

Avoid the fire and theft risk

THE bureau drawer is poor protection against the night prowler—and when fire occurs the usual household hiding place may be enveloped in flames before your valuables can be saved.

The deed to your home, your bonds, jewelry and other valuables should be kept in a safe deposit box.

Bank of Nova Scotia Safe Deposit Boxes are accessible only to yourself or your authorized representative—rentals are very reasonable. Ask the manager of our local branch.

ENGLISH YPRES.

How many people know there is a Ypres in England. This is the ancient Ypres Tower, situated in the historic Cinque Port of Rye.

the twelfth century by William of Ypres, Earl of Kent as a protection against French invasion. It is one of fate's ironies that name should flared so prominently in the recent war, when the same nation was our ally.

Saved! - by a miracle

You remember the story of Saint Elizabeth of Hungary; how she was caught by her hard-hearted husband taking bread to her starving people, and how a miracle changed the bread to roses to save her from his wrath.

Bread has always been the most sustaining and nourishing of all foods. It is easily digested and quickly absorbed into the system to give refreshing strength, added endurance and a keen zest for living.

Bread is almost a perfectly balanced food and may wisely be substituted for the heavier, richer foods that nourish less and cost many times more.

The Penalty of Leadership

In 1911 Theodore F. MacManus wrote a masterpiece, "THE PENALTY OF LEADERSHIP."

We quote some significant extracts from it.

"In every field of human endeavor, he that is first must perpetually live in the white light of publicity."

"In art, in literature, in music, in industry, the reward and the punishment are always the same."

"THE LEADER IS ASSAILED BECAUSE HE IS A LEADER AND THE EFFORT TO EQUAL HIM IS MERELY PROOF OF THAT LEADERSHIP."

"IF THE LEADER TRULY LEADS HE REMAINS THE LEADER."

"That which is good or great makes itself known, no matter how loud the clamor of denial."

SUPPLEMENTING SHORT PASTURES. (Experimental Farms Note.) When pastures become dry and unpalatable during mid-summer they should be supplemented with grain and either green feed or summer silage. Otherwise the milk cows will drop so badly in milk yield that the extra cost of bringing back to profitable production when stable feeding starts in the fall. Grain feeding is advisable with heavy milking cows. Cows yielding twenty pounds of milk or over, should receive one pound of grain for every six to eight pounds of milk which they produce. Pasture grass contains a higher percentage of protein than mature hay, and for this reason the summer grain ration need not contain so high a percentage of rich protein feed, such as oil cake and cotton seed meal, as the ration fed in winter. It is more economical to depend largely on green feed or summer silage than grain as a source of protein to scant pastures. Cost of cutting and hauling green feed each day makes it more expensive than silage, but owing to the damage of spoiling summer silage is seldom practical unless a farmer has at least fifteen cows. Last year at the Experimental Station, Fredericton, the first two weeks of July, pastures were poor. Oats and peas green feed was fed to the heavy producers from July 20, and to the entire herd from the first of August. They were changed to oats and pea silage on September first. There was no appreciable difference in the milk when the cows were changed from green feed to silage. The mixture used was Banner oats, 2 bushels, and Canadian Beauty peas, 1 bushel, sown at the rate of three to three and one-half bushels per acre. The cows were fed from 25 to 40 pounds of roughage. This feed together with small grain allowance maintained the milk flow and kept the cows in good flesh. If cattle are allowed to fall away in flesh and milk yield in mid-summer, it will take much more feed to carry them through the winter. Therefore, every effort should be made to maintain the flesh and milk flow during the period of short pastures. If green oats are available they will give fair results, although not so good as oats and peas. In grain feeding the farmer should bear in mind that while he may not get immediate returns, the improved condition of the cows will reflect itself in greater production during the winter as well as during the ensuing lactation period. BEATTY AGAIN BOOMED AS BYNG'S SUCCESSOR

London, Aug. 14.—The diplomatic correspondent of the London Daily Express, Lord Beaverbrook's paper, says a strong Canadian influence is being exercised on the British government to appoint as next governor-general of Canada, Earl Beatty, admiral of the fleet, or Field Marshal Earl Haig.

It is noteworthy that the expiration of Lord Byng's term as governor-general of the dominion, the Express article says, practically coincides with the expiration of Earl Beatty's term of office in the admiralty.

The victor of Jutland is only 54, Lady Beatty was born in the United States. The Daily Express a week ago suggested Earl Beatty as Lord Byng's successor in the governor-generalship of Canada, and said Earl Beatty's temperament was peculiarly suitable to that of the Canadians.

A delightful lawn party was held by the congregation of the Summerside Baptist church on Thursday evening on the grounds of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. McKay, Summerside. The spacious lawns were crowded all the evening and the summer visitors and others present were charmed with the attractiveness of the spot which with the profusion of flags, colored lights and dainty dishes served by charming ladies was certainly entrancing. IN MEMORIAM

GORDON CUTLIFFE

At Cape Traverse, on Saturday, August 8th, 1925, at 6.30 in the evening, after a long and painful illness, borne with supreme Christian patience and courage, Gordon Cutliffe, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cutliffe, passed away, at the early age of twenty-one.

Again we are reminded that the grim reaper—death—is no respecter of persons. He comes to the young, with the full prospect of happiness and usefulness before them, as well as to the old, the son of whose life is surely soon to set; but few young people are called upon to suffer as Gordon was. For nine long, weary months, five of which were spent in the hospital, he lay on his sick bed, and though all that medical skill and tender, careful nursing could do, had been done to restore him to health, he continued to suffer, till Jesus, the great Physician, came for him and took him to be with Him.

The faithfulness and devotion of his aunt, Mrs. Edith McLean, who was at his bedside every day of his protracted illness, was fully appreciated both by him and the other dear ones. To the members of the family, who mourn, it is a most comforting and beautiful memory that in all this long period of suffering, there never escaped from his lips one note of complaint or dissatisfaction—nothing but gratitude, hope and many times even cheer. Even when death came he recognized it as a blessed relief from suffering—only parting with the dear ones for a while and going to be with Jesus, who, it was quite evident, became very precious to him during his illness. For the past four years Gordon had been on the staff of the Royal Bank in Hunter River, where by his efficiency and strict attention to duty, he had advanced to the position of teller, and bid fare to have a splendid career as a banker, before him, but an all-wise Providence decreed otherwise. Of a quiet, unassuming disposition, but full of life and enthusiasm, to know him was to be his friend, indeed.

But in Cape Traverse and Hunter River, he was a great favorite and will be sadly missed by all, and more especially by the young people who knew him so well.

The following members of the family are left to mourn, to whom the Guardian joining the other friends extends the sincerest sympathy: His mother (nee Jay) Brown, of Hunter River; his father, Joseph Cutliffe; two sisters, Bertha and Ruth; and two brothers, Harold and Roy.

The funeral, which was held on Monday the 10th, at 2 p.m., and was very largely attended, was conducted in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick, by Rev. J. M. Murchison, assisted by Rev. M. C. McDonald. The hymns sung were chosen by the deceased previous to his death, namely "The Old Rugged Cross," "Asleep in Jesus," and "Crossing the Bar." The last was beautifully rendered by Rev. J. M. Murchison.

The pall-bearers were three members of the Bank staff: Harold Easter, Jas. Flood and Louis Trainor; and three first cousins: A. B. Cutliffe, Frank Cutliffe and Wm. Cutliffe. Burial was in the Hampton cemetery, and the solemn silence and reverence of the large concourse of friends was most impressive indeed, speaking as it did, of deep respect and heart-felt sympathy and love.

Following are the floral offerings: Pillow, family; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cutliffe and family; cross, Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch Cutliffe and family, and A. B. Cutliffe; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Cutliffe, Boston, Mass.; spray, Minard's Lintment for Neuralgia.
