FLUSTERED

ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 17.—Anthony Barinbaum held 13 clubs in a contract bridge game, but was set 4,000 points. Flustered by the strength of his hand, he bid seven no-trumps instead of clubs. The opponents doubted. His partner had a good hand and redoubled. Barinbaum was set five tricks vulnerable. Consider how few things are worthy of anger, and then wonder that any fools should be worthy of Dodsley.
