DEATH CAME AS HE PLANNED SUICIDE
 LONDON, Aug. 2.—Alfred Manning, 64 years old, died by auto-suggestion, while attempting to commit suicide, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury, which stated that "death was due to heart failure in attempting suicide."
 "The man was found in a kneeling posture on the floor beside his bed with his chin resting against a looped handkerchief, one end of which was tied to the bedstead. But physicians said there was no indication of strangulation. They decided that the man had died as a result of his conviction that he was about to die."

"Bring Back My Hubbie to Me"
 LONDON, Aug. 3.—Feminine jealousy as the latest anti-war propaganda is the latest complication in the Greek fighting in Asia Minor.
 Many Greeks, both officers and men, have taken unto themselves Turkish affinities since the Greek army invaded Anatolia and their women folks are hearing about it. They don't like it; in fact, they are so alarmed that they are clamoring that the war be ended quickly so their husbands and lovers can be brought home and demobilized. Many of the Greek soldiers have been under arms for nine years.

Soldier's Memorial Service at Cornwall

A very large number of persons assembled from the surrounding communities to participate in the memorial service held on Saturday July 15th, at Cornwall, where some time ago a handsome monument was erected to commemorate the heroism and self-sacrifice of those men, who, in the recent world war, laid down their lives for their country. That the people of these communities are still mindful of this heroism and self-sacrifice was evidenced by the enthusiasm and fervor of those assembled many of whom abandoned their work at this busiest season, in order to pay a tribute to the memory of those men, who, so short a time ago, moved in their midst.

An appropriate programme was arranged by the committee in charge of the service. This programme was briefly as follows:
 Chorus, O Canada.
 Repetition, "The Fool"—Harrison Horne.
 Address—Rev. Mr. Pierce.
 Reading, "Flanders Fields"—Persie Crosby.
 Reading, America's Answer—Helen McKinley.
 Solo—John Hertz.
 Address—Mr. Frank J. Macdonald.
 March and Chorus—"The Recessional".

During the service the monument was decorated with flowers by the children of the school districts of Cornwall, York Point, East Whitshire and Meadow Bank. The speakers of the occasion were Reverend Mr. Pierce and Mr. F. J. Macdonald of the Dominion Express Company, Charlottetown. Their words were stirring and eloquent and the sentiments which they expressed were most appropriate to the occasion which called them forth. They dwelt upon the splendid qualities of heart and mind of these men whom that day they honored and pointed out the great example their courage and sacrifice had given us to so he was about to die.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Alfred Manning, 64 years old, died by auto-suggestion, while attempting to commit suicide, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury, which stated that "death was due to heart failure in attempting suicide."
 "The man was found in a kneeling posture on the floor beside his bed with his chin resting against a looped handkerchief, one end of which was tied to the bedstead. But physicians said there was no indication of strangulation. They decided that the man had died as a result of his conviction that he was about to die."
