Brantford Farm For Sale

The subscriber offers for sale his farm of 175 acres at French Fort, Lot 35.

This well-known farm is conceded to be in the first class where desirable farms are compared. Its boundary extends from the Hillsborough at French Fort on the South to St. Peter's Road on the North, having both the French Fort Road and the St. Peter's Road at the valuable points. The 175 acres comprise 125 acres under cultivation, the fine quality of which may be judged by its present standing crop; and 50 acres with lumber and fencing greatly in excess of the farm's needs.

Two valuable and never-failing streams run through this property and at the junction of the two, is a valuable mill site where a grist mill was one time operated. Bedford Station is a half mile from the property.

A fifteen room brick house together with barns and other necessary outbuildings are picturesquely situated on the most imposing site to be found. The river at this point is a mile wide and furnishes a goodly supply of seaweed. Mussel mud is also deposited in large quantities directly off its shore. This farm is in prime condition and would be a paying proposition from the start. It is placed on the market now solely owing to the advancing years and ill-health of the owner. A good title is guaranteed and the terms of sale will be reasonably arranged to suit purchaser.

For further particulars apply to K. J. Martin, Solicitor, Charlottetown.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. ELIZABETH DOUCETTE

The death took place on August 3rd, of Mrs. Elizabeth Doucette, at the home of her son, Mr. Jeremiah Doucette, in Andover, Mass., aged 71 years. Deceased was a native of Rustico, P. E. Island, and left for the United States about twelve years ago, settling in North Andover, where she had made many friends. In her illness she was frequently visited by the pastor of St. Michael's church, Rev. J. M. Gallagher, who administered the last rites of the Catholic church. The funeral took place on Monday, Aug. 6th, with high mass in St. Michael's church, North Andover, to St. Mary's cemetery, Lawrence, where the deceased Christian lady was laid to rest. Many Island friends will sympathize with the family in their sad bereavement.

MR. FRANCIS GOTELL.

On August 20th, 1917 after a prolonged illness there passed to rest Mr. Francis Gotell at the ripe old age of eighty one years. The late Mr. Gotell has had a very interesting career. He was born at Granville, France, in 1836 and when young he came to St. Pierre, Miq., and later he removed to Georgetown which was about fifty years ago. As a ship carpenter the deceased was indeed a capable workman and he also was among the best boat builders of eastern part of the province.

About nineteen years ago the late Mr. Gotell made a journey to France with the object of recovering property which was rightly his but unfortunately he was unsuccessful and this reverse preyed upon him that he became feeble mentally and physically. For the past six months he was bedfast. The late Mr. Gotell will be deplored by a wide circle of friends for he was a most thrifty, upright man with a name that has never been sullied. He leaves a widow and large family to mourn his loss, namely Henry, Fred and Peter all of Georgetown and Mrs. Easton, Mrs. King, Mrs. Fairweather, Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Mahar, Mrs. Theatt and Mrs. Lebanc besides numerous grandchildren. His body was laid to rest in the Roman Catholic Cemetery, Georgetown, R.I. P.—G.

MR. WARREN DINGWELL.

The angel of death has again visited Little River and claimed for its victim Mr. Warren Dingwell a well known and respected citizen. After a lingering illness of ten months borne with Christian resignation to the divine will be fell asleep in Jesus, Thursday evening, July 12th, Al that loving family and medical skil could do was done, but nothing could retard the grim messenger of death. He endured his sickness with great patience and was at all times cheerful and comforting to his many friends who called upon him. He was a quiet and unassuming man and was loved by all and will be greatly missed both in the home and community. He was married twice, his first wife being Ammanda L. Robertson of Annandale, a true Christian woman and a blessing to others and her death at the early age of 35 years on 15th of August 1911, left a gap which can never be filled. They had four children, the youngest Joseph Henry predeceased her at the age of ten months. His second wife Ella F. Swallow of Little Pond, survives him. The Rev. Wm. McLeod conducted the services at the house and grave. He was in his 51 year and leaves to mourn a sorrowing mother, wife and three children, Harold, Elida and Edith all at home, besides a number of sorrowing friends The Pall bearers were Messrs L. McCormick, G. Coffin, J. Mills, M. McDonald, P. Lawless, C. Keeper. The funeral was largely attended, teemed and acquaintances who esteemed him in life, coming from far and near to pay their last tribute of honor. His remains were laid to rest in the Presbyterian Cemetery at Annandate beside those of his wife and little son who predeceased him. May Perpetual light shine upon them.

Dearest Father thou has left us
And thy loss we deeply feel
But in heaven we hope to meet thee
Where no farewell tears are shed.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

Prior to leaving South Melville for their new home in Millview, about seventy friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. James Villet and family, gave them a surprise by gathering at their home on Wednesday evening, July 25th, to show their respect and regret of their leaving the community.

During the evening, which was spent in social chat, Mr. Alfred Cameron was appointed chairman. He spoke in feeling words of the purpose of their visit, and called upon Miss Grace Dunsford to read the following address

To Mr. and Mrs. James Villet and daughters.

Dear friends,—It is with feelings of deepest regret that we, your neighbors and co-workers in Desable Methodist church, gather with you before you depart from our midst to settle in your new home in Millview.

tI is but a few years since you, Mrs. Villet, came to our community, but your Christian spirit and hospitality soon endeared you to all, and made your home a centre of enjoyment to both old and young. We feel that in losing you we are indeed losing one of our best friends and neighbors, and one whose memory we shall always cherish with the deepest affection.

To Mr. Villet, we would say that words cannot express our regret at your going away from amongst us. Your departure will leave a vacancy that will be hard to fill. As secretary and trustee for Melville Rd. school you have always endeavored to do what was best for the school and community, and your friends in the district are glad to express their appreciation of your services in some tangible form.

Gertrude and Eva also will be greatly missed by their young companions in both Sabbath and public school.

In token of our regret at your departure we ask you to accept this purse, and we pray that the God you are endeavoring to serve here may be with you in your new home, where our loss will decidedly be another's gain. Signed on behalf of your church and community: Fred Ince, Alfred Cameron, Joseph Cutcliffe, Mrs. John Dixon ,Mrs. John French, and George Higgins.

The presentatin of a purse of twenty-seven dollars was made by Miss Janetta Cameron. Mr. and Mrs. Villet, although taken entirely by surprise, kindly thanked their friends for their kind words and generous gift, and expressed their sorrow at leaving such a thoughtful and appreciative people, and shall always cherish happy memories of their old home and kind friends, and pray that God's choicest blessings may always be theirs.

Ice cream and cake was then served by the ladies, and an evening not soon to be forgotten was brought to a close by singing "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and "God Savo the King."

PROUD HER FIVE SONS ENLISTED AHEAD OF DRAFT

The parents of the brave boys mentioned in the following article are natives of this province,Mrs. Broyderick being a daughter of Mrs. John McVarish of Morell East:

Five sons serving Uncle Sam and another, 15 years of age, anxious for next year to arrive, so that he may enter the naval academy at Annapolis and follow the footsteps of his brothers—that is the proud record of the Broyderick family at 61 Neptune street, and perhaps one of the most unique cases on record.

Mrs. Catherine Broyderick, mother of these stalwart warriors, was becomingy modest when a Telegram reporter visited the neat little white cot tage with its hedges and gardens. She was very pleasant, but not inclined to talk much, though the pride of a mother glorying in the worthy deeds of sons was apparent in her eyes.

Her boys in he service—she called them her "boys"—range in years from 19 to 30 and are all widely acquainted in this city and respected for their manly purposes and real American ambition.

Joseph H. Broyderick is the oldest He is 30 and is at present a chief machinist and expects to be promoted to ensign just as soon as a berth is provided for him on board one of Uncle Sam's sea monsters. He served eight years in the navy and is well qualified to assume a position of trust and authority.

Leo J. Broyderick, aged 26, is next in order and is a lieutenant on board the U. S. A. Bath. He is a very promising young naval officer and his superiors predict his rapid advancement. He entered the navy at the age of 16 years and during the entire period of 10 years applied himself diligently to the task of rising from the ranks. He served in all the lower grades and last year was appointed an ensign after successfully passing a most rigid examination. Shortly after the war broke out he was promoted to the rank of lieutenant.

Frank H. Broyderick is the third brotner in the service. He was formerly a reporter on The Telegram. At present he is receiving instruction at Columbia university, New York, preparatory to entering the Hospital Corps service. He is 23 years of age.

Wilbur comes next in line. Only a short time ago he graduated from the training school in Newport and is serving as yeoman on board one of the destroyers now stationed near London. He is 21 years old.

Norman L. Broyderick is the youngest of the group now in active service. He is only 19 years, but holds the responsible position of machinist's mate on board the U. S. A. Chester.

Mrs. Broyderick is particularly proud of the fact that her boys were serving Uncle Sam in their many capacities before the draft. "They didn't wait until the draft came," she told he reporter, her eyes glowing with pride. There is really nothing to make a fuss over. The boys are only doin gtheir duty by their country."

"Doesn't it make you somewhat nervous to think of their danger?" she was asked.

"I don't see why it should," she promptly replied. "God will watch over them out there just the same as he would if the boys were around me."

Her oldest son, Joseph, who is just now at home, and one of her daughters, Levina— she has two, the other being Mary— were with her when she was talking to the reporter. All of them were adverse to making any great display of their family's record.

"Of course," said Mrs. Broyderick, "any mother would have pride in the accomplishment of her sons and I would not be a real mother if I had none.

"I have another son, the youngest one," she said smilingly, "who is in his last year at Classical high school and who is very anxious to enter Annapolis, so that he may be in the service, too, Herbert is only 15 years old and very sorry he cannot enlist now, but he'll have to wait for a short while," she added.

Mr. Broyderick at a glance shows herself to be the true type of American mother. She was the intense mother love but is willing to hide her selfishness and bid her boys bear their share of the burden.

Three of her nephews are shortly to enter the navy and the combined force of the family will prove a valuable addition to Uncle Same's bulwark of defence.
