PERMANENTLY DISABLED.

Three Doctors' Verdict on Bond Five Years Ago, Yet He Lives To-day. MOUNT IDGERS, Ont., Jan. 14.—Five years ago the Provincial Provident Institution of St. Thomas paid a total disability claim to Mr. Robert Bond of this place. Mr. Bond had Bright's Disease. The doctors had given him up and three physicians examined him for the Institution and pronounced him "totally and permanently disabled and incurable." He commenced to use Dodd's Kidney Pills and soon regained his health and strength. He is quite well to-day and the old gentleman enjoys nothing better than telling about it. He says, "I owe my life to Dodd's Kidney Pills. I never would have had the pleasure of seeing the old city out and the new one in but for this wonderful remedy. It's five years ago now since they all said I couldn't live a month. Yet here I am."
