—DEATH OF MR. GABRIEL MACDONALD — The death occurred late Friday night at his home in Summerside of Mr. Gabriel Macdonald, a well known citizen of the town. Mr. Macdonald was born in Grand River and was the last of his family. He came to Summerside as a young man and continued to reside there for several years and until his health failed he had been employed as wharfinger for Buntain & Bells at the Marine Wharf, Summerside. He was twice married and is survived by his second wife and four daughters by his first wife. The daughters are Mrs. Harold Richardson and Mrs. George Neilson of Boston, Mass.; Mrs. Clarence Landry and Mrs. Maurice Bowen of Summerside.—S

—DIED IN EDMONTON, ALBERTA — Further particulars have been received on the death of James E. Warren, who passed away on August 2nd at the Edmonton Hospital. The late Mr. Warren was a native of Burlington, P. E. I., son of the late Edward and Orsella Warren. A number of brothers and sisters reside in this province. Mr. Warren held a responsible government position in Edmonton. He was stricken with appendicitis and underwent an operation. He failed to recover but took a relapse and passed away quite unexpectedly shortly after his wife and son had left him at the hospital. He was buried at Edmonton cemetery; the funeral service was held on August 5th from the undertaking rooms. The large number of lovely floral tributes and messages of sympathy bore silent testimony of the high esteem in which the deceased was held both by the government officials, fellow workers and citizens of Edmonton. His widow and only son, Lloyd, will continue to reside in Edmonton.—S

—LEGION DANCE — The weekly dance at the Legion Home at Summerside continues to be popular. The boys of the air force, who are the life and soul of the dance, are also much appreciated by the boys of the Legion. The regular dance was furnished by Miss A. Gamble. The hostesses were George Callbeck, Mrs. Harold Richardson and Mrs. Leith Smith.—S

—FURNAL SERVICES — The funeral services for Miss Minnie J. Johnson were held on Friday from the home of her sister Mrs. Alexander Cairns, Argyle Street, Summerside. Rev. D. F. Hoddinott conducted the services. Mrs. Clark MacGregor presided at the organ. The casket was borne by the Lord's is my strength. "O God of Bethel" and "Abide With Me." Interment was in a family plot in North Bedoune cemetery. The funeral was very simply attended by old friends of the deceased. The pallbearers were Mrs. Swithen MacKenna, Thomas Allan, Mrs. Alexander Cairns, Mr. E. Farlane, Charles Henderson and John MacFarlane.—S

In Memoriam

MRS. SARAH CAMPBELL

The death occurred Saturday, Sept. 6th at 5 Coburg Road Halifax, of Sarah Ann Matheson, widow of the late Rev. Malcolm Campbell, who is remembered in pastorate of the Presbyterian church throughout the Maritime Provinces and Quebec.

Mrs. Campbell, a native of Dundas, P. E. I., was 75 years of age. She was a devoted member of St. Andrew's United Church, Halifax, and was deeply interested in the work of the Women's Missionary Society and the Women's Christian Temperance Union. She had a real gift for friendship and was held in loving esteem by a large circle of acquaintances.

Surviving are three stepchildren: Mrs. J. G. MacIvor and Mrs. J. Scott Murray, of Calgary; A. J. Campbell, Halifax, and two sisters, Mrs. Frederick MacLeod, Boston, and Mrs. Margaret MacConnell, Redwood City, California. A nephew, Dr. Frank MacInosh is conducting special research work in Physiology in London, England.

She was predeceased by a sister, wife of the late Rev. C. C. Macintosh, D. D., a former pastor of the Greenwood United Church, Baddeck, and during their occupancy of the Greenwood Manse lived here with them for some time, where she made many friends.

The funeral service was held on Tuesday with interment in the family plot in Camp Hill Cemetery, Halifax.
