Messrs. Bartlett and Carvell are now receiving names for the advanced sale for Jessie MacLachlan. Secure your seats early as there is sure to be a rush, and you will regret it all your life if you do not hear the great Scotch singer. Reserved seats $1.00 and 50c.

ABOUT five o'clock yesterday afternoon while John Martin of Southport was hauling coal at McMillan's wharf the cart lurched and he was badly jammed between it and a post. The wheels passed over his leg and it was badly bruised. He was taken to the residence of M. P. Hogan and a doctor summoned. Upon examination it was found that he was not seriously injured.

Mrs George F. Uring of Boston, Mass., who has been spending the latter part of the summer with her parents in Dundas, has returned again from a flying visit to Boston, having been called there on account of her husband's sickness. It is her intention of remaining on the Island until Christmas when she will return to her home in Boston.

EVERYONE attending the races during Exhibition week is asked to remember the "Lunch Counter" inside Exhibition building. Between races a cup of tea, coffee, or refreshments of any kind can be obtained. Home-made candy a specialty. The ladies in charge of the Luncheon wish it to be successful as proceeds are in aid of P. E. I. Hospital.

THE residence of Augustus Newson, Esq., was the scene of a very pretty home wedding Wednesday evening, when his daughter Alena Maud, was united in marriage to Herbert F. Vanderstine, son of Robert Vanderstine, City Collector. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. M. Young in the presence of the immediate relatives. A large number of useful and valuable presents testified to the popularity of both bride and groom.

MR. AND MRS. Thomas Brooks leave by S. S. Halifax for Attleboro, Mass., at noon today. Some members of the Quarterly Official Board of the First Methodist Church, (of which Mr. Brooks has been an esteemed member for forty years) last evening presented them with a handsome Bible as a token of the esteem in which they are held. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks intend making their home with their children in Attleboro and their departure is greatly regretted.

THE sale of Cosmos and Perry Pictures in the store lately occupied by T. J. Harris begins today and continues one week only. It is a great advantage to have so many hundreds of the reproductions of famous paintings offered for sale in our City during the Exhibition. Teachers of the public schools should see the colored pictures on nature studies, also the copies of authors, artists, musicians etc. Tell your friends about this sale and remember that the profit is for the Sunday School Association.

HON. John F. Whear returned last night from Montreal where in conjunction with Mayor Warburton and Councillor Paton he has been representing Charlottetown at the meeting of the Canadian Municipalities Union. Mr. Whear speaks in the highest terms of the reception given to those in attendance by the Montreal people. They were shown over the great work being done by the Harbor Commissioners at that place and also other civic improvements. Mayor Warburton and Councillor Paton will return this evening.

THE death took place at Brackley Point yesterday, 18th, after an illness of nine months of paralysis, of Margaret McLure, wife of John W. Robertson, in her 6th year, leaving a husband, four sons Neil, Cleveland and Earl at home and John in Vancouver, B. C., and five daughters, Jessie, Emma, and Ida at home. Mrs. Adelbert Heath, Boston, and Mrs. Frederick Proud, Wiltshire, and a large circle of friends to mourn the loss of a kind and loving wife and mother. The funeral will take place from her late home to Brackley Point Cemetery tomorrow (Saturday) at 2 o'clock. The Guardian joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved husband and family.

THE MUTUAL LIFE'S GENEROSITY.—The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York had done a very generous and highly politic deed in its treatment of the surviving policy holders who, before going to the war in South Africa, insured their lives in that company. The number of claims was much less than estimated consequently the company realized very large profits, as the company would have been fully justified in doing it, it was decided to refund a portion of the premiums paid by those who survived. The liberality of the Mutual Life in this matter has been most favorably commented upon by the English press, as it richly deserved to be.—Insurance and Finance Chronicle, Montreal.

ATTENTION is drawn in this issue to the advertisement of the Canada Life Assurance Company for three agents to solicit business in this Province. The Canada Life is a household word among Canadians and its long and honorable record is one that any company might feel proud of. Established in 1847 it was the pioneer life company of Canada and after its long career of fifty-five years it stands to-day as the oldest and largest Canadian company with stronger reserves than any American or Canadian company. About forty years ago the Canada Life commenced business in this Province and has been represented here continuously ever since and it now has on its books as policy holders, the majority of our leading business and professional men. W. K. Rogers of this city is the Provincial manager of the company of Prince Edward Island and any person contemplating entering the Life Insurance field as would do well to consult him, as he promises very liberal contracts to the right men.

SHE BUYS BEST WHO BUYS QUICKLY

While there is no doubt that we have this season the largest stock of Ladies' Coats that ever were gathered under our roof at one time since we went into business—it is also true that we never sold so many Coats so early in the season. Every day sees some of the best ones picked up. Therefore "She buys best, who buys quickly."

We think a call at our Garment department, and a little time spent in examination, will convince you that this is the finest stock of Coats in the Province. That is a large claim, but we have the goods here to stand behind the claim.

HERE ARE A FEW OF THEM:

- Very fair quality Black Melton Coat, velvet collar, $1.95.
- A medium length coat in Frieze or Beaver, colors brown, brown, navy and Oxford grey, neatly made and very good looking, $3.10.
- Heavy Beaver Coat, double breasted, with pearl buttons, $4.85.
- Black Coat, 3/4 length, comes in Beaver or Nap, and is lined throughout, $5.65.
- A very pretty Coat of Oxford Grey Zibeline Cloth, lined throughout with Roman Satin, plain, but very neat and stylish, $6.75.
- Now comes a very finely tailored coat of black Cheviot, finished quite plainly $9.45.
- Three-quarter Coat of Oxford Grey Velvet Cloth, with flare cuffs, side vent, $10.45.
- Black Beaver 3/4 Coat, Roman Satin lining, collar and revers trimmed with stitched taffeta silk $12.50.
- This last garment comes also in Oxford at the same price.
- Handsome Fawn Beaver Coat with triple cape collar, 4 rows of stitching on collar, cuffs and skirt, $14.85.
- Very swell 3/4 Coat of finest black beaver, has flare cuffs, and has sleeves, collar, front and back all trimmed very effectively with narrow bands of black satin $21.50.
- Black Beaver Coat in full length, very finely made and finished, $22.50.
- Full length coats in a wide assortment of grades and prices from about $10 up.
- Then there is an immense variety of coats for little folks; about the best range of the sort that we have ever been able to show.
- Do not think that the list above represents more than the very slightest suggestion of what you can find in this department of ours.
