Hockey Talk Already Rife In Manhattan

BY ALAN RANDAL Canadian Press Staff Writer NEW YORK, Aug. 25—(CP)—This Walter Franklin, the Canadian boxer from Hamilton and Windsor, Ont., is one of the smoothest working middleweights seen in Madison Square Gardens in some time. He gave Frankie Castiglia of Brooklyn his lumps last night in no uncertain way in scoring a three-round technical K.O.

HOCKEY TALK ALREADY RIFE IN MANHATTAN

Hockey talk ahead of time in Manhattan looks like a lonely winter for Cecil Hart of Montreal Canadiens. With Montreal Maroons suspended for the season, Cecil won't have Tommy Gorman to scrap with. Mervin Dutton is so busy at his contracting business in western Canada he was unable to attend today's pow-wow of the National Hockey League Governors here. Red and his brother have just received a juicy contract to construct an airport in Calgary.

DEFAULTS NUMEROUS

Defaults were numerous today in the first, second, third and fourth divisions. But more than 20 of the golfers from all parts of the Maritime Provinces went into the torrential rain to play their quarter-final matches. Many were prepared to take their second round in the finals when the tournament committee decided to postpone third round matches until tomorrow.

THE FAMOUS JIMMY THOMPSON

The famous Jimmy Thomson, world champion driver and super-professional, played the same course yesterday under the same conditions and carded 75.
