Canada's Reindeer Experiment

HERD SUCCESSFULLY CROSSES MACKENZIE RIVER AND ESTABLISHMENT ON NEW RANGE TO BE COMPLETED BY MARCH 15.

OTTAWA, March 7.—The great drive of reindeer from western Alaska along the Arctic rim of the continent to the area set aside for them east of the delta of the Mackenzie river in Canada's Northwest Territories will be completed by March 15 and the experiment of providing a new source of food and clothing for our northernmost citizens—the Eskimos—will be proceeded with. The recent announcement by Honourable Thomas G. Murphy, Minister of the Interior, that the herd had arrived at Tunanuk, on the east bank of the Mackenzie river on February 21, indicated that the last major obstacle in the path of the movement had been surmounted, and it was estimated by departmental officers in the North that the delivery of the herd by the vendors to the summer range of the Government's Reindeer Station at Kittiagauit would be made by mid-March.

Many Pay Tribute To Leonard Morris

WELL-KNOWN FREEMASON IS LAID AT REST; HERE SINCE 1913.

(Vancouver Province, Feb. 25) The memory of a well-known Vancouver resident was honored when funeral services were held for Leonard Morris, aged 84, in the chapel of Mount Pleasant Undertaking Co. under auspices of Acacia Lodge No. 22 A. F. & A. M. Interment took place in the Masonic Cemetery, Burnaby.

IN MEMORIAM THE LATE MR. JUDSON

Much sympathy is extended to Mrs. Albert Boswell of Summerside in the death of her father, which occurred at his home in Fownall, P. E. I. on February 2nd after a lingering illness.

Mr. Judson was a remarkable old gentleman and until last fall worked in his blacksmith shop, where he had carried on business for over forty years. The deceased was born in Alexandria, P. E. I. in 1851 and was the son of the late William Judson and Elizabeth Wood Judson.

On February 13th sixty four years ago he married Hannah Marie Chandler, daughter of the late James Chandler of Hazelbrook. This happily married couple were an example of congenial married life.

Mr. Judson was a deacon in the Baptist Church and well known for his integrity in business and his kind hospitality. He leaves to cherish the memory of a kind and affectionate husband and father, his widow and the following sons and daughters: Darius and Percy in Toronto; Spurgeon in Columbus, Ohio; Loren in Winnipeg and Ralph in Charlottetown; Mary, Mrs. Minnie Page, Minto, North Dakota, Minnie, Mrs. Albert Boswell, Summerside, Mrs. Mrs. A. E. Wood, Charlottetown and Viola, Mrs. Herbert Thompson, Dunstaffnage, to whom much sympathy is extended.

The funeral took place on February 5th from his late home to the Baptist Church at Alexandria. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Chisholm, pastor, and assisted by Rev. Mr. Elliot of the United Church. He was laid to rest in the Baptist cemetery at Alexandria. The pallbearers were Messrs. Arthur Moore, William Moore, Peter MacKenzie, Alfred Robertson, Seymour MacLellan and C. M. Wood. (Patriot and S'side papers please copy) cover of reindeer moss; This area and that adjoining the Eskimo lakes to the north constitute the principal winter range. The other buildings at the station, besides the frame residence of the officer in charge, include three log cabins for the herders; two warehouses, a log building as additional sleeping quarters; and a workshop. The station is also equipped with a power boat for patrolling during open navigation. Both ranges are well watered and at present free from predatory animals, and altogether the location of the combined ranges is considered very satisfactory for the first stage of the work of introducing reindeer into the Canadian North.

Women's Institute Work From Coast To Coast

(By Elizabeth Bailey Price) The fifth biennial convention of the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada will be held in Charlottetown, June 24 to 28th, when representatives from every province will be in attendance.

There are no women's organizations in the Dominion that do the work of the Women's Institutes. The members are often called "community mothers." From Vancouver Island to Prince Edward Island, from Ft. Vermilion to the international boundary line, the work of the 2800 branches, with an approximate membership of 75,000 flourishes. On lonely islands, remote valleys, and isolated districts, women get together in these organizations. Life is made happier for them. Crippled children are given a new start. Committees are made better places for "living." From sea to sea this work includes:

British Columbia: The Queen Alexandra Solarium at Victoria, the only one of its kind in Canada, started by the Women's Institutes, has been receiving a good deal of help lately. Royal Oak W. I. is collecting $2500.00 to buy an X-Ray and many branches have raised money and had food showers for it. The W. I. Othoia Scott $10,000.00 endowment fund for crippled children has now reached $4,770.83. Mrs. C. C. Buckler of Hazelton, who has been an ardent W. I. worker for 21 years, is the first W. I. member of this province to be presented with a life membership in the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada.

Many branches are interested in "wool work", and Mrs. McLachlan, superintendent, is being with requests for books on how to make hand looms, spinning wheels and suspended shuttles. Some members are experimenting with dyeing, using local plants and lichens.

Alberta: Practical help to needy mothers includes the distribution of 65 "mother's bundles", these including clothing necessities and baby's clothes. Sexmith, in the Peace River country, runs a maternity home, and Grand Prairie persuaded the Town Council to provide a home for waiting expectant mothers.

Twenty-three Institutes sent petitions of the Minister of Justice and succeeded in having the sentence of Mrs. Dina Dranchuk, sentenced to be hanged at Ft. Saskatchewan, last December, commuted to life imprisonment.

Mrs. John Sinclair of Walsh has been elected to the presidency of that branch for the 21st consecutive year. Twenty-four new branches have been organized since the 1933 convention and Ft. Vermilion, in the far north has been reorganized. Features of the May provincial convention will be a handicraft and a Canadian industry exhibit.

A series of radio broadcasts on W. I. work have been popular. This year includes a paper on "World Peace" prepared by the national president, Mrs. A. E. Walker of Bartonville Ontario.

Saskatchewan: Ten day course for farm girls at various centres or camps has been a recent development. The work of the Homemakers clubs, which are similar organizations to the Women's Institutes. These have been held in holiday time, local clubs securing a house or camp and arranging for a "camp mother" and "local leaders to take classes in home economics, health, handicrafts and physical culture. Expenses are reduced by girls bringing their own bedding and some food supplies.

Correspondence courses in sewing, each of five lessons is a new activity. The first course deals with hand and machine sewing, the second with cutting and fitting. A display of work is required at the conclusion in some instances, these being shown on the "achievement program day".

An increasing number of clubs are interesting themselves in drama, festivals, three or four neighboring organizations presenting one-act plays, and the district including a drama festival in conventional programs.

Three new clubs were organized last year, inclusive of three junior clubs. Handicraft work is very popular and home craft courses in knitting, mattress-making, comforters, rugs, and tablecloths, are proving profitable, and hundreds of rural women are learning to make warm garments for the family, and useful and beautiful articles for their homes.

The annual convention this year, as last, will be financed by a levy of $4.00 per branch. Last year 107 branches contributed. Fifty-three Women's Institutes maintain libraries, 16 have kept rest rooms open and eight have sponsored clinics, —six dental, one eye, and one tonsil and adenoid.

ONTARIO: Miss Bess McDermid, the new Ontario superintendent, who recently succeeded Mr. George Putman, on his retirement, after a quarter of a century in the work, is a native daughter of this province. She is a graduate of Moulton College, Toronto; of Macdonald Institute, O. A. C.; of Teacher's College, Columbia University, from which she received her B. S. degree, specializing in home economics. She had also taken considerable graduate work at Columbia majoring in adult education, sociology, and household arts. She was a demonstrator in foods and nutrition in the Ontario Women's Institute went to Alberta, where she was assistant and afterwards W. I. superintendent in that province. During the last few years she has held important posts in home demonstration work in the States, the culmination of this being assistant state home demonstration leader for the state of New York. She is exceedingly glad to return to W. I. work in her own country.

Miss Jean M. Rose, Ontario's legislation convener, has a word to say on resolutions. Every branch or district presenting these, should study thoroughly existing legislation pertaining to the subject matter. Each resolution should ask for only one decision. Mrs. R. B. Colliott, Ontario's provincial president, presented 14 resolutions, from the 13 district conventions to the provincial government, these representing the public opinion of 43,000 women. Mrs. W. F. B. Parsons M. B. E., health convener, suggests that each W. I. should devote at least five minutes a month to a health talk, should sponsor a clinic work for adult health examinations, and distribute health literature.

Three month short courses in home economics for girls are being conducted in eight counties and one-month courses in 38 counties.

Glen River And Vicinity

Mr. Duncan Macintosh was a recent visitor here.

Mr. Donald MacInnis, Springton, was a recent visitor here.

Mrs. Hedy MacPherson was a visitor to the city Thursday.

Mr. John D. Nicholson was a recent visitor to Charlottetown.

The ladies of this vicinity are busy hooking rugs. Many beautiful ones are being completed.

Our school is progressing favorably under the capable and efficient management of Mr. Donald B. Nicholson.

Miss Florence MacPherson, Boston, is spending the winter months here, the guest of her father, Mr. Malcolm MacPherson.

Miss Frances MacDowell is visiting friends in Shamrock where she attended the wedding of her cousin Miss Frances Carew.

Farmers of this vicinity have almost completed cutting their firewood. Some piles of wood contain about seventy-five cords.

Rev. R. H. Stavert was visiting old friends and acquaintances here recently. Mr. Stavert now has the charge of Wood Islands, Hopefield and Clyde River.

Friends of Mr. Angus Gillis regret to learn of his continued illness. Mr. Gillis is our oldest resident is our oldest resident. He is now entering his ninety-seventh year.

The Glen Valley Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Spurgeon MacLean, with seven members present. The March meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Sterling MacLean.

Winter with its quiet month and white mantle is gliding swiftly by, leaving us to the season of spring urging us to be out-of-doors in the warm balmy air watching the universal reawakening of nature all around us.

Sleigh parties consisting of the Misses Frances MacDowell, Phoebe Blonson, Marion Stevenson and Ruth Stevenson, also the Messrs. Miller Stevenson, John A. Blonson, Kenneth MacDowell, and Leslie MacDowell attended the miscellaneous shower Miss Frances Carew, at her home in Shamrock.

Peters Road And Vicinity

Quite recently the "Stork" visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Vandenberg, Peters Road, who left with the happy couple a "bonnie wee lassie" congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Johnston and son Phillip Macdonald, Murray River, are visitors at the home of Mrs. Johnston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Macdonald, Peters Road.

Although various temperatures characterized the weather of this winter all through, just now in the final month snow-banks predominate with heavy travelling on roads and access to wood-lands very difficult.

Mr. James McQuigan, Mall-courier on the Montague-Murray Harbor North Route has had some pretty tough trips on his long route experiencing piercing winds, snow-drifts and heavy rains. Nevertheless Mr. McQuigan is giving excellent service to the many patrons on his 33 mile route.

Quite recently Mr. J. L. McKinnon, prominent fox-rancher, Peter's Road, on entering his ranch in the morning found to his surprise that one of his valuable females had made her escape, evidently owing to a door in the pen being left open and a snow-bank forming against the exterior afforded an easy exit.

Word was soon circulated that a fox was seen in the neighborhood of the ranch of Mr. Neil McQuigan, Greek River, and a volunteer party was quickly formed with the aid of a hound located the runaway in the woods near Mr. James B. Findlayson's dam. After a thrilling experience and many winding paths in the deep snow, the boys finally forced her out of the jungle, and rounded her up at the ranch of Mr. John L. Macdonald, Peter's Road, not far from her starting point and restored her to her former comfortable quarters, safe and sound after her brief experience in the open, a feat that is not always attended with success.—P.

AUBURN W. I. The March meeting of the Auburn W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Edwin Curley on March 5th. The President in the chair, the meeting opened with a short prayer, and singing the Institute Ode.

The minutes were read, approved and signed. Roll call was answered by seven members naming a Canadian town and what it is noted for. A questionnaire on "Home Economics" was discussed and filled out. "Many thanks" was received from a member for a treat sent a six member of her family. Bill for same was presented and paid. Mrs. A. Callaghan kindly invited the members to her home for next meeting, which takes place on May 14th and will be answered by each member paying a nickel. After singing God Save the King, the meeting adjourned. The hostess then served a dainty lunch to members and the many visitors present.

A social hour then took place in singing and music and all conversed and a pleasant evening was brought to a close.

Bradalbane

Mr. John W. Cairns of Stanchou was a recent visitor to Bradalbane.

Mr. Horace and Fred Paynter of Freetown were recent visitors to Bradalbane.

Miss Hazel Woodside, student at P. W. C., spent the week-end at her home in Bradalbane.

Miss Marie Graham Bradalbane was a recent visitor to the city, the guest of her sister Mrs. William MacInnis.

Mr. Dan Buchanan who has been ill for some time, is doing very well and all his friends wish for his speedy recovery.

Miss Christy MacKinnon of North Wiltshire is visiting at Bradalbane, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch Kennedy.

Dr. M. E. Genge pastor of the Presbyterian congregations of Tryon, Borden and Bradalbane is at present on a four weeks vacation.

Miss Katherine MacLeod has returned to her home in Hartsville after a three weeks visit to Bradalbane the guest of her aunt Miss Marie Graham.

Rev. Mr. Arthur Wallis is confined to his home for the past week on account of illness. His many friends hope to see him out again in the near future.

The first signs of spring are evidenced in this community by the hooking fever. During the past month many valuable and beautiful rugs have been hooked.

Bradalbane and Bradalbane Village schools are progressing favorably under the skillful management of their teachers Mr. Lester Cairns and Miss Elizabeth MacKay.

On Friday Feb. 22nd a very successful concert and dance was held in Bradalbane. Hall under the auspices of the Bradalbane Hockey Club, a large sum was realized, which goes to the aid of the rink.

Miss Florence MacLean was a week-end visitor to Dartington, the guest of the Misses Evelyn and Marion Campbell. While there she attended the hockey game played at Wiltshire rink on Saturday night between the Hortsville Maple Leafs and the Wiltshire Beavers. The game resulted in a three-0 score in favor of the Beavers.

Great credit is due those who were instrumental in beginning a rink in this community. This ice space has afforded many good times for young and old this winter. Bradalbane's recently formed team are showing great sportsmanship in their hockey games. Many exciting games of hockey have been played. We all join in wishing them good luck.

The Women's Institute met for their February meeting at the home of Mrs. Lommel Todd on Feb. 12. This being the Valentine season the took the form of a party. A large crowd was in attendance including members and visitors. After the usual business was transacted, games contests and singing was indulged in. Lunch was served by the Ladies.

Much sympathy is being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Don Buchanan, Bradalbane, in the death of their adopted daughter, Miss Elva Bann, at the age of thirteen years. Death came to the community as a shock on the morning of Feb. 10, after an operation for appendicitis in the Prince Edward Island hospital. The funeral, which was largely attended was conducted by her pastor, Mr. Arthur R. Wallis, who spoke feelingly words of comfort to the bereaved. The pallbearers were Lorne MacLure, Lorne Cousins, Earl Todd, Alex Buchanan, Alex Macdonald and Lester Cairns. Interment was in Springton cemetery.

On the evening of Feb. 18, a large number of friends and neighbors of Rev. and Mrs. A. R. Wallis, Bradalbane, and surrounding districts gathered at the Manse to give them a surprise in the form of a pound party. The large home which has so often been the scene of many happy social festivities, was filled to overflowing capacity. Mr. and Mrs. Wallis taken completely by surprise realized the purpose of the gathering. Mr. Thos Wignome, M. P. was appointed chairman. After a few very complimentary remarks, presided Mr. and Mrs. Wallis with a useful and many valuable and interesting articles after which Mr. Wallis thanked each and every one for their kindness. Lunch was then served by the Ladies. The remainder of the evening was spent in games, contests and a heavy sing-song.

Her home for next meeting, which takes place on May 14th and will be answered by each member paying a nickel. After singing God Save the King, the meeting adjourned. The hostess then served a dainty lunch to members and the many visitors present.

A social hour then took place in singing and music and all conversed and a pleasant evening was brought to a close.

An Important Duty For Parents

Really modern parents take no chances with so important a matter as the vision of their children, because they know that neglect in this respect is extremely unwise and may be harmful. Neither do they wait for a child to complain of the way he sees. They have their eyes attended to before THAT. Be a modern parent.
