It pays to buy in this Province.

A. G. Saunders, Summerside, was in the city yesterday. He was at the Victoria.

John H. and Mrs. Latham, New Dominion, were visitors to the city yesterday.

Charles MacKay, who had been under treatment at the P.E.I. Hospital for several weeks past, has returned to his home in Darnley.

The good people of Augustine Cove have purchased for their Sunday school an excellent organ from Miller Bros., of this city. It is strong, full and sweet toned and will help greatly with services.

Rev. Joseph Gallant, St. Dunstan's College, was a passenger on the western train yesterday returning from Wellington, where he had been on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Gallant, it is pleasing to announce, is now improving.

News was received in this city yesterday that John Hobkirk, Halifax, formerly of Horace Haszard's office, in this city, was suffering from an attack of appendicitis. Later advices stated that Mr. Hobkirk was improving. His many friends in Charlottetown, will regret to learn of his illness.

Prof. Cumming, President of Truro Agricultural College, will attend the Central Seed Fair in Charlottetown next week and will give an address in Market Hall on Wednesday afternoon. Dr. J. Standish will also be present and will give an address on Horses. No one should fail to hear these excellent and practical speakers.

W. E. McAlduff, formerly of Alberton, who has been at his old home on a visit to his parents since Aug. 1910, came to the city yesterday. Mr. McAlduff is returning to Calgary, Alta., where he has been employed for the last eight years working for the C. P. R., as an engineer. He will stop off at Winnipeg for a short time, while en route on a visit to one of his brothers there.

A Glen Martin correspondent writes:—The farmers of this vicinity are mostly through hauling their supply of wood. Peter McHerson has arrived home from the Klondyke after an absence of fifteen years. John McLean has recently arrived home from Edmonton. Angus Nicholson is busy in erecting a new stable, Kennie McKenzie spent Sunday in Caledonia, the guest of William McDonald. Alex. McLean has moved from Glen Martin to reside in White Sands. William and Mrs. McLean had a pleasant visit from Mrs. McLean's sisters, accompanied by their husbands, Thomas Turner of Upton and John McLean of Dind's. Neil McPherson paid a flying visit to Brooklyn Sunday, the guest of A. McPherson.

The marriage of Miss Mary T. Hanlon to Thomas F. Walsh was quietly solemnized Feb. 28th. at nine o'clock at a nuptial mass in St. Mark's Church, Dorchester, Mass., the Rev. John A. Daly, pastor, officiating. Special music had been arranged for the occasion. The bride was charming in a picturesque empire robe of heavy white satin, with over-dress of princess lace that was handsomely embroidered in pearls and silver trimmings, and wore a lace veil blended with tulle, which completely enveloped her. She carried a large bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Florence I., sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and was very pretty in empire frock of peach-blow messemmeries of chabreant crystals, and wore a large lace hat of self-tone color, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. John J. Walsh, brother of the groom, was best man. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Thomas H. and Mrs. Hanlon, 31 Florida street, at which only the immediate families were present, owing to the indisposition of the bride's mother, Mr. Walsh, who is the assistant superintendent of the public grounds department, was given an unexpected send-off at the South Station, where a host of friends gathered and showered him and his bride with rice and confetti as they boarded the New York train en route for honeymoon. (Miss Hanlon referred to has many friends in this Province and has visited here on more than one occasion, being a niece of Mrs. P. H. Trainor, City.)

How's your horse looking? Is his hair stiff and dirty? Is he moving slowly in a tired fashion? Do his eyes indicate good health? Owing to the poor position given the Illustrated Auto article in last Monday's Guardian it is repeated on page one of today's issue. It gives a splendid idea of the popularity of the Auto with the farmers of Kansas who use them regularly for farm work and pleasure.

James A. Rodd, of the Marine Department, Ottawa, and formerly of Brackley Point, is in the hospital in Ottawa, being treated for an attack of typhoid fever. His many friends in the city and province will be pleased to learn that he expects to be out again in about two weeks, his illness being of a mild type.

H. Craswell, Treasurer of P. E. Island Orphanage, Mt. Herbert, acknowledges with thanks the following sums of $22.00 donation from L. O. L. No. 1368, Crapaud, proceeds of social. Also the following sums which were received by Rev. D. McLean and handed to me and were acknowledged by him: L. O. L. No. 1290, Murray Harbor, $50.00; Sentinel Trust Blue Lodge, Rose Valley, $15.00; D. A. Nesbit, St. Stephen, N. B., $3.00; proceeds of lecture at Crapaud by Rev. D. McLean, $10.40; S. C. Thompson, Enfield, N. S., $30.00.

A correspondent from Granville writes:—Our enterprising blacksmith has taken to himself a wife, and her hosts of friends wish them a bon voyage through life. Several of the young sports create quite a sensation (especially among the fair sex) by appearing out in classy sleighs, painted and enlaid in the latest mode. The division, which is in a flourishing condition, recently debated, which is the most destructive to property and life, fire or water? Settled in favor of water. A number of farmers are taking advantage of the cold snap, and are hauling a generous supply of mangel mud. John Brown has recently been dining in a rushing business in the horse line. We are glad to say that every one has recovered from the measles, but sorry that the la grippe is so prevalent. Our young blacksmith, W. T. Taylor, has taken up a stand in Bradalbane. His many friends wish him every success in his new enterprise.—Anon.

The Best Optical Service

Our ambition always has been to supply our patrons with the Best possible Optical Service. The importance of correctly measuring the slightest eye defects, has led to the invention of many scientific instruments and the practise of methods of examination absolutely to be depended on.

For years we have been using these best systems with pronounced success. Our prices are very low; for instance, our high grade gold filled spectacles fitted with first quality spherical lenses, including examination only, 3.00. Complicated lenses will cost extra.

It will pay you to patronize us.

IN MEMORIAM.

Many will regret to learn of the death of Miss Mary White Hunter River, which took place Saturday evening, March 4th, after an illness of only six days. She was of a kind and loving disposition and was highly respected among all her acquaintances. The shock of her death is a severe one to her brothers and sisters. Although suffering with diabetes hopes were held out for her recovery. Her brother Maurice was telegraphed for, but didn't arrive home in time to say his last good-bye or even look upon her sweet face as she lay in death. Her sisters were at her bedside and many a tear was shed when it became known that her spirit had passed to its Eternal rest. Her remains were followed by a large concourse of friends to St. Augustina's Cemetery, Rustico. She leaves to mourn two brothers and three sisters.

We miss thee from our home dear sister,
We miss thee from thy place.
A shadow o'er life is cast,
We miss the sunshine of thy face.
We miss thy kind and loving hand,
Thy fond and earnest care,
Our home is dark without thee,
We miss thee everywhere.

FARMER'S INSTITUTE.

A meeting of Lots 27-28 Institute was held in the North Tryon school-house on Jan. 30th, 7 p. m. In the absence of the President and Secretary, who were both kept at home by sickness, D. J. Thompson was appointed chairman and Freeman Boulter sec. pro tem. Vice Pres. John Noonan then gave a very interesting and instructive account of his trip to Truro and of the several subjects taught in the college, treating on the different breeds of cattle kept there. He spoke of the milk records of some of them and how they were fed and cared for. He also spoke of the horses and described how they were handled at the college farm. A short discussion on "The Pork Industry" was taken part in by D. J. Thompson, Luke Wood, T. W. Smith, Angus McDonald and Jos. Noonan after the meeting closed. The next meeting will be held in the Albany Schoolroom on March 14th, at 7 p. m. A circular from Davis & Fraser re "Pork Industry" will be discussed also. Lessons learned from our Seed Fair.

REPORT TRYON DAIRYING CO.

The annual meeting of the Tryon Dairying Co. was held Tuesday, March 7th, 1911. Quite a large number of the shareholders and patrons were present. The secretary's report showed the company to be in good standing, paying this year a dividend on the stock of 8 per cent, and having done the largest business in the history of the company. The total amount of butter made for the year was 122,396 pounds, which realized $30,009.06. $25,957.71 was divided amongst patrons. The average price realized for a pound of butter during the different seasons were: March 1st to May 31, 1910, 26.50 cents; June 1st to Aug. 31, 23.70 cents; Sept. 1st to Nov. 30, 25.19 cents; Dec. 1st to Feb. 28 (1911), 26 cents. Some of the largest patrons for the year were:

W. E. Noonan	$524.01
A. Noonan	114.53

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION.

Dear Bro. MacKay:—We, the members of Calvin Bunyan and Knox L. O. L., Bradalbane, are met here tonight to express to you our sincere thankfulness for your recovery, although you have lost one of your limbs in the dreadful accident which overtook you last spring. It is needless for us to say that you have always proved yourself a true friend to all. In your intercourse with us you have always been genial, kind and anxious to extend to others the glad and helping hand. We hope you will accept this sum of money as a token of our love and esteem. William McLeod, R. Nicholson, J. J. Graham, committee on behalf of the Lodge. (It will be remembered that Mr. McKay had his leg amputated in the P.E.I. Hospital last April where he received every possible attention from nurses and doctors.)
