PERSONALS - Mr. Carl Weeks, Alberton, was a visitor to the City yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Leavitt, Alberton, motored to Charlottetown Thursday.

Mr. H. W. Matthews, postmaster at Alberton, was in the City Thursday on official business.

Mr. Herbert Donald, Sea View, who has been patient for the past two months in Prince George's Hospital, has returned to his home. His many friends are pleased to welcome him back.

In the Seventh Victory Loan, the salesmen of the Great West Life Assurance Company in Prince Edward Island made another record achievement, in having sold over three hundred and fifty thousand dollars in bonds, or over ten per cent of the Provincial objective.

In the last four campaigns, that is, two in 1943 and two in 1944, the objective was twelve million dollars, and the Great West Life salesmen averaged ten per cent, in the combined and individual sales.

The Provincial Managers, Hyndman & Co. Ltd., are naturally well pleased with the effort put forth by their representatives in thus contributing to the success of the Loans.

Another Outstanding Record

REPORTED MISSING - Mrs. James Lanigan, Souris West, received a telegram from Ottawa yesterday stating that her son, James Lanigan, was in action since November 9th. He was serving in Italy and had been in the hospital in Sicily previous to that. His two brothers are also in the Army and at present in Italy. The three brothers joined up at the beginning of the war and were training in Canada when they went to England and from there to Sicily and Italy. James was a former student of P. W. C. for two years.

CARD PARTY - A very successful card party was held in the Holy Name Hall Wednesday evening, sponsored by the ladies of St. Charles' Auxiliary. The winners were as follows: Ladies' 1st, Miss A. Hennessey; 2nd, Mrs. Katherine Creamer. Gents' 1st, Mr. Frank Smith; 2nd, Mr. Ambrose Smith. The lucky table prize was drawn by Mrs. Ellen Macdonald, and the freeze-dryer by Mr. Doyle and Mr. Anthony Burke.

BLOOD DONORS CLINIC - At this week's Blood Donors Clinic in Charlottetown three women and four men gave blood for the first time. One man gave his twentieth donation and his wife with him and she gave her seventh. That's a pretty good record. Three women were the only representatives this week from the armed services. Messrs. J. T. Morris sent up to the Clinic his wife, Mrs. M. A. MacLeod. The number of donors which was much appreciated. At the Kensington clinic on Wednesday there were eighteen donors. Belfast is having its first Blood Donors clinic today. At next week's clinic both in Charlottetown and Summerside are being organized by a number of first time donors who will be on hand to supplement the old reliable repeaters.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our darling little daughter, Emma Mae Peters, died November 25th, 1940.

Two dear little hearts are resting. A loving heart is still. His one true love is waiting. For us just over here. She was only a little white rose-tan flower, but so sweet.

A sweet little flower from birth God took her away to Heaven. She was soled on earth.

Sadly Missed by Her Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Peters and Children, Florence, Betty and Milton. 11-25-44.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear mother, MRS. BENJAMIN C. DOUGLAS who departed this life November 25th, 1920. 11-26-44.

In loving memory of Cameron Robertson, who departed this life November 26, 1941.

Days of sadness still come o'er us. Tears in silence often flow. Memory keeps you ever near us. Though you died three years ago.

Inserted by Wife and Family. 11-26-44.

In Memoriam

In sad, but loving memory of our dear husband, father and grandfather, James E. Collins, who passed away November 25th, 1943. Memories are treasures, which no death leaves a wound that cannot heal. Some I forget you, Grandpa now you are gone. But we will remember you, no matter how long.

Remembered and Sadly Missed by His Wife, Son and Grandchildren. 11-26-44.

NURSES ALUMNAE

The regular monthly meeting of the Prince Edward Island Hospital Nurses' Alumnae was held last night at the Cundall Home, Miss Doris Winchester, Lux washability expert, gave a talk and demonstration on the care and construction of fabrics. Another interesting feature of the meeting was the reading of letters from nurses overseas who had recently received Christmas parcels from the Alumnae. A delightful lunch was served to nurses and guests before the meeting ended.

ARRIVES HOME - Another officer in the person of Capt. D. L. Matheson returned home last night. Captain Matheson was met at Borden by Mrs. Matheson and motored to the City. So far as is known, Major A. J. Wilson and Capt. Matheson are the only returned men to arrive in the Province this week-end, others, including G. P. Gamble of DeSable and P. J. S. Gallant of Coleman were also expected.
