HELP WANTED

If the weather is favorable the early part of this coming week we need four truck drivers, about ten good strong capable men to assist us in the potato digging as well as a number of girls to pick potatoes. The wages will be good: you are paid by the hour and those who work during potato digging will be given the preference of working in the turnip waxing plant and the potato shed later on.

Apply in person to the office.

Montague

The regular Monthly Meeting of the W.M.S. of the Montague United Church was held at the home of Mrs. George Goudon on Wednesday evening, Sept. 22nd. The president Mrs. Ethan Stewart, presided. Mrs. (Rev.) S. A. Adams, very impressively conducted the devotional period, the theme being "Christ for all the World and For All of Life". Plans were made at this meeting to send a box of warm clothing to the needy folk at Labrador, and also for the Autumn Thank Offering. The Mizpah benediction closed the meeting, after which a delightful lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by a committee, and a social hour spent.

L.Cpl. Horace Fraser, son of Mrs. N. Fraser, who is stationed near Kingston, Ontario, is spending his furlough at his home in Montague.

The following students: Jean Duvar, Rae Vickerson, Beth Cowan, Arnold Lane and Donald MacGregor, spent the week-end at their homes in Montague.

Two more Montague boys have joined the R.C.A.F., Carl Currie, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Currie, and Sandy MacDonald, son of George MacDonald. The boys left Tuesday morning for Moncton, N. B., and the citizens of Montague wish them every success and "safe landings."

Miss Allice Fraser, teacher at Prince Street School, Charlottetown, spent the week-end visiting her mother, Mrs. Nellie Fraser, of Montague.

Word has been received that FO. I. C. Cowan, D.F.C., who a short time ago was sent back from Overseas to take a pilot's course, has been posted to Edmonton, Alberta for his intial training.

Mrs. Carrie Hopkins, assistant dietitian, at the P.E. Island Hospital was a visitor to Montague on Sunday.

Miss Mary J. MacLure of Murray Harbor North, is visiting Miss Edna Fraser of Montague.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Montague United Church, held a "Social Evening" on Tuesday, Sept. 28th at the home of Mrs. George Gordon. The entertainment for the evening was provided by Mrs. H. Davison, who held the attention of all, with three most interesting readings. A contest, conducted by Mrs. D. MacDonald, was greatly enjoyed, Mrs. Marshall Reynolds winning first prize. The money making feature was the "Auction Sale" with Mrs. Sid MacLean and Miss Bert Martin, as "Auctioneers" all articles brought good prices and a pleasing sum was realized. A delicious, lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by four members. A large number of members and visitors were present and a most enjoyable evening spent.—C

The export of rabbits from Eire has ben banned.

Seventy Friesian Cattle, presented to the Red Cross Agricultural Fund, realized $84,000 at a Reading sale.

Notice to

LANDLORDS AND TENANTS

WEEKLY TENANCIES

Effective October 1, 1943, a weekly tenant of a house, duplex, flat or apartment is entitled to the same rights of tenure under the Board Orders as a monthly tenant and can only be required to vacate for the same reasons and with the same length of notice as a monthly tenant.

This does not apply to roomers or boarders or to sub-tenants who share the entrance and the toilet with the tenant or principal occupant of the house, flat or apartment as the case may be. These people may be required to vacate on a week's notice if they are paying by the week.

IF A LANDLORD DESIRES TO MOVE INTO HIS OWN HOUSE, APARTMENT, DUPLEX OR FLAT AND WANTS THE TENANT TO VACATE:

Any landlord who desires the tenant to vacate so that the accommodation may be available as a residence for the landlord or his father, or for his mother, son, daughter or daughter-in-law, and declares the accommodation will be occupied by one of them for a period of at least one year, may give the tenant a notice to vacate on a special form provided by the Board.

Length of Notice

In a case of a monthly or weekly lease, the tenant must receive at least six months' notice and must not be required to vacate during the winter, i.e., between September 30th and the following April 30th. In the case of a lease for a fixed term such as one year, the tenant is entitled to a notice of at least six months before the end of the term.

For example in the case of a lease expiring May 1st, 1944, the notice must be given no later than October 31st, 1943.

A TENANT WHO IS IN DEFAULT OF PAYMENT OF RENT:

After fifteen days of default the tenant may be evicted under provincial law.

IF THE LANDLORD DESIRES TO REMODEL OR DIVIDE THE ACCOMMODATION BY MEANS OF STRUCTURAL ALTERATIONS INTO ADDITIONAL FAMILY UNITS SO AS TO MAKE IT ACCOMMODATE MORE PERSONS:

The landlord may give the tenant notice to vacate on a special form provided by the Board.

Length of Notice

In the case of a monthly or weekly lease, the tenant must receive at least three months' notice and must not be required to vacate during the winter, i.e., between September 30th and the following April 30th.

In the case of a lease for a fixed term, such as one year, the tenant is entitled to a notice of at least three months before the end of the term. For example in the case of a lease expiring May 1st, 1944, the notice must be given no later than January 31st, 1944. Moreover, the landlord may not give such a notice unless and until he has secured a permit to do so from a Rentals Appraiser.

A TENANT WHO IS BREAKING ANY MATERIAL PROVISION OF HIS LEASE:

The landlord must inform the tenant in writing of the nature of the alleged breach and may then proceed to evict the tenant under the law of the province.

New Italian Gov't Looks Like German Propaganda Set-up

By Richard G. Massock

(Chief of the former Rome Bureau of The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 — (AP) —Benito Mussolini's "new Fascist Government," announced today from Berlin, looks from this distance like a rather hollow propaganda structure erected by the Germans.

Legally, one authority here said, all the members of this new Fascist creation, from Mussolini down, are traitors, liable to execution by the Italians should they be captured by the Allies. They have violated the armistice signed by the legitimately-constituted Badoglio government.

Marshal Rodolfo Graziani's appointment as Minister of defence was surprising. Presumably he was chosen because he has been a high army officer, who once collaborated wholeheartedly in Mussolini's military adventures. He was supposedly in disgrace, however, after his implied criticism of the Mussolini Regime in his 1941 report explaining how the British defeated the Italians in Cyrenaica.

Interesting and perhaps significant was the abandonment by Mussolini of the defence and interior portfolios, which he always held before his fall from power last July 25, and his assumption only of the Premiership and Foreign Affairs.

Shortly after Badoglio supplanted Mussolini in the government, reports reached Washington that the Germans were planning to restore Mussolini. It is assumed that the newly-announced government already had been drawn up when the armistice was announced and that the Germans went ahead with it after rescuing Mussolini from his captors.
