DISCLOSURES IN MONTREAL POLICE PROBE

Inspector Tells of Interference by Alderman in Behalf of Offenders.

POLICE MATRON MENTIONED

Her Son-in-Law Charges
He Was Framed.

MONTREAL, Nov. 4.—That Alderman J. A. Savard, of the St. Denis Ward, interfered with him in the execution of his duty regard to closing up a tobacco shop on Mount Royal Avenue which had been raided because of a gambling resort operated in the rear of the premises, was the opinion expressed by Mr. Justice Cochere, investigating commissioner, who is probing Montreal police affairs, on the evidence of Inspector Roberts of the city force. Notwithstanding that Captain Morin, under whose jurisdiction the Mont Royal Avenue place came had refused to recommend renewal of a license the shop was reopen just the same. Captain Morin had wished to take action against the place but Inspector Roberts had spoken to him on the matter and as a result Morin was not allowed to do so.
Evidence also showed that when the police raided the tobacco shop and arrested Aime Lalonde who conducted it, together with several others, Alderman Savard had commented to Lieut. Archambault that the police would be better engaged in arresting bandits than in that kind of work. Archambault testified that when Lalonde was taken to headquarters he had phoned Alderman Savard to come and give him bail.
Chief Belanger and Police Matron Mrs. MacDonald figured prominently in the proceedings to-

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE RE- ELECTED TO OFFICE IN YESTERDAY'S ELECTION

Returns Show Large Majority For Republicans, Especially in Eastern States—Al Smith Still Retains Governorship Of New York State Winning Out By a Small Majority.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 4.—
The United States Republicans swept the electoral field in yesterday's presidential elections when the party's standard bearer President Coolidge was returned to office for another four year term.
As was expected President Coolidge received his greatest support from the electors of New York state where he obtained a majority of about a million votes.
The voters as previously predicted adhered closely to the nation's old party lines—Republican and Democrat, the La Follette following proving practically a negligible quantity.
A striking example of this tendency was the fact that Coolidge out-stripped his socialist opponent in the latter's stronghold, South Dakota.
J. W. Davis, the Democrat hope polled a heavy vote in the south and a few of the western states and altogether obtained support which placed him in a high position for second honors.
In the race for governorship the greatest interest centered on the state of New York where Theodore Roosevelt Jr., sought to oust Governor Smith. Although the state is Republican the Democrat contender Smith carried the day with a small majority.

FROM PARLIAMENT BUILDINGS TO PENITENTIARY

In all Canadian history no case has attracted attention like the revelations of the Public Accounts Committee in the Ontario Legislature. Corruption and wrongdoing was discovered and the arm of the law pounced down on the offenders.
In the upper left is shown the Parliament Buildings of Ontario, at Toronto, where for seventeen years Charles A. Matthews, Jr. (upper right) was employed in the Treasury Department and latterly as Deputy Provincial Treasurer, Peter Smith (lower left) was Provincial Treasurer in the late government. While the Public Accounts Committee was delving into books of the Province and announcing startling disclosures, Matthews disappeared. Several months later he was apprehended in California and soon found himself back in Toronto to face a trial on several charges. A Jury found him guilty of a breach of the Secret Commissions Act and also of receiving "gifts." He is now in the Toronto Jail (lower right) waiting to be taken to Penitentiary to commence a two-year term. Peter Smith was found guilty of conspiracy to defraud the Province in certain bond deals and has also been sentenced to three years imprisonment for conspiracy in connection with Home Bank affairs. He will soon commence a six-year term in the same institution. The cases are being appealed.

the fishermen got for it at the ports, was a statement made by T.

Luncheon today.
Mr. Blair said that when he asked the local storekeeper the reason for the large difference in price secured by the fishermen and that at which the fish was retailed in Ottawa, he was told the express charges were so heavy. The speaker pointed out that the express rates on such fish were only

PAYS VISIT TO ST. VINCENT'S ORPHANAGE

His Hon. Lieut.-Governor Hertz and Party Entertained by Kiddies.

The publicity attending upon the recent drive for funds for the Protestant Orphanage has been of great value in educating the public at large as to the necessity of institutions of this kind. Wherever Christian civilization has gone there has been a recognition of the sacred duty of alleviating to some extent the hard lot of children orphaned in early life. But apart from any charitable consideration, orphanages are now recognized as an asset of inestimable value to the community. For in these little waifs and strays, threatened with shipwreck so early in the voyage of life, lie hidden potentialities which well repay careful training, and frequently from their ranks are recruited the great leaders of men, whose genius has shed a light over their generation. It is recognized by economists today that Orphanages are in the best sense of the word, "PAVING INSTITU-TIONS" and that every dollar invested therein yields returns as surely as harvest follows seeding. Now that the Protestant Orphanage drive is so happily ended, a few words about another similar institution may not be amiss.

Little is heard of the St. Vincent Orphanage, opposite St. Dunstan's University, for the reason that the Sisters of Charity, better known as the Grey Nuns, do their work so quietly and unostentatiously.
This institution is at present caring for eighty-four orphans ranging from a few weeks old to twelve and thirteen years of age.
Last year the number reached one hundred and four.
The Sisters of Charity, as the name implies, are pledged to vows of perpetual poverty and devote their whole lives to works of charity. They specialize in the care of orphans; in their care and in their education; and wherever is found a home under their management you have a guarantee of efficiency and economy.
On Thursday last His Honor the Lieutenant Governor and Mrs.
Hertz paid a visit to St. Vincent's Orphanage. They were received by the Sister Superior and conducted to the reception room where the children from the age of five were
