LADY BURNHAM

"I am deeply conscious of the great honor you have done me by asking me to unveil your beautiful statue of a woman who has become the type of a devoted minister that has contributed its full share to the strength and sweetness of the British Empire. Evangeline is the beautiful conception of an American poet whose verses we turned to read when we were children on both sides of the Atlantic. History has shed another light on the Acadian story. We see today that British policy was not as black as it was painted. Whatever may be the truth of the story as a woman and as an English woman, I shall always regard it as one of the most painful episodes in our annals. Thank God those cruel days lie behind us forever and from the fate of those dear ones which has carried the British Empire stands today in fast friendship with France during the last few years than it has ever stood before." (applause) The war with all its horrors and sadness has bound us through the deeds of our beloved and heroic sons with hands of steel. Ypres, Vimy, the Somme and all those other deeds of glorious heroism never to be forgotten. If those dear ones should speak to us today their message would be: Stand fast together and let not our sacrifice have been made in vain. To Evangeline let us say: Thou art the sun of other days. That shine by giving out their rays.

It is a good omen that your beautiful sun, God's healing hand, should be resting upon us who are here to do honor to that sweet woman. Under those rays the old hand is dead. In your wonderful land so full of beauty and promise. Only the old character remains, and both characters are worthy of the respect and admiration of all mankind. I have now the great honor and privilege of unveiling the statue of "Evangeline." (Applause.)

In Memoriam

MR. WILLIAM SCOTT

On Saturday evening July 10th the people of Clyde River and vicinity were pained to hear that William Scott had passed to the Great Beyond. The funeral service conducted by his pastor Rev. H. G. Mellick was held at the home of Colin Fraser his son-in-law, and the many friends who came from far and near to show their sympathy and love for a departed friend testified to the esteem in which he was held by them.

The pall bearers chosen by himself were William Auld, William Leonard, John Murray, Frank Howard, H. MacMillan and Charles McLean.

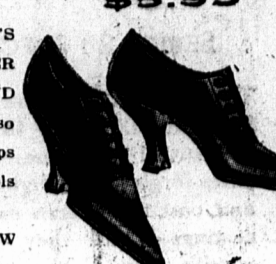

On Sabbath 25th inst a memorial service was held in the Clyde River Baptist Church conducted by the pastor Rev. H. G. Mellick assisted by Rev. W. A. Wood. The service was impressive and appropriate and many nice things were said of the brother who was recently called higher. They told of his zeal and earnestness in his Master's cause for over half a century, and gifted as few men are with a remarkable memory and
