Widespread Protests On Colorbar In British Boxing

By JACK SULLIVAN
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON, May 2—Britain's ban on negro boxers competing for British professional championships is likely to continue for some time despite widespread protests from various sections of the public.

"The question isn't even on our agenda for discussion," Charles F. Donnell, secretary of the British Boxing Board of Control, told the Canadian Press.

Controversy on the ban was brought to a head recently when British Guiana-born Cliff Anderson lost a points decision to Al Phillips in their fight for the British Empire featherweight title vacated by 41-year-old Nel Taretton.

The crowd at Albert Hall yelled and booed more than 15 minutes after the fight and sports writers said it was the worst decision in the history of British boxing. But this demonstration was mild compared to the outcry raised by sports writers who revived the colorbar question.

The issue came up in the House of Commons. Businessmen, laborers, school-teachers and white-collar workers sent letters to newspapers declaring the discrimination was "outrageous," "stupid," "undemocratic" and "rotten."

A London Daily Express sports columnist said the ban is "utterly ridiculous" and it would be a waste of time and space to pour ridicule on it. He called on the B.B.C. to rescind the regulation "at an emergency meeting" if necessary.

B.B.C. officials have not come out publicly in defence of their stand but the secretary in an interview last January said a change in the rule was neither "desirable nor necessary" and that "it was only right that a small country such as ours should have championships restricted to boxers of white parents."

Four Members Of Canadiens Named On All-Star Team

MONTREAL, May 1—(CP)—Speed, experience and durability—qualities a hockey coach dreams about for his players—are wrapped up in the six men named tonight as the National Hockey League's 1946-47 all-stars.

The coach-picked team is dominated by the presence of four members of the league champion Montreal Canadiens and unique in the failure of the Stanley Cup-winning Toronto Maple Leafs to place a single member.

The six N. H. L. coaches made their selections on a three-two-one point basis, naming three players for each position but none from their own teams. The maximum for any player selected was 15 points, and only Maurice Richard of Canadiens got a perfect score.

Here is the all-star team:

Goal: Bill Durnan, Montreal Canadiens, 13 points.

Defence: Kenny Reardon, Montreal Canadiens, 13 points; Emile Bouchard, Montreal Canadiens, 12 points.

Centre: Milt Schmidt, Boston Bruins, 14 points.

Two innovations marked the selection. In past years, hockey writers in cities with N. H. L. teams picked the stars for The Canadian Press, but the league conducted its own poll this season among coaches of the six teams. Coaches were not permitted to name players from their own teams.

And, for the first time, a place on the team carried more than glory and the bonus clubs usually give players selected. The league offered $1,000 for each player making the team, an offer extended as well to trophy winners, whose names will be announced later this month.

In making their choice, coaches followed the form line closely and three men named to the CP team a year ago repeated this season. They were the great Canadiens triumvirate—Richard the scorer, Bouchard the bouncer and Durnan the blocker.

Four Times For Durnan

This was Durnan's fourth appearance on the first team in his four years as a professional, a record unequalled in league history. The $1,000 he will receive as his award is his second big money prize of the season because he qualified for a similar amount by winning the Vezina trophy as the league's best goaltender.

Richard, the rocket with the blazing shot who scored 45 goals in regular play to top all goal-scorers, was the only player voted the maximum number of points. He has been an all-star three years in succession. Bee-keeper Bouchard, for whom selection is a belated present for his wedding last Saturday, made the second team before reaching the first six last year.

Schmidt, acclaimed as probably the best all-round player in the game today, picked up where he left off before he went to war. He was on the first team in 1939-40.

Little Doug Bentley, fleet, shifty 148-pounder, is another veteran in the ranks of the great, having been chosen for the left wing position twice before, in 1942-43 and 1943-44. His brother Max, who beat out Richard by a point for the league point-scoring title last year, was centre on the first team a year ago.

Schmidt received 14 points, Durnan and Reardon 13 each,

Prince of Wales basketball tossers added their second championship within a week to their last yesterday afternoon when they defeated intermediate Saints in the third and final game of the intermediate intercollegiate series to add that crown to the senior one they already possess.

At Home Plate: The Great Bambino

Babe Ruth steps up to the plate at Yankee Stadium, New York, but it was a battery of microphones he faced this time. Here he stands with head bared as he is greeted with a thunderous ovation at Babe Ruth Day ceremonies. Just behind the Babe as he stands in the ball park atmosphere that made him famous is A. B. (Happy) Chandler, baseball commissioner.

Local Team To Meet Dominion Hoop Champions

The following players comprise the personnel of the Charlottetown Navy basketball team who tonight won the City League championship from the defending Saint Dunstons University hoopers.

The Navy quintet went through the City League schedule of 13 games and lost only two, both of these to St. Dunstons, to capture top place with 20 points. In the playoffs the "Tars" eliminated the Army in one game as the khaki quintet then went on to defeat St. Dunstons, winner of the S.D.U. P.W.C. series, and take the City championship.

The Navy played one outside game with Moncton C.Y.O. at Moncton in the latter part of March and were beaten by the New Brunswick intermediate champions by a single basket. The C.Y.O. quintet came from behind in the dying minutes in order to win.

Tomorrow night the Navy team, in an effort to further interest in basketball on P.E.I., have invited the New Waterford Strands from New Waterford, Nova Scotia to play an exhibition game here. The Strands are the Canadian intermediate champions and the local quintet are bringing them to Charlottetown at their own expense, to establish a comparison between the calibre of basketball being played here and that being played in other parts of Canada. Tomorrow night's game will be the test.

JOE CULLEN—27 year old captain of the squad, weighs 175 lbs and is 5ft 9 in. tall. Joe a perennial reserve batter, in his team interests, only possesses an accurate set shot and can be counted on to come through when the going is close. Joe played with both P.W.C. and S.D.U. in his college days and later with the Y-Knots. While in the service he played a few games with H.M.C.S. Peregrine and last year with the local Arabs, plays left forward and has been in the game about 12 years.

EARI SMITH—Centre man of the squad is 6ft. tall and weighs 160 lbs. "Smitty" played on Junior "Y" teams for a couple of years and in 1945 was a member of the Senior "V" team in the City League. Last year he was a member of the Arab's in 1945, 1946 and 1947 he led all scorers in the City League. His best shot is a one hander from the top of the keyhole and his accuracy speaks for itself in that this year he had an average of 16.5 points in each of 12 games. "Smitty" has been playing for about 5 years and is 23 years old.

WALTER LEPAGE—145 lb, 5ft. 9ins. right forward who is playing his first year in the Charlottetown team since 1940-41. "Windy" plays mainly on speed and his best shot is a one hander from the right half of the court. Former member of Junior Y teams here he also played one year with P.W.C., was a member of the Mount A. Academy team and later played two years with the Mount A Varsity squad. "Windy" is 21 years old and has been playing about 7 years.

MIKE HENNESSEY—More often seen as a hockey player this 175 lb. 5ft. 10in. forward has added basketball to his achievements with some success. Mike, who is 21 years old, played with Saint Dunstons University when he was studying there and in his three short years of play has good at check-up his man he also uses his stocky frame to advantage under both baskets. Mike plays as either a forward or a guard.

IRVING MACKINNON—This long, lanky guard weighs 160 lbs and measures 6ft. 11in. from top to toe. Irv played basketball in his high school days in the States and returned to the game with the Senior "Y" team in 1945, and the Arab in 1946. Irv's long arms, which he uses to great advantage in intercepting long passes, should rate him the moniker of "Octopus." Particularly agile in sneaking up the uncovered side of the floor to cage the odd basket, 26 years old and has had about 5 years in the game.

FRANK JOHNSTON—This 6ft. 11in. guard weighs 200 lbs and plays a steady two way game consistently. "June" as he is better known as, that, but it's still a young team. Now, if it was an old club, you might say that it was starting to start rebuilding. I wouldn't know where to find any better players than we have now. They'll get going soon."

Montreal Shuts Out Stampeders Team 7-0

MONTREAL, May 1—Montreal Royals were in a class by themselves here tonight as they skated all over a loose and ineffective team of Calgary Stampeders for a 7-0 blanketing that sent Royals one game up in the best of seven Allan Cup finals.

Almost from the starting whistle Royals were obviously the team to beat and the 11,294 fans in the rink for the third playoff game were soon convinced as the Frank Carlin's crew sank two goals in the first period, were held to one in the second and then opened wide for four more in the final frame.

The teams now move back to Toronto for the next three games. If a seventh is necessary it will be played in Montreal.

Intermediate Crown In Intercollegiate Hoop Series Goes To P.W.C.

Prince of Wales intermediate basketball quintet outlasted a determined final quarter scoring spree by St. Dunstan's yesterday afternoon, and won the Intermediate Intercollegiate basketball championship by finishing on the long end of a 45-44 score.

Previous to yesterday's match each team had won one game of the best two out of three series.

The first half got away to a fast clip with both teams throwing away many easy chances on poor shooting. At about the halfway mark in the half both teams opened up with Prince of Wales having the slight edge on the play to wind up with a 24-19 lead.

Smith led the St. Dunstan's marksmen in the half with eight points followed by Dowling of P. W. C. who threw in six points.

Prince of Wales were away in a flying start in the second half with Dowling, MacLean and MacLennan leading the way. In the first 10 minutes of the half they scored at will and ran up a commanding lead. Smith of St. Dunstan's was banished at the five minute mark with a disqualifying foul after hipping MacLennan and the Saints seemed to be slow to a standstill. However the latent power came to life shortly after the halfway mark with Mahar driving through for six baskets to bring his team within striking distance of the champions. With three minutes to go a basket by Ready made the scoreboard read 42-41 for S.D.U. P.W.C. retaliated as MacLean sunk a near one hander and seconds later Dowling scored on a free effort to put his team three points up. S.D.U. fought fire with fire and with seconds to go Hemphill scored to bring his team once again within striking distance. However time ran out on the battling Saints and P.W.C. emerged victorious 45-44.

Mahar, sharpshooting S. D. U. forward, with 14 points led the scorers for the half with Dowling again being top man for P.W.C. with 7 points.

Mahar led the scorers for the game with a 14 point effort and was ably supported in the Saints losing cause by Smith with 10 points.

Dowling led the new champs with 13 points followed by "Sandals" MacLennan and MacLean who hooped 11 points each.

Referee Earl Goss called 27 personal fouls with 16 going to the Saints and 11 to P.W.C.

Rain And Ice Greeted Ontario Anglers Yesterday

(By The Canadian Press)

A buttermilk sky that suddenly turned sour and earth soggy from overnight rain greeted anglers in Southern Ontario as the trout season opened yesterday, while in northern districts ice-bound lakes and streams protected the five varieties of the salmon's relative from fishermen "just dyin' to get at dem."

But where creeks ran invitingly and where lakes were ice-free, anxiety of the trout to gulp down bait "fixed" by amateur or veteran was evident in the heavy catches reported.

At Peterborough a downpour of rain before five o'clock drenched the army of fishermen who thronged streams long before sun up. But by 10 o'clock several parties were returning with limit catches.

Heavy floods in the London district put the trout in creeks and streams of Middlesex County slightly off their schedule. Some streams produced nothing better than sunfish or suckers.

In the Sault Ste. Marie region fishermen were reluctantly sitting in their homes looking out wintry windows at lakes and rivers accommodating scattered ice-floes.

At North Bay, where ordinarily on May 1 the number of fishermen are legion, even the most intrepid anglers could be seen lurking about their homes and offices.

Twelve Almost Certain Starters In Kentucky Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1—(CP)—Twelve almost certain starters were left on the select list tonight as scores of thousands of racing fanatics arrived in this blue-grass city for the 73rd running of the Kentucky Derby Saturday.

A 13th horse—Jett Jett—will make the run for the roses if it comes up mud. The black son of Sun Teddy, owned by William M. Peavey of Ladysmith, Wis., is a dawdler on a fast track but a terrific speedster in the slop.

The favorite is Phalanx, winner of the Wood Memorial at New York's Jamaica Park. Next in line is Faultless. Outsiders watch

Work On Memorial Field In Victoria Park To Begin Soon As Weather Permits

Officials interested in the promotion of track and field events, baseball and other field games are anxiously awaiting some dry weather to commence work which will see the completion of a modern athletic field in Victoria Park. This field will be regulation in every way, including a 1-4 mile track. Dressing room facilities will be provided for the athletes and plans also include dug outs for the ball players, bleachers for fans and a public address system which will keep players and fans alike posted on scores, changes, decisions, etc.

Upon completion, it has been decided the athletic field will be dedicated to the memory of Island athletes who gave their lives in World Wars I and II and after the official opening and dedication ceremonies the field will be known as Victoria Park Memorial Field.

It is some years now since Island athletes have been prominent in track and field events but there is no doubt but that the material is still available on the Island to again put us to the fore in track and field with such a splendid athletic centre as Memorial Field, our young people will again have the opportunity to develop and popularize athletics of all kinds. The Charlottetown Playground Commission who originated the idea of this splendid field and who have been backed whole-heartedly in their efforts by the Department of Physical Fitness, deserve the greatest praise for their efforts in providing our people with such a modern sports centre and progress on the work will be watched with interest.

Breadon, like Dyer, professes to be at a complete loss to understand how a club almost unanimously picked to win the National League pennant could collapse at the barrier.

"It's the same team you saw beat the Red Sox in the world series a few months ago," pointed out the game's David Harum. "Not only that, but it was still a young team. Now, if it was an old club, you might say that it was starting to start rebuilding. I wouldn't know where to find any better players than we have now. They'll get going soon."

Keen Interest In Bowling

The four teams comprising the Provincial Civil Servants' Bowling League, after reaching the halfway mark in their schedule, are battling toe to toe for the League leadership and the Charlottetown Alleys awards. Last evening Captains J. P. Connolly, W. A. Currie, Miriam MacDonald and Tom White were interviewed by the writer and each stated emphatically the team under their leadership would easily win out in the playoffs, so it would appear that this league will be a battle all the way, with supporters of the various teams getting plenty of thrills.

The Cardinals suffered their eighth setback in a row today when they were beaten 6-5 by the Giants. It was their longest losing streak since 1938 when they encountered a similar number of consecutive reverses. And, to add insult to injury, it was former Red Birá Johnny Miz's homer that enabled the Giants to win and sweep their three-game series.

"I hope nobody gets the idea that I'm thinking of changing managers or anything silly like that," he pleaded. "Eddie's my manager and it's no fault of his that the team has got off to a poor start."

Cards Owner Speaks Kind Words To His Club Manager Dyer

NEW YORK, May 1—(AP)—President Sam Breadon of the St. Louis (Wrong Way) Cardinals spoke kind, reassuring words today to his manager, Eddie Dyer, and stoutly maintained that the present plight of his World Series champions is only a "temporary situation that will straighten itself out."

The elderly but spry Card owner flew in from St. Louis last night to be with his club because, he said, he sensed that it was "down" after plunking into the National League cellar and might appreciate a little encouragement.
