BLACK OVER SCARLET
NEW YORK—One of the new winter collections shows a black Chantilly lace used over a scarlet taffeta formal, not ruffled or draped, but severely spread against the snowy circular skirt of the taffeta so that every delicate frond of the lace shows to advantage.

Diamond Wedding
A large number of friends gathered Monday afternoon to extend congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Andrew MacRae, Central Royalty on the occasion of their Diamond Wedding anniversary.

Both are still quite healthy and active despite their advancing years. Mrs. MacRae knitted more than three hundred pairs of socks for Canada's servicemen during the war years.

Mr. MacRae still takes an active interest in their fine farm and their splendid herd of Ayrshire cattle which are owned by A. MacRae and Sons. The sons are Major and Fred.

Through the MacRae farm has produced many outstanding animals during the years that selective breeding operations have been carried on, perhaps the outstanding achievement was the development of Milkmaid VII who was a world's champion dairy cow in her day.
