—FROM TUESDAY, APRIL 8th, I will be absent from my office about four or five weeks. Office will remain open to render service in the way of repairs. H. T. Colvin, Opt. D. Ophthalmologist, Summerside, P. E. I. 2891-4-7-12-15-19-22-26-29-May-3-6-10.

—PRETTY WEDDING—A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's Church, Summerside, on Wednesday at high noon. Ven. Arch-deacon White officiating. The contracting parties were Miss Myrtle Glen Barlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Barlow, of Ellerslie, and Mr. Stanford Daniel Rayner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rayner, of Traveller's Rest. The bride was charming in a dress of canton blue flat silk crepe with hat to match. Miss Sadie Morrison of Ellerslie, was bridesmaid and wore a pretty dress of blue flat crepe. Mr. Howard Barlow, brother of the bride, supported the groom. After the ceremony the happy young couple left for Ellerslie where a reception was held at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Rayner will reside in Traveller's Rest. The Guardian joins a host of friends in wishing them every happiness. S.

—EASTER CONCERT—The Mission Band of Trinity United Church gave a beautiful Easter Concert in Epworth Hall on Tuesday evening. Mr. L. R. Allen, M. L. A., presided over a large and attentive audience. "Merry Bells of Easter" was the opening chorus. Some delightful recitations, solos and readings were rendered by the children and they were heartily applauded. A fairy drill by seven little girls dressed in rainbow colors was very charming. The chief feature of the evening was a Pageant entitled "The Way of the Cross" by ten of the senior Mission Band girls. Miss Mildred Allen was the interpreter and Mr. Roy Smallman acted as reader. The scene was very pretty, each young lady carried a lighted candle which represented the zeal of the Mission Band. When the candles flickered and some went out Miss Effie McKay, as a missionary, came and appealed to the workers in such beautiful words that the candles burnt brighter than ever. It was a beautiful play full of meaning. During the pageant Mr. Roy Smallman sang very effectively, "The Old Rugged Cross." The proceeds, which amounted to a very satisfactory sum, were in aid of missions. S.

—TRANSFERRED—Mr. Leo Merritt, manager of the Royal Bank, Tignish, who has been transferred to Mulgrave, Nova Scotia, accompanied by Mrs. Merritt, left Tignish Friday morning to take up life in their new surroundings. In the Tignish hall, on the eve of their unexpected departure their friends rallied around them in a "fashion royal" and presented the fleeting guests with a beautifully worded address, backed up by a purse of gold. Mr. J. A. Hackett read the address, while Mr. Brennan presented the coin. Mr. and Mrs. Merritt both responded fittingly. They expressed their gratitude to the good people of Tignish for their kindness and consideration at all times and spoke regretfully of their intended departure, which was a complete surprise to them both. Sentiments of regret on the departure of two such worthy citizens were then expressed by The Rev. Father McKenna, Capt. Jas. McGrath, P. A. McDonald, J. A. Brennan, Mr. Hurtle, J. A. Hackett, A. R. Ebea and others. Mr. C. P. McCarthy who capably presided, concluded the oral part of the program by expressing fluently his personal sentiments of regret. The Tignish orchestra, under the capable direction of Mrs. P. Claude Murphy, provided excellent music.—T.
