Map shows where all-out German offensive across Belgium which reached Hablemont, reportedly severing vital Liege to Airon Allied supply line, has been halted. In the south, however, the Nazi drive across Luxembourg toward southern Belgium and France is progressing unabated.

Arrows point to areas where Nazis made gains of 18 to 20 miles in the first 48 hours of their fierce counter-offensive along the Western Front. Nazi divisions thrust twin spearheads from Monshau to Malmédy, Stavelot, Butgenbach and St. Vith. In Luxembourg, the Germans have taken Vianden and Echternach. To the south Yanks made slight gains.
