FUNERAL YESTERDAY - The funeral of the late Mrs. George MacNaughton was held yesterday from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Malcolm MacLean, Malpeque Road. The service at the house and grave was conducted by Mr. George Walker. Pallbearers were: Messrs. David McKinnon, Charles MacDuff, George McKinnon, Robert Dodds, Angus MacLean, George Keely, Inverness Ruisico Road Cemetery.

SOLDIERS LEAVE - Eight soldiers from the Training Centre at Beach Grove left the latter part of the week for service elsewhere in Canada. They were, all privates: F. W. Casey, Summerside, A. N. Doucette, North Rustico, G. G. Donnette, North Rustico, J. L. Gallant, Hunter River, R. J. Perry, Miscouche, A. B. Ross, Wheatley River, R. E. Stewart, Whinn Road and C. R. White, Charlottetown. Before leaving they were presented with cigarettes by the Provincial Government through the Carry On Canada Corps. The presentations were looked after by Messrs. A. G. Bruce of the Canadian Legion War Services.

MAGDALEN MAIL - A small quantity of mail postmarked for the Magdalen Islands has accumulated in the local Post Office and its mode of transportation to the island group of islands in the Gulf of St. Lawrence depends on the weather. If ice forms suddenly in the next few days, in all probability the mail will be flown from Charlottetown in a Maritime Central Airways plane. On the other hand, if it continues mild it is possible that the S. E. Levat will make another trip to the Magdalens calling at Souris where the mail would be picked up. The last trip made there by the steamer was carried out one week ago today. The boat is usually taken off the schedule for the winter toward the latter part of December over. However as there are no landing fields on the islands, planes must be equipped with skis and nature must provide the landing gear. This year no ice has formed about the Magdalens yet and the latter service has been delayed in starting.

LAI D TO REST - The funeral of the late Mrs. John R. Bruce was held Saturday afternoon from Zion Presbyterian Church. Service at the church and grave was conducted by Rev. G. Carlisle Webster. Pallbearers were: Messrs. Colin Moore, Donald MacKinnon, Murdoch Ross, Harry MacDougall, W. M. MacMillan, Allison Mutch, Inverness Orwell Head Cemetery.

LODGE MEMBER ON TRIP - Mr. A. MacCallum, Charlottetown, leaves this morning for Toronto where he will spend the winter. He is the Worshipful Master of Beach Grove Lodge here and while in Toronto will visit Mr. L. H. Read, Imperial Secretary of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of British America and L. Col. the Hon. T. A. Kidd, Most Worshipful Grand Master and Sovereign as well as other prominent officials of the order. Mr. MacCallum also holds the office of Treasurer of the Queen's County Orange Lodge Association and is a past Grand Chaplain of the Right Worshipful Provincial Grand Lodge. He will rejoin his wife in Toronto. She has been there for several weeks.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH - At the morning service the Rev. I. J. Levy in his sermon considered "A Faith for Tomorrow." The text St. Matthew 6:34, "Take therefore no thought for tomorrow," does it seem contradictory? Jesus knew the meaning of anxiety, he knew that no thought is more constant to mankind than tomorrow. Tomorrow for us all is full of dreadful events, glorious hopes, many threats. Jesus knew to the full the meaning of them all, he knew life.

Shall we believe that the maker of man will not care for him. God does not fall men, man falls himself, man fails his fellow men. We have the choice of hopeless worry or a brave, confident trust in God. "I know not what the future hath of marvel or surprise."

Assured along his life and death His mercy underlies."

The morning anthem was, Elvey's "Praise the Lord." "A new Creature in Christ" was the subject of Mr. Levy's deeply interesting evening sermon. The choir sang Handel's "O Lord, We trust alone in Thee." Mr. Robert Patchen gave fine exhortation to Malott's "The Beatitudes," in his solo.

The Communion of the Lord's Supper was observed at this service. John Inch, Mus. Bac, organist and choir director was in charge of the music of the day.

Lone Jap Holds Hawaiian Island - Until Benny Kanahale Got Mad

NATIVE TELLS HOW HE KILLED PILOT WHO "CAPTURED" ISLE FROM VILLAGES WHO HADN'T HEARD OF THE WAR.

By BETTY McDONALD NEA Service Staff Correspondent HONOLULU—Five days after the world knew that the United States and Japan were at war, a Japanese pilot, wearing a Japanese uniform, wandered peacefully a large on the Hawaiian island of Niihau.

He had landed his plane, out of gas, on one of the most amazing islands in the world, and as he walked through the only village there, he was unmolested by the peace-loving Hawaiian natives.

Because there are no telephones or radios on Niihau, which is 100 miles from Pearl Harbor, the inhabitants did not know they were at war.

Only 180 Hawaiians and two Japanese live on this forbidden island, owned by the wealthy Robinson family, direct descendants of a feudal homesteader, Mrs. Elizabeth Sinclair, who settled there in 1864.

The Japanese aviator was an inconspicuous addition to that happy island population, when he was discovered by a band of Hawaiian cowboys.

He was armed with two pistols and a machine gun which were promptly taken away from him by the natives. He was allowed, however, to wander about in this strange community on an island which had never been mentioned, probably never dreamed of, by official Japan.

The story of his establishment, for a few brief hours, of a Japanese-dominated "military regime" will go down in annals of island history.

Because, for those few hours, Japan had a base within 100 striking miles of Pearl Harbor.

The story of this terrorism, told by Benny Kanahale, the man who finally killed the pilot in a dramatic one.

In pidgin-English, the six-foot, pure-blooded Hawaiian told of the arrival on December 7 of the Japanese in a single seater fighter plane, apparently damaged in the air attack over Oahu that day.

"My neighbor, Havila Kaluwa-hane, found him, sitting in a gaze history. Japan had a base within 100 striking miles of Pearl Harbor.
