CHURCH OF SCOTLAND—Rev. Ewen McDougall will preach Sabbath 5th, at Bangor at 10.30 and 6 p. m. Also if travelling is favorable on Monday 5th at Dundas at 6 p. m.

ON CHRISTMAS EVE—The employees of J. M. Roop assembled in his office and presented him with a beautiful pair of con skin driving gloves while the genial Dr. Bright on behalf of the boys made a neat little speech to suit the occasion. In return Mr. Roop presented each man with a substantial check which shows the good feeling that prevails among all hands.

ARENA OPENING—The opening of the Arena on New Years Day was largely attended both afternoon and evening. The ice was in very good condition considering the very mild weather and everyone present seemed to thoroughly enjoy themselves. The 14th Regiment Band was on hand with a good programme of new music splendidly rendered. Patrons of the Arena are looking forward to a very enjoyable season at the Arena in 1919.

TREASURE HUNT—The trail rangers of the C. S. E. T. classes of the City S. S. held their first Treasure Hunt on Saturday morning about 40 boys participating in the event. The trail rangers left the "Y" in two camps, one led by Douglas Gordon and the other by Fraser Fulton, both camping long "hikes" and stopping at a number of places en route, each hike taking about an hour and a quarter the treasure was found in the Y.M.C.A. Gym. Following the finding of the treasure the camps listened to a very interesting talk on the "Morning Watch" given by Rev. R. G. Fulton following which talk over 40 boys expressed their willingness to take up the keeping of the "Morning Watch." The boys then jolly and hungry sat down to a camp lunch, while Miss Olive Ritchie and Miss Miriam Ayers provided a delicious supply of hot cocoa for the boys. Mr. Herbert Yeocum, Y.M.C.A. Secretary, supervised the proceedings. Following lunch the treasure was opened, and it also found a response in the heart of each boy as it was an ice-cream treat provided by Mr. G. F. Hutcheson, chairman of the Trail Rangers Program Committee. The camps broke up at 1 p.m., all declaring themselves as having had a jolly good time.

TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED—Owing to the fire which destroyed the plant of the St. Johns' Nld. Herald, publication is being suspended for a short period while a new up-to-date plant is being erected and installed.

DR. CAMPBELL'S FUNERAL—The funeral of the late Rev. G. M. Campbell, D. D., was held in St. John's N. B. Sunday afternoon from Centenary church, and the large number present at the service, the long procession and the many beautiful floral offerings, spoke in eloquent terms of the esteem in which he was held in the country. Representatives of the Royal Kennebecasis Yacht Club, Canadian Bible Society, St. Andrew's Society, Moncton I. O. O. F., and other fraternal organizations were in attendance. The service at the church was under charge of Rev. G. F. Dawson, chairman of the district, and those taking part were Rev. G. M. Young, president of the Conference; Dr. Steel, Thomas Marshal, N. McLaughlin, J. C. Berris and H. A. Goodwin. A historical sketch of the deceased was read by Rev. H. A. Goodwin, and the address of appreciation delivered by Rev. G. M. Young.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION—The inhabitants of the Manse at Hampton, P. E. I. were taken completely by surprise on Monday evening the 23rd when it was invaded by the people belonging to the place; the ladies coming with their baskets and boxes and good P. E. I. cream was not lacking. The building was filled with a happy concourse of people. After all were seated Mr. John H. Myers called Mr. and Mrs. J. S. MacKay into the room and read a very flattering address which spoke of the happy relations existing between Pastor and people and how much his work was appreciated in the Pulpit by the roadside, in their homes and in the sick room. The address was accompanied by an envelope containing Bank notes and was signed on the behalf of the congregation by Mr. John H. Myers, J. D. McFarlane and E. C. Holm. Then Miss Milfred Cameron came forward and read an address to Mrs. MacKay from the members of her Bible Class expressing their gratitude to her as their teacher for helpful work in the Class Sabbath after Sabbath. This address was also accompanied by an envelope containing Bank notes. The addresses were supported by E. C. Holm, Neil Shaw, John H. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. MacKay made suitable replies although taken by surprise, thanking the people for this expression of their kindness and for the very kind words contained in the Addresses and spoken words. The evening was very pleasantly spent with games and music, Miss Louise McQuarrie presiding at the Piano and Mr. Neil Shaw delighting the people with his songs. The ladies opened the boxes and baskets and a sumptuous repast was served. At 11 o'clock the Pastor read a portion of God's Word and lead the people to a throne of Peace in prayer. They all stood and sang the National Anthem and a very pleasant evening was brought to a close with a Merry Christmas from and to all.
