

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

ATTENTION is directed in this issue to meeting of the Belfast Fox and Fur Farming Co., to take place on the 15th.

SCHOOLS CLOSE.—Glenroymer holidays. The present teacher in School closed Monday for the summer engaged for another year. Glenaldale school closed Tuesday for the midsummer holidays. The present teacher Miss Dougan has resigned.

RESERVE THURSDAY. 16th, July, for the First Methodist Sunday School picnic which is to be held at Murray Harbour. Special train will leave Charlottetown at 9 a. m. Return fare, 50 cents. 3359.

THE PRINCE EDWARD.—There were large crowds and a good programme at the Prince Edward Theatre last night. "The Stolen Love," a graphic story of the sea, was portrayed in a most interesting manner to the great appreciation of all. "The Lure of the Stage," was a drama of absorbing interest. "The Strong Man's Burden" and "Bonnie of the Hills," were other dramas equally well enjoyed. The house was kept in a laughing mood throughout the production of "A Narrow Squeak," an exceptionally good comedy.

VISITING ISLAND HOME.—The Guardian had a pleasant call yesterday from Sergeant John E. Ryan, of Minneapolis, and formerly of Summerside, this province. Sergeant Ryan left his Island home about thirty-one years ago and about twenty years ago joined the police force in Minneapolis. In this service he steadily wound his way to the top and is now sergeant of the force which numbers 350 men. He is accompanied by his son Joseph, a sturdy lad of 13, who is enjoying for the first time a visit to the land of his fathers. The sergeant is a son of Mr. Patrick Ryan of Summerside, who is at present engaged in moving some buildings at St. Dunstan's College, a business of which he is a past master.

PLEASED WITH HIS VISIT.—Considerable disappointment was evidenced at the opening meeting of the Summer School of Science when it was learned that Hon. T. W. Crothers, Minister of Labour, was unable to be present, he having, on the previous day, received an urgent call elsewhere. Mr. Crothers, before leaving, expressed his own keen disappointment also in being obliged to cut his visit short as he was so thoroughly enjoying what he called "the best of Canada" at the St. James Hotel.

He was enthusiastic in his admiration of the Garden of the Gulf and declared that if at all possible he would never miss an opportunity of spending his summers here. This is the invariable verdict of visitors to Prince Edward Island and this season the number of visitors is already much greater than in any previous season.

NYALIS FACE CREAM.—We cannot say too much in favour of this cream. Every time we sell a jar we make a customer for our store, they are sure to come again it gives such excellent satisfaction. Nyalis Talcum Powder is a gem also 25c. each. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Mt.

Visitors wishing a delightful outing should take in the St. James S. S. Picnic at Westville this afternoon. Boat leaves at 9.30 a. m. and 3 p. m. Visitors' table. 2423.

AUTO PARTY.—The motorists of Charlottetown have planned an excursion to the Cliff Hotel for this afternoon, with six o'clock dinner at that popular establishment. They will leave the city about four o'clock.

BAND CONCERT.—The public are indebted to the Regimental Band of the Abegweit Light Infantry for the efforts it has made to provide them with entertainment during the past few days. These efforts are greatly appreciated. Yesterday afternoon the Band rendered an excellent concert programme at Victoria Park which was much enjoyed by the fair number who were present. There was a pleasing feature about yesterday's concert which is especially noteworthy. It was intended as a mark of goodwill by the Band towards their old comrade in arms, Mr. Brent Garnham, who has a refreshment bungalow in the Park. It was a pleasant surprise for Mr. Garnham, whose gratification was supreme when the Band marched to and formed up in front of his bungalow and there discoursed some excellent music. Such an act of kindness on the part of his old Militia friends is deeply appreciated by Mr. Garnham.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place at seven o'clock yesterday morning in Grace Methodist Church. The principals were Mr. Stanley Hardy, the proprietor of the saddlery business on Queen Street, and Miss Florence Strickland, youngest daughter of Mr. Thomas Strickland. Rev. Mr. Littlejohn, pastor of Grace Church, performed the ceremony, while Miss Oliver Ritchie presided at the organ and skillfully rendered the impressive wedding march. The bridal couple were unattended. The bride looked exceedingly lovely in a tailored suit of cream cloth with hat to match. She carried a magnificent bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The wedding took place in the presence of the immediate relatives. After the marriage service, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy, accompanied by their relatives and friends, drove in carriages to the railway station where the newly married pair left on a wedding tour of the Maritime Provinces. The presents were of unusual beauty and excellence, including several cheques, the gift of the groom to the bride being a splendid Duchess piano.
