SCOTT'S EMULSION

It will create richer blood to establish body-warmth and fortify his lungs and throat. Thousands of soldiers all over the world take Scott's Emulsion. It is exactly what they need.

TRACTOR COMING.—As there is a growing interest in the question of tractors on farms an opportunity will be given farmers this spring to see one at work at the Experimental Station at Charlottetown. Mr. Clark, the Superintendent, ordered a Moline tractor some time ago to be delivered early in March. It will be used first on the thirty-acre field leased from the Connolly estate adjoining the Driving Park. The field has been plowed and the tractor will be used to cultivate it in preparation for the planting of mangels for seed purposes.

CALENDAR.—The Guardian has received a fine calendar from The Rock City Tobacco Co., Ltd., whose provincial agent is Mr. J. B. Gaudet.

MEETING THIS AFTERNOON.—There will be a meeting of the Prince Edward Island Artillery Auxiliary in the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon at 3:30. All ladies interested in providing comforts for artillerymen overseas are invited to attend. 2751

A SPLENDID SHOW.—Many of those who have read David Graham Phillips' great novel "The Hungry Heart" crowded the Prince Edward Theatre last evening to see a Zukor dramatization of that great story, with Pauline Frederick in the leading role. This play brings out the problems of the eternal triangle which are handled with delicate and artistic skill by Miss Frederick. The third chapter of "The Grey Ghost" serial started this excellent mystery story well on its way and a Nestor comedy filled and good properly balanced a splendid bill which will be repeated this afternoon and twice tonight.

G.W.V.A.—At a meeting of the Great War Veterans Association directorate on Saturday the following officers were elected: Hon. President, His Worship Mayor G. Dudley Wright, President, Ex-Governor McKinnon, Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. C. J. McCormack; Social Committee—President—Messrs. C. H. Chandler, S. A. McDonald and the Secretary, Entertainment Committee—Messrs. E. A. Foster, C. J. Gallagher, and M. N. Davison. Additional Directors—The Mayor, Mr. James Paton, M.L.A., and Principal H. Johnston. Owing to the continued illness of President Roy Leitch and the absence from the City of the soldier officials, the management of the G.W.V.A. has been taken over by the civilian directorate.

CARRIAGE ROBE

A very effective carriage robe for a young child is made out of white corduroy and is particularly suitable for this time of year. Cut the corduroy the required length, using all of the width and line it with a soft white or colored French flannel. Then bind the edges with satin ribbon four inches wide and finish with a fine braided stitch. Carry bands of satin ribbon the same width from the two upper corners diagonally to the centre of the robe and there form the ribbons into big rosettes.

Quite often the upholstery of a baby carriage becomes faded, worn or soiled. In such cases a new one can be made very easily. Cut a paper pattern the size and shape of the back and sides of the carriage and make a cover to fit, out of white pipe or a natural colored linen. Bind with a wash braid and make button-holes along the edge. On the upholstery of the carriage sew pearl buttons and button on the covering, which can be easily removed for washing.

IN MEMORIAM

JOHN MacQUARRIE

There departed this life at his home in Bonshaw, on the 31st day of December, 1917, John MacQuarrie, at the advanced age of seventy-nine years. The deceased was a prominent elder of the Church of Scotland, and always upheld both by precept and example the doctrine and discipline of the church. In time of conflict he proved himself a loyal office-bearer and faithful follower of his Lord and Master. He always took a leading part in the prayer meetings, and until a few days before his passing away was able to assist in the services connected with the Revival now progressing under the ministry of his pastor. In the community he was noted for his sympathetic yet firm and unflinching disposition, and always favored any movement approved and sanctioned by the word of God. He was a charitable and obliging neighbor, and a kind and loving father. His last illness brought into prominence the unflinching faith and trust in God which had always been a characteristic of his Christian life. Such men are greatly missed in a world where there is so much folly, sin and vice. The funeral service which was largely attended was conducted by his minister, the Rev. James MacDougal, and interment was made in the cemetery at Canoe Cove. He leaves the following near relatives to mourn his departure:—One brother, Allan, of South Boston; one sister, Mrs. Anne Swan, of Jamaica Plain; four sons, Kenneth, Alexander and Murdoch, of Oakland, Calif., and John at home; and one daughter, Mrs. Wm. Schenck, of Roslindale, Mass.

MRS. JOHN P. GAUDET

The passing away of Mrs. John P. Gaudet, on the night of Feb. 14th, removes from the cares and concern of life, one of Richmond's most valued residents. Stricken with a fatal malady about eight months ago, all that medical skill, and the tenderest care of loving friends, could accomplish, was of no avail. She bore her long illness with saintly resignation and with unflinching confidence in God's mercy. Her cheerful and uncomplaining end, has left behind her a memory as calmly as the summer dew settles

DO YOU SUFFER FROM BACKACHE?

When your kidneys are weak and torpid they do not properly perform their functions; your back aches and you do not feel like doing much of anything. You are likely to be despondent and to borrow trouble, just as if you hadn't enough already. Don't be a victim any longer. The old reliable medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, give strength and tone to the kidneys and builds up the whole system. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar combination of roots, barks and herbs. No other medicine acts like it, because no other medicine has the same formula or ingredients. Accept no substitute, but insist on having Hood's and get it today.

on the unresisting earth. After life's feverish day it was peace and rest. Aged thirty nine, only in the prime of young womanhood, she had accomplished much good for God, and her fellow man. Her charity was generous, and whenever sickness or sorrow came, her hand and heart were open to soothe the wounds and console the afflicted. All who knew, esteemed her for the excellent Christian woman that she was. And her untimely death leaves a vacancy in the community and in the hearts of its people that can not easily be filled. The deepest sympathy is felt for those who are left to mourn—her loving husband, J. P. Gaudet, of Richmond, and her aged mother, Mrs. Thomas Larkin. Her five small children will know no more a mother's guiding hand or a mother's gentle caress. Theirs is the supreme loss. Theirs to bow the head. Her funeral took place on Sunday, Feb. 17th at the church of the Immaculate Conception, Wellington. The last Rites were performed by her pastor, Rev. P. J. Connolly, assisted by Rev. J. A. McDonald of Grand River. The pall bearers were James Condon, A. J. McLellan and C. P. Cameron of Richmond, J. J. McNally, Leonard McNeill and William McNeill of Summerside.

The funeral procession was out of the largest ever seen in this part of the country. Friends and acquaintances came from far and near to pay the last tribute of respect and esteem to one whom all held dear. And as the fresh clay was placed on the coffin lid many a fervent prayer was breathed and many an eye was moist. In St. Mary's quiet grave yard now she sleeps, but who can doubt that one so sincere and good, has wakened to eternal life. The prayer of all who knew her is: May she rest in Peace.

CAPT. WILL MCKEE SUFFERING FROM SHELL SHOCK

Capt. McKee formerly of this city, writes an interesting letter to Col. Moore as follows: MORAY LODGE, CAMPDEN HILL, LONDON, February 5th, 1918. My Dear Colonel Moore:—It was very delightful to get your long, interesting letter of Dec. 28th which I received last night, and which had followed me from place to place. Doubtless, by now, you know I have had shell-shock and been in hospital for over two months. Shell-shock or concussion, is very prevalent and the most of cases usually end in complete nervous wrecks. Some officers and men are really pitiful to see. However, I have not much cause to complain, for being naturally strong, it am coming along fairly well. If the pains in my head would only stop so I could sleep naturally I would soon be my old self. The chances are, I shall be given a couple of months rest in Canada, although I would much rather feel fit and stay in the game. Had I given in sooner I would not need so long to get right. Should I be sent to Canada, I shall as soon as possible get to Charlotte-town and shall indeed be glad to see you all. I have always made a point of looking up P. E. I. boys and have seen very many of them. Today I ran across Roy Collins. He is well and looks splendidly. Yes, I am sure, P. E. I. has reason to be proud of its artillery. They bear an excellent reputation in every way. Without being egotistical in the least it is easy to see and I know, the Canadian Corps is by far the best all round unit today in the British Army, or in fact, any army. Like you and many others, I dread to think what would have happened had conscription not become law, and yet, knowing the wonderful things Canada has done, I never for a moment feared the result.

The Canadian men are wonderful. Its marvellous what energy, discipline and fighting qualities they possess. Well, I know how you would glory in seeing them at their work. There is only one thing, I do think Canada to a man, should demand that what is left of the original First Division should be given a rest at home. The men are nearly played out, and if ever men deserved a square deal, these men do after three years and a half continental service. Many thanks for all your kind wishes. I shall never forget your kindness to me as a sub. in the old 82nd. Extremely sorry to hear about "Prof. Watts." I must ask you to excuse the use of pencil and this hurriedly written letter. As yet, my letter is not what I would like it. Please convey to Col. Stewart, all the officers and friends of our mutual acquaintance, my best regards. My, I do miss my men and horses. With the best regards and good wishes for your health and happiness. I am, faithfully yours, W. A. MCKEE.
