READY IN AUTUMN - Plans for new F. G. Spencer theatre, in Charlottetown, P. E. I., are nearing completion. This unit of the Spence chain of amusement houses is expected to be ready next fall, says Saint John Times Star.

ISLAND FERRY O. K. - The Prince Edward Island car ferry from Borden to Cape Tormentine continues to make two trips a day, much to the satisfaction of the travelling public, especially a large group of commercial travellers. There has not been much ice in the Strait, and when this condition continues every opportunity to "clean up the Island" is being taken by those having business over here. -Saint John Times-Star.

DEBATING CLUB FORMED - The Wheatley River Literary and Debating Society was re-organized Friday evening, December 10th, with Charles Andrews in the chair. The following officers were appointed: President, Victor Ling; Vice-President, Philip Matheson; Secretary, "Phil" Ling; Treasurer, Roy Ling. The meetings will be held weekly, each Friday evening, 8 o'clock, subject to the opening debate. Resolved that more information be gained through travelling than "ling." The mover was T. D. Ling and seconded Alex. DeRoche. The first regular debate will be held Friday, December 17th.

WEDDING BELLS - The marriage took place in Providence, R. I., on October 30th of Mr. Raymond McWilliams of Cape Traverse, P. E. I., now shipping clerk, to Miss Mary W. Riggs, switch board operator at the St. Rostain. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. Hollington, Methodist minister, witnessed by Miss Sophie Campbell and Miss Beatrice Mathew. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed McWilliams of Cape Traverse. The young couple intend making their home in Boston and their many island friends join in wishing them a long happy life.

CONDITIONS DULL IN U. S. A. - Rev. Edwin Simpson, pastor of First Baptist Church, Green Bay, Wisconsin, U. S. A., made a brief stopover in Moncton Monday on his way to attend his mother's funeral in St. Eleanor's, P. E. Island. Rev. Mr. Simpson, who occupies an important pulpit in Wisconsin, reports that business and church conditions on the other side of the line are no more attractive than in the Maritime Provinces. Citing the illness in Great Britain and prevailing influenza in Michigan, where he is located, Rev. Mr. Simpson spoke of the strike of recently of 80,000 men at the Ford plant in Detroit, which was only one instance among many. -Moncton Transcript.

PLEASANT GATHERING - An entertainment was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carr on Dec. 10, in aid of the Oyster Industry, in the parlour of the Oyster Industry, in the parlour of the Oyster Industry. Despite the unfavorable condition of the weather quite a number of people gathered to have an evening's fun. The chief attraction of the evening was a fishing pond. Needless to say many varied and varied were the fish caught. Games, music, grand piano selections and singing were enjoyed. Miss Edna McInnis was the accompanist for the evening. A buffet lunch was served by the ladies of the institute. In his usual genial manner, Mr. Collin Higgins tendered a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carr for the use of their house, after which they sang, "For they are jolly good fellows." A neat sum was realized.
