

WOMAN HAD NERVOUS TROUBLE

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her.

West Danby, N. Y.—"I have had nervous trouble all my life until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for nerves and for female troubles and it straightened me out in good shape. I work nearly all the time, as we live on a farm and I have four girls. I do all my sewing and other work with their help, so it shows that I stand it real well. I took the Compound when my ten year old daughter came and it helped me a lot. I have also had my oldest girl take it and it did her lots of good. I keep it in the house all the time and recommend it."—Mrs. DEWITT SINCEBAUGH, West Danby, N. Y.

Sleeplessness, nervousness, irritability, backache, headaches, dragging sensations, all point to female derangements which may be overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. This famous remedy, the medicinal ingredients of which are derived from native roots and herbs, has for forty years proved to be a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism. Women everywhere bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

He recommends some modern up-to-date equipment in place of old ones now worn out, and out of style.—M.

—WELCOME VISITORS.—The home of Mrs. Jerome Richard was the scene of a happy gathering when Sisters Marie du Mont Carmel and "St. Jean" of the congregation "Des petites sœurs de la St. famille" of Montreal, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Richard, arrived home on a few days' holiday to see their parents and relatives. Sapper was served to seventy-five persons. An address was read to Mr. and Mrs. Richard and to the rest of the family, by one of the nuns. The address was a touching one, in which was enumerated all that could touch the heart of Christian parents who had made the sacrifice of their daughters by holding them enter a convent and served forever from all worldly joys. Mr. Richard answered in touching terms to the address read and he considered himself happy at the thought of the sacrifice made by his little daughters who considered their lives happy in the serving of God. —A GOOD SHOWING.—In the Free-For-All race on Monday, Prof. Rockford untied the legs of his horse, Corwin Hal, in the last heat, with the result that something would have been doing had there been some rubber in the reins. The actions of the horse, however, must have been pleasing to the Professor, who was all smiles at the end of the heat, with little or nothing to say—something very unusual—as was afterwards remarked.—H.

—TEACHERS REMEMBERED.—The last school day in Mont Carmel was one of more than common interest when, without being aware, the teachers of the three departments in succession were assailed by words of gratitude from their respective pupils in the form of addresses followed by gifts worthy of affection and good terms that must have prevailed through the term between teachers and pupils. It is an act that will survive an act that will seal friendship for the future. The teachers of Mont Carmel school wish to extend their thanks and appreciation to each and every pupil of the said school. R

—INFORMATION APPRECIATED.—The Teachers and pupils of Mont Carmel School wish to heartily thank Professor L. Tennant for the valuable information given on the occasion of a few minutes visit paid to the said school during which he fully explained about the currant saw fly, and insect that has been doing great ravages to the currant and gooseberry bushes. In a few brief words Mr. Tennant explained the life history of the insects, and laid stress on the applications of the proper remedy in order to lessen the harm done by these millions of intruders. Many who had never heard of such an insect immediately applied the remedy and happily very few survived.—D.

—SCHOOL CLOSING.—The half-yearly examination of St. Raphael school was held on Tuesday June 26. A large attendance was a striking feature. Rev. P. P. Arsenault, Denis Arsenault, teacher of Mont Carmel school, and Alphonse Arsenault examined the classes. Recitations were interspersed between the classes and after the program was exhausted remarks were passed by Rev. P. P. Arsenault, who as usual lauded the progress accomplished and prompted the pupils to continue in the way of knowledge and encouraged the parents to co-operate with the teachers. Remarks were also made by Mr. Denis D. Arsenault and the trustees of the district. God save the King. R —ENJOYABLE "AT HOME."—The "At Home" given by Mrs. Leslie Tennant last Thursday was a most enjoyable and successful function. The decorations were American Beauties and White Carnations, and Mrs. Tennant was assisted by Mrs. Clarke (wife of Professor Clarke of the Experimental Farm, Charlottetown) and Miss Allie Muirhead, in receiving the numerous guests. Miss Hunt presided at the tea table; while the Misses Forsythe and McFarlane served the dainty viands and confections. Miss Nita Hensley who has lately returned from Sackville Academy, played some brilliant piano solos, during the reception, to the delight of the many who attended.

—ST. HERBERT SCHOOL.—The semi-annual school examination of St. Herbert school was held on the afternoon of June 22nd, with a good attendance of the people of the district. Rev. Father Boudreault presided and the classes were examined by Mr. Leo Doiron and Miss Marguerite Arsenault. The pupils performed their part very well, and were highly praised by those who spoke, namely Rev. Father Boudreault, Joseph Arsenault, Andrew Gallant and John Arsenault. The teacher, Miss LeClair was leaving and was greatly regretted. After the distribution of prizes by their teacher she was presented with an address read by Miss Beatrice Gallant and a beautiful gift by Miss Clarice McDonald. Miss LeClair will teach next year in her home district St. Gilberts.—M.

—ST. GILBERTS SCHOOL.—On June 29th took place the public school examination of St. Gilberts school. The attendance was unusually large, and the standard of the work done reflected great credit on the parents and teacher Miss Exilline Arsenault. The classes were examined by Misses Celine Gallant, Andrew Arsenault, Marguerite LeClair, Marguerite Arsenault and Rev. Father Boudreault presided. Prizes were awarded to the pupils by their teacher, who in turn was presented with a beautiful address and gift. A prize had also been offered by Mr. Stanislaus Cormier for department. All the pupils were judged deserving of the prize which was tossed and won by Miss M. Maddix. Congratulatory remarks were made by the pastor trustees and others. Keen regret was evinced at the departure of the teacher, as she had proven herself very competent and was esteemed by all. Some of these who spoke were Stanislaus Cormier, Joseph Maddix, Onesite Gallant, Marcisse Gallant.—M.

—SCHOOL CLOSING.—The final examination of the classes of Cape Egmont School was held on Thursday, June 28th. The attendance was more than normal. The class room was beautifully decorated by the teachers: Misses Madeline Bernard and Marie Anne Arsenault. The programme was elaborate. The classes were examined by Rev. P. P. Arsenault and Mr. Denis D. Arsenault, Josephine Gallant and Beatrice Pitre, teachers of Mont Carmel School. Recitations and songs intervened between the classes. The subjects examined in were Reading, Spelling, Grammar, Canadian and British History, Geography, Current Events, Vocal Music was in a high degree of perfection. Progress was found satisfactory. The classes acquitted themselves of the different lessons with ease. Prizes were awarded to the most efficient in the different branches of studies and also for deportment and attendance. Rev. P. P. Arsenault showed his appreciation of the good work done by the teacher and strongly recommended the pupils to continue attending school. The Principal of Mont Carmel School also passed some brief remarks as to the progress made and congratulated the teachers in the good work done during the term. Remarks were also made by the ratepayers showing their satisfaction at the progress made. The examination closed with God Save the King.—D.

—SEMI-ANNUAL EXAMINATION.—The semi-annual examination of Mont Carmel school No. 53 took place on Wednesday June 27th, in the afternoon. A large majority of the ratepayers were present, about sixty in number. Rev. P. P. Arsenault, Messrs. Mathiesan, Gallant and Vernon Smith, also Misses Madeline Bernard and Marie Anne Arsenault were examining the classes. The pupils were examined in the following subjects: Reading, spelling, grammar, French and English, arithmetic, history, Canadian and British geography, Latin, nature study and vocal music. The most important feature of the examination were a duet by two of the pupils admirably rendered, and a spelling match by the pupils of the advanced department. Recitations were also prominent. After the conclusion of the program prizes for attendance, deportment, progress in general and application were awarded to those who deserved them, after which remarks were made first by Rev. P. P. Arsenault, P.P. who in a few brief and most appropriate words lauded the good work done, and encouraged the pupils and parents to continue in the way of education. Mr. John J. Gallant passed a few brief remarks after which he joined in the efforts of the teachers by giving some financial encouragement to the lowest class by awarding three prizes in money to the three smallest girls. The trustees spoke favorably about the standard of the classes. Mr. Smith and others also made some notable remarks. At the conclusion everybody joined in singing God Save the King. R
