrettable accident happened to Bert Dickie of Cape Traverse, when he was kicked by a horse. Dr. E. A. Bell, who was present, administered immediate aid and according to latest reports he is resting comfortably.

Mr. and Mrs. Liebie Pooley, of Boston, is spending her vacation with relatives in Tryon and vicinity. Her many friends are glad to welcome her back, even though for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton (visitors in Victoria), spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sherren, of Craupud. Mr. Joe Joslyn, of Ashland, Mass., is visiting friends in Augustin Cove. Welcome to our Island Joe.

Be sure that in those ancient days of the witch incinerator, of charms and of magic, weeds were suspected of being agents of the Evil One. In 1650 Sir Thomas Browne warns: "A rural charm against ditter, tetter and strangling weeds is by placing a chalked tile at the four corners, and one in the middle of its intention, was rational in the contrivance, and a good way to diffuse the magic through all parts of the area."

Messrs. Hazel McEachern, George Jenkins and Harold Smith motored to the western part of the Island Sunday, where they spent a very pleasant day. Mr. and Mrs. McLeod, Chicago, who have been spending the summer in Millview, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McEachern, left on return Monday morning. While here Mr. McLeod was engaged in remodelling the home of the late James Burke.

Some owners of local racing stock held a matinee on the track of St. N.-Dawson, North Tryon on Friday afternoon last, where some fine exhibitions of speed were shown. A regrettable accident happened to Bert Dickie of Cape Traverse, when he was kicked by a horse. Dr. E. A. Bell, who was present, administered immediate aid and according to latest reports he is resting comfortably.

Mr. and Mrs. Liebie Pooley, of Boston, is spending her vacation with relatives in Tryon and vicinity. Her many friends are glad to welcome her back, even though for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barton (visitors in Victoria), spent an enjoyable evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Sherren, of Craupud. Mr. Joe Joslyn, of Ashland, Mass., is visiting friends in Augustin Cove. Welcome to our Island Joe.

Be sure that in those ancient days of the witch incinerator, of charms and of magic, weeds were suspected of being agents of the Evil One. In 1650 Sir Thomas Browne warns: "A rural charm against ditter, tetter and strangling weeds is by placing a chalked tile at the four corners, and one in the middle of its intention, was rational in the contrivance, and a good way to diffuse the magic through all parts of the area."

Advertisement for Putnam's Corn Extract, featuring the text 'SORE CORNS Removed by PUTNAM'S Corn Extract'.