[Y]ou'll save by buying your fur coat here!

WE are in a position to make you the most interesting kind of a proposition in case you consider getting a good coat for this winter. We are handling the famous CORISTINE line of ladies' fur coats. These are certainly the finest and most reliable garments that money can buy. In fit—finish—durability—they are the standard. We have marked each garment in our showing at a special, net price. There is no discount to anyone under any condition—if these garments were marked as most stores mark them—the prices would be from twenty per cent to twenty five per cent higher. That just means that you can save that amount by placing your fur coat order with our ready to wear department.

A coat of crisp bright astrachan fur, carefully made, accurately cut, very nicely lined, the fur stayed in the exclusive Coristine way, ensuring the purchaser safety against rips and tares—the grade usually sold for [$4]5.00 our price $35.00 net.

A coat of fine black Bokharan [lam]b, of fine crisp even curl, almost [as l]ight as persian lamb a beautifully made and finished coat, of [ex]pert cut, fine fit and correct [style]. Most stores sell a coat of less for $57.00 our price only $47.50 net.

Another one in good fine astrachan is thirty inches in length, has good large collar and revers good lining of black satin just the same coat as is ordinarily offered you for $47.50 and our price is only $37.50 net.

Another one in fine Bokharan lamb has collar and revers of alaska sa[ble] twenty eight inches in length, lined [wit]h heavy black satin, very [illegible] garment fine fitter, and a depe[ndabl]e wearer—many stores sell this [sim]ilar line at $65.00 our price only $52.50 net

Still another of the famous Coristine jacket in very fine glossy cur[led Bokh]aran lamb, thirty inches long good high collar and reveers of the same [illegible] same absolutely accurate cut, and sedulously careful finish as in the [prec]eding lines a beautiful coat better than many offered at $75.00 our [price] $57.50
