The death of Mrs. John A. McDonald of Graham's Road took place on Friday, September 2nd at the age of 71 years. Her funeral was held on Sunday at 2:30 in the afternoon to the New London Cemetery. She had been sick for several weeks and had suffered from the largest ever seen in the vicinity, being 102 carriages present and 41 automobiles. Her strength of character, her purity of life with unflinching kindness and ready sympathy made her greatly loved and splendidly respected. Her unaltered name, Charity, she carried from childhood to the grave as if set apart by prophetic anointing for that sacred task. What more suitable name could have been chosen for her at the beginning of her life and at its end. Her family, her neighbors and her church recognized in her one who ever illustrated the truth "Charity suffereth long and is kind; Charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself; it is not puffed up, doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil." None could do justice to her memory but the Rev. Alex. Strirling, long her minister and her guide in holy things. To mourn her loss and cherish her memory she leaves behind her the following sons and daughters: Archibald R., Lynn, Mass.; James A., Telluride, Colorado; Albert B., San Francisco; William R., New London; Bertha E., at home; Mrs. D. SLIGHT FIRE YESTERDAY—The firemen were called out yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock for a blaze in the roof of the Imperial Biscuit Company, Longworth Avenue. The fire was extinguished with practically no damage.

CRAPAUD AND SPRINGPIEL—Sunday last was a red letter day in the history of this parish. Mr. Rand was accompanied from Charlottetown by Mr. Charles Earle, Mr. G. W. Wilson of Cleveland, Ohio and Mr. C. H. Foster, going first to Springfield where there is the regular church service, followed by a song service in which the whole congregation joined most heartily. At this service Mr. Earle and Mr. Wilson both sang very fervently and did also Mr. Fred Haslam and Mr. Robert Howard in their duet. A sextette from the local choir also rendered a very choice selection. After dinner and a very pleasant hour at Stone Cottage the party was joined by Miss Penelope Howard going on to Crapaud for service at 7 p. m. Here the church was filled to capacity, chairs being placed in every available spot, many standing through the long service and about 100 who could not gain admittance were standing outside. Here, in addition to the hearty congregational singing led by the large choir, Miss Johnson, Miss Howard, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Earle delighted the congregation with several choice selections. Both Mr. Johnson and Miss Johnson proved themselves to be very able accompanists. It is not often that a country parish has such an opportunity and judging from the visible pleasure the work of all the participants was appreciated to the full. We hope they will come and visit us again.

BOULANGER-POIRIER WEDDING—A wedding always is and rightly so—an event to awaken interest in the lives of all good citizens. Whether the chief actors be of peasant or princely lineage, there is something in a wedding that fascinates. It is the hosanna of the human race. Birth, marriage and death are the chief landmarks in normal life—the first and the last heralded by waiting and tears, the middle one glided with gaiety and golden hopes. On Wednesday, Sept. 7th Hymen visited Wellington to complete the work of Cupid. On that date Miss A. Jacqueline Poirier, one of the fairest and favorite young ladies of the parish, was united in matrimony to Jean Richard Boulanger of Quebec. The immaculate Conception church was beautifully decorated with golden asters for the holy and happy event. At 8:30 a. m. the bridal couple moved up the church aisle, while the strains of the wedding march floated rapturously through the holy pines. The bride, dressed in grey satin trimmed with navy blue, looked charming and happy. Her hat was navy blue decked with sprays of Paradise. She wore a string of pearls and carried with her rosary, a bouquet of white lilies of the valley. The groom moved with grace and dignity in his neat uniform of Lieutenant Colonel. He is a direct descendant of the famous Boulanger of old France. His bride is a daughter of F. T. Poirier, proprietor of the well known hotel at Wellington. After the marriage ceremony the Nuptial Mass was chanted and the Nuptial Blessing given by the pastor, Rev. F. L. Connolly. Beautiful and appropriate selections were sung by the choir, Miss Selicar, sister of the bride, residing at the organ. Mr. F. T. Poirier and Mr. J. P. Gaudet were witnesses to the ceremony, and a large number of relatives and friends were present. Leaving the church, a dozen car horns of varying timbre, tooted a wild "shivaree" not unlike the symphony of Nabuchodonosor of old. The bridal party and their friends repaired to the home of the bride, where an exquisite wedding breakfast in Madam Poirier's matinee style, awaited them. About forty guests partook of the tempting things. The brief speeches, aglow with congratulations, kind wishes and humorous memories as well as the very many rare presents, bespoke the popularity of the young couple. After a few hours' music, vocal and instrumental, the happy couple left for a honeymoon trip in Eastern Canada, thence to their future home in dear old Quebec city. The wish of all is that the light of heaven may shine around them always and that their psalm of life may be—

There's a bliss beyond all that the minstrel has told,
When two that are linked in one heavenly tie,
With heart never changing and brow never cold,
Love on through all ills, and love on till they die.

WEDDING BELLS—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Easter Hotel, Charlottetown, on Monday, September the twelfth at one p. m. when Mrs. Katie Nicholson of Hartsville was united in matrimony to Mr. Daniel McKay, of Milton, P.E.I. The ceremony was performed in the presence of several intimate friends by the Rev. Mr. Stavert to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Mrs. Moore. After the wedding dinner was richly provided by the Easter Hotel. Amid showers of rice the happy couple left for a short trip in Mr. George McQuarrie's beautiful Master Six car.

As manager of the Göttingen street branch of the bank Mr. Palfrey was one of the most popular managers that branch has ever had and a host of friends will join in wishing him and his charming bride every possible happiness.—Halifax Exchange.

SCHOONER IN DISTRESS—Schooner Harry, Capt. Walter Andrews, arrived from Little Bras D'or Nova Scotia with a load of coal bound for Chatham, N. B. when in the gulf between Georgetown and Cape George she sprang a leak and Mr. Robert Howard in their duet. A sextette from the local choir also rendered a very choice selection. After dinner and a very pleasant hour at Stone Cottage the party was joined by Miss Penelope Howard going on to Crapaud for service at 7 p. m. Here the church was filled to capacity, chairs being placed in every available spot, many standing through the long service and about 100 who could not gain admittance were standing outside. Here, in addition to the hearty congregational singing led by the large choir, Miss Johnson, Miss Howard, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Earle delighted the congregation with several choice selections. Both Mr. Johnson and Miss Johnson proved themselves to be very able accompanists. It is not often that a country parish has such an opportunity and judging from the visible pleasure the work of all the participants was appreciated to the full. We hope they will come and visit us again.

Following the ceremony the gathering was delighted with solos by Miss Kathryn Thompson of Hillsboro and Miss Muriel Henderson of Moncton.
