LETTER OF CONDOLENCE.

To Sister Cassie and Bro. Everett McLeod, Fredericton. We, on behalf of the members of Refuge Division, No. 201, Sons of Temperance, desire to extend to you our sincere sympathy in this your hour of sad bereavement. Death has again entered your home, and this time you have been called upon to part with your one remaining loved parent—your father. Our words can afford your lonely hearts but little comfort; but there is one who sympathizes with you in all your sorrow, and from Him alone, can the sorrowing one obtain sympathy to comfort and strengthen him in his sadness.

In your home is a vacancy which cannot be filled, father's chair is empty, father's loving voice is silent. Yet when you are sad, try to remember that his Heavenly Father has called him to inhabit a mansion in the skies where all is peace, joy and happiness, and there he waits with mother to be joined by his loved ones, where there is no more parting or sorrow.

Signed on behalf of the members of Refuge Division; Andrew Stevenson, Puzzie Selleck, Laura Weeks.
