

LOOKING 'EM OVER

(By Tee.)

Fort William's so-called "Thundering Herd," whose pucksters are trying conclusions with Toronto Nationals in the Allan Cup finals in Montreal this week, have shown to real advantage all season, and even if they were defeated by Nationals last night in the opening game of the three game series it may be that the trophy is destined to remain in the west for another season. However, there is no doubt the Nationals are a great collection of hockeyists and, naturally they will be a surprised collection of hockeyists if they fail in this crucial test.

According to the critics in the various upper Canadian exchanges who have seen the Westerners in action, the team rates highly defensively, but lacks much on the attack. Nationals, on the other hand, have a penchant for scoring, as was visibly demonstrated last evening, and this makes it all the more remarkable that they haven't been properly supported by their home fans.

There are some who think that a mistake was made when the Allan Cup finals were awarded to Montreal. Six years ago the Fort Arthur and University of Toronto teams opened the championship series at Montreal, and were so poorly supported that they finished in Ottawa, with capacity crowds in attendance. History may repeat itself with two outside teams trying the experiment again.

Montreal is a great hockey city—one of the best in the world—but most of the fans are followers of those outstanding professional teams, the Canadiens and Maroons, and the amateur brand, with its different rules, does not appeal to them particularly.

Trouble Ahead for Philadelphia Athletics

Connie Mack's conquering Philadelphia Athletics, may not find it all smooth sailing in the American League this season. In the opinion of baseball authorities, the A's three times in a row champions of the younger organization, have slipped considerably, while the New York Yankees and the Washington Senators have improved.

The A's will again depend on George Earnshaw and "Lefty" Grove to pitch them to the pennant, but it is only reasonable to suppose that this pair is due to falter eventually. The crying need in the majors is for high-class box-men, and the same are not to be had at any price. Joe McCarthy, pilot of the Yankees, believes that the acquisition of another stellar hurler would give New York a powerful pennant contender.

In the National the St. Louis Cardinals will open the race on April 12 as favorites to win the title for the third consecutive time, despite the fact that all other teams in the Heydler loop have been strengthened. Most notable of all the winter traders were Cincinnati and Brooklyn. The Reds have benefited, but it is just a question if the same can be said of the Dodgers. Then, to make matters worse, the Flatbush entry has lost the services of Del Bissonette for the next two months, and perhaps for the season.

The Chicago Cubs and the New York Giants are fabled to furnish stout opposition to the Cardinals, and Burleigh Grimes is sure to make a difference in the Cubs' pitching fortunes. Grimes was a hero in the last World Series, and the deal which sent him to the Windy City therefore caused considerable surprise. He is a great old campaigner, and he will probably cause the champions plenty of grief.

Jollat's Chapeau

So when a player of the artistic temperament of Aurel Jollat discards a favorite part of his equipment, like a famous beverage, "there's a reason," and here it is as told by John Kiernan, in the New York Times:

"When discussing hockey forwards

Lester Patrick always has paid his respects to Aurel Jollat. According to Mr. Patrick, who, as manager of the Rangers, cannot be accused of prejudice in favor of a player on another team, little Aurel is about as dangerous as they come along the forward line in the gentle pastime called ice hockey.

"The Garden fans probably noticed that M'sieu Jollat went through the regular season without that black baseball cap he wore in other years. He doffed his cap for what he considered good and substantial reasons.

"Ordinarily Aurel is a cool, calculating, tricky player. He is a master at stickhandling and at feinting a defence man into a false move. But in the course of sundry collisions and impromptu wrestling and boxing bouts on skates, it was discovered that Aurel could be thrown into a violent rage by the simple expedient of brushing his cap off. This livened up the game for the spectators but decreased the efficiency of the Flying Frenchman, because after Aurel went into a rage he frequently went into the penalty box. Even the famous Cyclone Taylor never scored any goals while cooling his heels on the fence.

"So this season M'sieu Aurel determined to foil his annoyances. They couldn't enrage him by brushing off his cap if he wore no cap. The enemy players stared when Aurel was seen without his black cap. They tried to annoy him with the ordinary assortment of tricks on the rink, the butt-end of the stick in the ribs, the slash at the toes, the flying check into the boards and other such items of personal service on skates, but Aurel was unmoved by these attentions. He could take them and still remain cool, calculating and tricky. That was part and parcel of hockey. But brushing off his cap he always took as a personal affront. The blood of his ancestors boiled in his veins. He must revenge the insult! When he laid his cap this season he circumvented his annoyances and left them baffled and helpless."

A Challenge

It is understood that the Millionaire Sisters have a challenge out to the Able Sisters for a friendly game of hockey for the city lady championship. Should the Able Sisters accept the challenge, there is no doubt an interesting struggle will result.

THE PLAY WITH A THOUSAND LAUGHS

The Lorne Valley Dramatic Society presented their unique play, "The Mischiefous Nigger," at Lorne Valley, on the night of March 31. This was the first time that this comic play was ever presented on Prince Edward Island, and judging by the comments of those who had the pleasure of witnessing the performance, it was a huge success.

The hall, with a seating capacity of two hundred, was not nearly large enough to accommodate the large crowd that thronged to gain admittance.

The play itself was a scream from start to finish, and the audience laughed so heartily that we feel sure they forgot all about the depression for one night at least.

The actors performed in a manner that would make some of the folk in our large cities sit up and take notice. But then, Lorne Valley enjoys the reputation of having the best talent to be found in any community—both musical and dramatic. (We say this in all sincerity).

Following is the entire program: Opening remarks by the chairman, Mr. John Mustard; Dr. Gardener on Prohibition, Frank McArthur; Song (comic), George Johnson; Dialogue, "A Difference of Opinion." Characters: Elmer McInnis, Roland Hickox, Wilbur McDonald, Dorothy Leard, Jennie McAulay, Mrs. Philip McInnis.

This was extremely exciting as two live rats had to be used in the scene. It was a case of rats, legs and brooms. Wilbur made a gallant effort to capture the rodent on hands and knees.

Songs, by Miss Anna McDonald; Recitation, Violet Leard; Song, Marguerite Gillan.

PLAY

After the performance lunch was served by the "Women's Institute." The rest of the night was given over to dancing. Mr. Alec McLeod, of Valleyfield, called off the figures

Nationals Win Opening Tussle From Ft. William

MONTREAL, April 4.—Fort William's "Thundering Herd" failed to stampede the stout-hearted Toronto Nationals here tonight in the opening game of their three game series with the Allan Cup as the reward at the end of the rainbow.

The Westerners looked good in the first period when they jumped into a two goal lead, only to see it diminish in the second when the battling Nationals tied evened the count by brilliant hockey.

At the end of a heart-breaking third period both teams were deadlocked 3 all. The overtimes, however ruined the "Herdsman." The first session ended 4 all, but in the second session the Nationals swarmed all over their foes to run three fast goals in, to cap a titting climax to a game of hockey which had the fans on their toes all night. Nationals will not take their 7 to 4 goal lead into their second game tomorrow night, as the series is the best two out of three games.

C.A.H.A. IN GOOD STANDING

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, Que., April 4.—In memory of George T. Richardson, one of the finest hockey players of Kingston, Ont., who was killed in the Great War, a silver double-handled loving cup — the George Taylor-Richardson Memorial Trophy—was presented to the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association by his brother James A. Richardson, of Winnipeg, Chancellor of Queen's University, Kingston, here today.

The trophy is for the junior hockey championship of Eastern Canada, won this year by Sudbury Wolves, and it arrived unexpectedly at today's session of the annual meeting of the Association now being held here. The offer of Mr. Richardson to donate the trophy was just about to be announced at the meeting when a large package, which proved later to contain the cup, arrived.

Tribute was paid to George T. Richardson by Captain James T. Sutherland, of Kingston, W. A. Hewitt, W. W. Davidson, of Toronto, and F. H. Marples, of Winnipeg. Captain Sutherland, Mr. Hewitt and Mr. Marples were named trustees of the cup.

A strong financial position and an increase in registration were reported by W. A. Hewitt, of Toronto, registrar-treasurer, in his reports for 1931-32. There were 17,772 players registered in the C. A. H. A., he stated, an increase of 2,406 over the 1930-31 figure of 15,366 and the fifth successive year that registration had increased. The registration was divided according to branches as follows, he reported: British Columbia, 356; Alberta, 835; Saskatchewan, 508; Thunder Bay, 574; Manitoba, 814; Ontario (O. H. A.), 9,605; Ottawa Valley, 910; Quebec, 2,908; Maritimes, 1,042; Inter-collegiate (Eastern) 220.

In his financial report, Mr. Hewitt stated that receipts from the Allan Cup series were $9,667.46, from the Memorial Cup series, $8,985.32 and together with other receipts to the amount of $2,254.07, the total was $20,906.85. Expenses were $6,740.52 and with grants to branches totalling $5,000 and a grant to the Olympic committee of $5,000, total expenses were $16,740.52. Excess of receipts over expenses was $4,166.33 with which $4,103 worth of bonds were purchased, leaving cash on hand of $63.33.

It was decided to remove the names of the Melville team of Saskatchewan from the Allan Cup as Melville did not win the title in 1914-15 being beaten in the final by Winnipeg Monarchs. The blank space left when the names have been removed will be used for a memorial to the hockey players who were killed in the Great War.

"Keep Moving"

(By Alfred O. B. Fletcher)

This is a delightful chronicle of a diversified and vivid description of the scenery, customs and characteristics of the people of Europe and the orient, written in a sympathetic manner and full of wit, fun and humor.

It is to be regretted that it is a posthumous publication in that Mr. Fletcher was one of the victims of the S. S. Vestris disaster, when on a visit to the South American Republics and will not therefore be able to give us more of his experiences in his inimitable way.

in his usual capable and affable manner.

At the request of some of the elder persons present, Mr. McLeod had the crowd form a circle, where in all the old time step dancers were invited to try their mettle. Each in his turn planked it down in real good style.

As the first grey streak of dawn showed on the eastern horizon a happy though tired crowd dispersed.

BUY INSPECTED SEED

On account of the importance of the control and eradication of weeds on Canadian farms the Dominion Seed Branch calls particular attention to the facilities available through the Seed Inspection Service in this respect. In every district where clover and grass seeds are grown is located a Seed Branch inspector, who inspects seed offered for sale for seed purposes, and who furnishes information relating to the cleaning and grading of the seed. Seed which is submitted for inspection should be properly cleaned to remove weed seeds and dirt before it is submitted for grading. This may be done either through the local power cleaning plant or, where such facility is not available, by the use of the hand mill on the farm, which, when equipped with suitable screens, should do the work reasonably well.

Watch Yourself Go By

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by, Think of yourself as "he" instead of "I".

Note closely as in other men you note The bag-kneed trousers and the seedy coat. Pick flaws, find fault; forget the man is you, And strive to make your estimate ring true. Confront yourself and look you in the eye— Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

Interpret all your motives just as though You looked at one whose aims you did not know. Let undisguised contempt surge through you when You see you shirk, O commonest of men! Despise your cowardice, condemn what'er You note of falseness in your anywhere. Defend not one defeat that shames your eye— Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

And then with eyes unveiled to what you loathe— To sins that with sweet charity you'd clothe— Back to your self-walled tenement you'll go With tolerance for all who dwell below. The faults of others then will dwarf and shrink, When you with "he," as substitute for "I". Have stood aside and watch yourself go by.

GIANT MOLAR FOUND

SASKATOON, Sask., April 4.—A massive molar found near Roseheim, Alta., just across the Alberta-Saskatchewan border, is attracting considerable attention. Nine inches in diameter, the tooth is believed to have belonged to one of the mammoths existing in the country in the glacial age.

HIGH SALARIES HEAVILY TAXED

CALGARY, Alta., April 4.—(By The Canadian Press) — Fourteen men in Alberta earn more than $50,000 a year and based on the minimum will pay $215,026 to Alberta and federal governments this year in income taxes. The new Alberta income tax will take $8,655 from each and the Dominion will require payments of $8,704 from each.

HORSES READY FOR SPRING WORK

REGINA, Sask., April 4.—Sleek and well conditioned, 16,000 horses which have been wintered in northern Saskatchewan by farmers living in the southern drought areas are on their way back to farms in southern Saskatchewan for spring work.

Cost of wintering the animals ranged from $1.00 to $2.50 a month. Municipalities will bear this expense. The railways and the government are taking care of transportation.

American Seeks Rich Wife

In a case of American apples, opened in Selby, England, market, was a "wife wanted" message, said to have been sent by a man in the United States. To a large apple tied with blue ribbon was attached a message, which is reported to have read: "J. D. Pilland, of Donald, Washington, U. S. A., October 20, 1931, color white, aged 30, considered good looking, and looking for a rich widow for a wife."

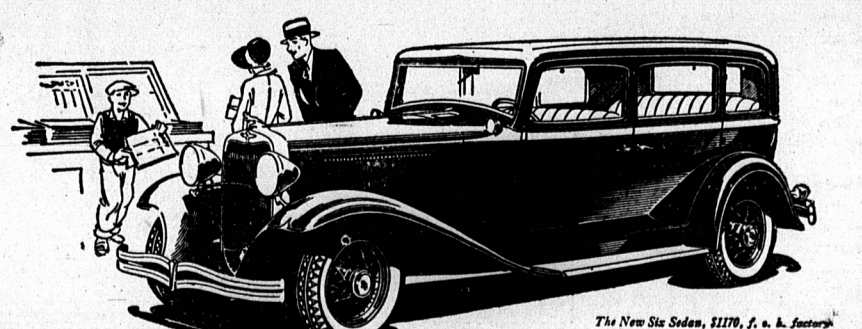

Dead Crocodile Aids Family

Believed to have killed and eaten four-year-old Betty Doherty, of Ingham, N. Z., a crocodile was used to raise money for the victim's family. The "croc" was 12 feet six inches long, and after the toad's death was captured in a snare. The beast put up such a fierce battle that the trappers shot it to prevent its escape. It was then taken by rail to Halifax, where it was exhibited, the funds raised being presented to the Doherty family.

Police Seize Football

In spite of the court decision three years ago that the 600-year custom of playing football in the main street of Chester-le-Street, England, is illegal, play was resumed on the annual football day recently. Three men were promptly arrested when a ball was kicked through a candy store window. Two balls were produced at the start of the games. A young policeman caught one at the kick-off, and took it to the police station. The other mysteriously disappeared.

BADMINTON

With the season drawing near the end, the Military Badminton Club have been making most of the last few weeks, practically the full Club membership turning out playing nights. Successful tournaments have been held during the past month with St. Peter's Cathedral Club, also the Summerside Club. Club tournaments have held the interest of the members, providing close and exciting finishes.

On Tuesday, April 5th, the Orchids, captained by Mrs. C. A. Beer will cross swords with the Roses captained by Miss Eleanor Bourke and as the teams are very evenly matched a big night is anticipated. The tournament will start at 7.15 p. m. sharp, after which the Nicholson Reds having lost the last tournament, will entertain the victorious Beer's Blues in the Officers' Mess.

The sides will line up on Tuesday as follows:—

Men's Doubles

E. Nicholson and H. L. Sear, play C. A. Beer and F. M. Nash
F. B. Conrad and K. M. Martin play G. K. Peake and J. O. O. Campbell.

Mixed Doubles

C. F. Hutchinson and Miss Gill play W. A. Smith and Mrs. H. R. Stewart.
W. F. Taylor and Mrs. Goodwill play C. D. Stewart and Mrs. H. W. Weeks.

Ladies' Doubles
