On Monday evening, April 22, 1940, relatives, friends and neighbours of Long River and surrounding districts were shocked and saddened when they learned that the Angel of Death stretched forth his hand and plucked one of life's most beautiful flowers and transplanted it in the Garden of Christ, in the person of Mrs. Ralph Johnston, where it shall bloom far more beautiful in the mansion above than here on earth.

Mr. Ebby Boulter of Victoria, who has been spending the winter months in St. Petersburg, Florida, is expected home this week, very much pleased with his suntan and swims on the beaches of Tampa Bay and the Gulf of Mexico. He has been in Boston, Mass., the past three weeks visiting his sister and friends. He was very much thrilled when visiting in New York and the beautiful scenery and sights in the southern States.

—NO TRACE OF MISSING FISHERMEN —So far no trace of Heber Wall has been found, in spite of the efforts of the residents and R. C. M. P. who dragged the vicinity where the fisherman was last seen setting his nets off Jerry's Rock on Friday morning. Residents of Malpeque say this is the third drowning to take place at that spot within the last six years. First to lose his life was a Mr. Manderson, of whom no trace was found and then three years ago Heb. Best was drowned at the same spot and his body was found three weeks later off Fish Island in Malpeque Bay. —S.

Messrs. A. J. MacAdam and William Anderson, both of Goose River, P. E. I. went to Souris yesterday to check the weighing and grading of a most unusual shipment for this part of British America —a cargo of sealpelts for an oil reduction plant at Grindstone Island, Magdalen Islands.

The pelts had been assembled from along the North Shore between Monticello and Cable Head, awaiting the arrival of the motorvessel Letty C. which made a special trip to Souris for them. The Letty C. is commanded by Captain A. Arsenault, himself a veteran master of the sealing industry in the Gulf and northern ice-fields.

Contractors and carpenters will have a busy summer according to the proposed construction projects to take place in the City. Besides the usual number of dwelling houses, which are built each year, there will be at least two large warehouses erected in Charlottetown this year.

Work on the large wholesale grocery warehouse, which is to be built by Eastern Hay and Feed, is to be commenced some time this month. It will be erected on the corner of Pownal and Water Streets, on the property which formerly belonged to the City. The George V. Moore building is also on part of this lot. The new building will be a two storey warehouse with basement, but it has not been decided definitely what type it will be.

DeBlois Bros., well known wholesalers in the City, will also erect a large warehouse on the old Kennedy property. This building will be on the corner of Queen and Water Streets, and will be in the course of construction during the summer months.

The Rotarians at their weekly luncheon yesterday had the privilege of seeing another moving picture, the third in a row, the first being on April 22nd.

The film, sponsored by Rotarian T. G. Ives, agent for the Studebaker car, was entitled "The Head of the Parade." It was an interesting pictorial demonstration of the expense and engineering skill put into car manufacturing, and also of what takes place not only inside a modern automobile plant but also of the severe and sensational punishment which a car must undergo in the testing grounds.

Past District Governor, Percy W. Turner was chairman.

The final election of the officers who were nominated at a previous meeting was declared.

They are as follows:
President, Dr. Heath MacIntyre.

There was a splendid display of work done by the members, garments for missions and for the Protestant Orphanage. A great deal of work was also done for the Red Cross, but this was not shown. Canon Malone read a letter from the Hon. President, Mrs. James Simpson regretting that she was unable to be present, and sending her good wishes, to the members. He then briefly addressed the meeting pointing out the dangers that beset the Christian Church today, and urging the need of constant prayer for peace and unity. Tea was served at the conclusion of the meeting and the members then adjourned to reassemble in October.

A wedding of much charm and simplicity was solemnized at six o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents, when Miss Bertha Sara Wood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wood, Pownall, became the bride of Mr. Harvey Cyril Jenkins, Brackley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jenkins, Mt. Herbert.

Quantities of flowers adorned the home for the occasion and Rev. J. W. Hayter officiated at the ceremony in the presence of the immediate friends. The wedding marches were played by Mrs. Jack MacRae and the attendants were Miss Edna Jenkins and Mr. Edward Wood.

A smartly fashioned frock in dusty pink crepe and lace was worn by the bride and her shoulder bouquet was of pink roses. The bridesmaid wore a dress of blue with yellow roses.

An informal reception was held after the ceremony. Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs Jenkins left for their home in Brackley, the bride donning for travelling a navy coat with matching accessories.

Several pre-nuptial showers and parties were held in honor of this popular young couple who have the best wishes of their many friends for a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Mr. John Cameron of Clyde River who recently underwent an operation in the P. E. I. Hospital returned home yesterday.

Miss Elaine Bennett R. N., was a passenger last night by plane from Montreal. She plans to spend a few weeks visiting her parents in the city.

CONGRATULATIONS— Mr. W. O. Fyfe, Hillsboro Street received the congratulations of his friends yesterday on the occasion of his 79th birthday.

The following letter has been received by the Chief of Police, Charlottetown, from the British Consulate-General, 25 Broadway, New York City:

"Sir,

"It is desired to ascertain whether there is any record of the present whereabouts of any relatives of a certain Nicholas Ferguson, who died in New York City on December 4, 1892, having been born in Prince Edward Island in 1834 or 5. He is understood to have left Prince Edward Island for the United States at the age of eighteen.

—INITIATE NEW MEMBERS— At the regular meeting of the Maple Leaf Rebekah Lodge, Summerside, three new members were initiated into the Lodge. Bro. Benj. Sharpe, Degree Master, made a short speech and assisted in putting on the Degree. Sister Palmer gave the charge for the Noble Grand; Sister Dickie gave the Vice Grand charge; Sister Sharpe gave the Chaplain charge and Sister Mollison gave the Past Noble Grand Charge. After the new members had been welcomed a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served. S.

PRESENTATIONS—On April 29th, neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Jane Ballem, Southport, to honour two popular young men, Austin MacCallum and Don MacRae who have offered their services to their King and country. Mr. M. W. Wood gave the address and presented each with a well filled purse. The boys thanked everyone present, and all joined in singing "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows." The evening was pleasantly spent with music and games, after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. Singing of the National Anthem brought the evening to a close.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the dwelling of J. Fred White, Hill's River, two miles from Alberton early last night. Members of the White family were in Alberton when the fire was discovered by neighbors. Flames had made considerable progress and drove back volunteer salvage workers who sought to remove furniture.

The White family had been away about an hour before the fire was discovered, it was learned.

Amount of the loss was not announced officially but was believed to be in the vicinity of $2,000. It was believed to be partially covered by insurance.

SHOWER AND ADDRESS —On Wednesday, May 1st, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Raynor, Mt. Herbert, was filled to capacity, when the friends and neighbours of Miss Marion Raynor gathered to honor her on her approaching marriage. An address was read by Mr. Spur Jenkins, during which Miss Eileen Ings presented the gift, a cabinet of flat-silver. Although taken by surprise Miss Raynor in a few well chosen words thanked her friends for their kindness. The rmainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse and instrumental music. After refreshments were served, all departed for their homes wishing Marion every happiness for the future.

—W. M. S. MEETING—The regular monthly meeting of the W. M. S. of Trinity United Church was held in Epworth Hall and very well attended. Mrs. Hammond Johnson, President, occupied the chair and conducted the devotional period. The regular business of the meeting was conducted.
