STOCK QUOTATIONS

MORNING STOCK LETTER

(Received over Pitfield and Co's Private Wire)

NEW YORK, April 26—No special news developed over week end which might have any unfavorable influence on the market. A strike has been threatened by steamship clerks, freight handlers and express and station employees of railways serving the New York harbor area. It is believed that President Roosevelt will be asked to intervene. The first seventeen railroads to report for March showed net operating income of $26,163,000 against $14,704,000 in March last year, a gain of 77.9 per cent. Economists of six government departments agree a recession in industrial activity is highly probable before the end of this year, but now expects the dull period to be more than temporary. Saturday's market was not particularly favorable and we would look on the first thing this morning.

MARKET BULLETIN

(Received over Woods- Reade and Company Special Wire)

NOON COMMENT

NEW YORK, April 26—The market was off sharply at the opening on accumulated week-end selling orders and failure to rally during the morning encouraged a selling wave around midday. Since then there has been some recovery but the action is not yet convincing. However, we thought the midday selling pressure was fairly well taken under the circumstances and if on another selling test, such as may develop before the close, prices show more resistance the prospect of a trading rally to follow would be improved. In that event, such market leaders as GM, X, C, KN, JO, M. S, GE, WX, CN and Atchison should we believe, be able to show enough sharpback for a trading turn.

MORNING MARKET LETTER

The market opened with only moderate losses on Saturday but ran into a selling wave during the first hour which extended the recession. From this there was a slight recovery and the general list held well in the last hour. At the closing, the Dow Jones Industria Average was holding. The abrupt decline of Thursday and Friday which erased all of the preceding weeks' gains added to the apprehension which has been induced by lack of Governmental economy with its implication of higher taxes.

Rumors persist also that the price of gold must be lowered to stop the heavy inflow and emphasis is given to this possibility by the rapidly mounting "inactive" gold fund of the treasury in this connection.

It might be worth mentioning that the prices of Commodities and stocks already have been influenced lower on gold price fears to the extent that the actual development may now be fully discounted.

Looking at the individual equities in relation to probable earnings and dividend payments, we cannot subscribe to too much pessimism although we admit the likelihood of market irregularity until some of the troubling uncertainties can be clarified.

MONTREAL, April 26 — (CP)—Butter ruled a little firmer on Montreal open produce markets today while eggs were about the same.

MINING

TORONTO, Apr. 26—(CP)—The old rumor about a cut in the price of gold was trotted out again today and, co-operating with other depressing influences, brought about another sharp decline in prices. The decline was just about unanimous. The small western oils sounded about the only cheerful note of the day.

Base metals were depressed by declines of $12 to $14 a ton for copper. Noranda fell three points, Hudson Bay 1 7-8 and cheaper base metals were down 20 to 35 cents each.

Golds were lower from the opening and heavy selling in the higher-grade issues at cut prices spread pessimism among the medium-price and junior golds. Wright Hargreaves was down 30 cents to 6.50. Lake Shore dropped 1 5-8 and fractions were lost by McIntyre, Dome and Hollinger. O'Brien lost 60 cents, closing at 9.15 and net recessions of 15 to 30 cents were boarded for Anglo-Huronian, Buffalo-Ankerite, Central Patricia, Kerr-Addison, Little Long Lac, Macassa, Moneta, Pamour, Red Crest, Read-Authier, Siscoe and Teck Hughes. The gold index posted a net loss of 3.64 and the miscellaneous mines index was off 6.45.

Western oils were strong in the whole. Several registered gains in active trading but Calgary-Edmonton, Dalhousie and Home dropped their gains in the last few minutes. Royalite lost two points in slow trading.

Silver stocks closed lower, Eldorado losing 25 cents and Castle 17 cents. Mining Corporation weakened 35 cents.
