No Peace in Sight Says Hon. Hugh Guthrie

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 4.—Importance of the movement being supported by the New York State woman's land army to obtain women for work on the farms, was emphasized by speakers at the closing session of the organization's conference here today.

Mr. Guthrie confined his talk entirely to the war. The only peace that should be tolerated, should be an allied peace. He predicted a long struggle with the end not in sight until at least 4,000,000 American soldiers are on the battlefields of France.

CANADIAN ARMY IN FRANCE LARGER THAN AT ANY TIME IN WAR

TORONTO, Sept. 4.—Sir Robert Borden was the principal speaker at the Labor Day directors' luncheon at the Canadian National Exhibition, and late in the afternoon addressed an immense gathering of the general public in the open air from the main bandstand. Probably fifteen to twenty thousand people listened to what was essentially an appeal to labor not to subtract from the national effort to win the war by controversy of discord.

Sir Robert declared his belief that the Canadian board of adjustment, consisting of six members representing the Canada railway board and as many representatives of the various organizations of railway employees would be able to adjust all differences promptly and satisfactorily and might continue after the conclusion of the war as a permanent arrangement.

"Surely, as an outcome of this war," he said, "there will be some better understanding between employed and more reasonable methods of settling differences."

"We have fought and have endured; and we will fight and endure to the end. As we do our part, so we pray that you shall do yours, until the dawn of abiding peace through victory."

Out of 364,750 Canadian troops overseas, he told them, more than 227,000 had been classed as "working men."

Railway Ownership

At the directors' luncheon the premier devoted some time to the question of government ownership and operation of railways.

"With one exception," he declared, "the largest railway proprietor in Canada is the Canadian people," and he added, significantly, "the day may come when there will be no exception."

"If the policy of state ownership of railways were to be successful the methods of operation must be as efficient as any private corporation, there must be no party political interference, while the people and parliament must retain the general control inherent in ownership. The proposals of the government which will be made almost immediately would be based on these considerations. For these reasons the board of the Canadian Northern system would be reconstituted in the immediate future."

EVERY WOMAN'S RIGHT

To every woman belongs the right to enjoy a healthy, active, happy life, yet nine out of every ten suffer years of agony, usually from some form of bloodlessness. That is why one sees on every side pale thin cheeks, dull eyes and drooping figures—sure signs of headaches, weak backs, aching limbs and uncertain health. All weak, suffering women should win the right to be well by refreshing their weary bodies with the new, rich, red blood that promptly transforms them into healthy attractive women. This new, rich, red blood is supplied in abundance by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills which reaches every organ and every nerve in the body.

Through the use of these pills thousands of women have found a prompt cure when suffering from anaemia, indigestion, heart palpitation, rheumatism, general weakness, and those ailments from which women alone suffer. There is no part of this broad Dominion in which you will not find some former sufferer who has regained health and strength through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and this is the reason why these pills have been a favorite household remedy for more than a generation. If you are ailing and will give the pills a fair trial you will find renewed health and happiness in their use.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MacDONALD & MacKINNON THE 2 MACS DRUGGISTS

Sir Robert declared that his presence at the imperial war cabinet as the representative of Canada was necessary to accomplish essential unity of purpose and effort, and told of the decision of the imperial war conference on the subject of immigration between India and the dominions. The government of each dominion and India was entitled to "complete control of the composition of its own population by restriction, if necessary, on migration from any other part of the empire."

1755,000 Canadians in Fight The premier said that Canada had 175,000 troops in France and Belgium up to August nearly 414,000 men had gone overseas. This was made possible by Canada's resolve to stand by her army and provide adequate reinforcements.

Regarding the assertion that men are remaining in England who should be at the front, Sir Robert declared: "I found no evidence of any such condition."

"The issue," he said, in conclusion, "must be settled now, and Germany must learn her lesson once for all. There must be no inconclusive peace. Was it for nothing that the Americans went into battle shouting 'remember the Lusitania'? Was it for nothing that the Huns heard the battle cry 'remember the Llandovery Castle' when the Canadians made their onset? This is the message I bring you from the Canadian army: 'Stand fast by your purpose, abide the issue, and vindicate the cause of justice and humanity.'"

METHODIST DIVINE HAS PASSED AWAY

(Halifax Herald, Tuesday.) The Methodist Church of the Maritime Provinces was deeply bereaved yesterday by the death of Rev. John L. Dawson, which occurred at noon at the residence of the sisters of his late wife, the Misses Lockhart, 43 Carleton street. The deceased, who had been in poor health for several months, was one of the most widely known Wesleyan clergymen of Eastern Canada.

John L. Dawson was born in 1851, at Tryon (P. E. I.), the second son of the late Thomas Dawson. He joined the Methodist Church and shortly afterward decided to make the ministry of the Gospel his life work. After four years at Mount Allison and Boston Theological Seminary he received the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Mount Allison in 1875, but his health had broken and he was forced to spend the greater part of three years near Eastern Canada, became a probationer, and after three years spent in Hebron, Yarmouth county, and Bailey's Bay, Bermuda, he was ordained at Granville Ferry in 1881. He had a more varied ministry than usually falls to the lot of Methodist ministers and was pastor of the following circuits: Sheet Harbor, Lockport, Oxford, Halifax (Robie and Charles streets), Windsor, St. John's (North), Sackville, Sussex, St. John, Mount Stewart (P. E. I.), Charlottetown and York.

Throughout his ministry he never recovered fully from the effects of his breakdown at college. It was rarely seen in other than church activities, although those who knew the man could recognize his quiet influence in many civic movements. At three successive meetings of the New Brunswick Conference he was nominated as a candidate for the office of president, but on two occasions he asked permission to withdraw his name because of his doubt of his physical ability to uphold the duties connected therewith. On the third time at the meeting in Moncton in June, 1917, he allowed himself to be persuaded to let his name go forward, and was elected on the first ballot. For a time it seemed that the responsibilities of the position were to be efficiently discharged but the task was too great. In November he suffered an entire breakdown and gradually faded like a leaf in the autumn, death coming to him like an Angel of God, gently and beautifully as he slept.

The late Mr. Dawson was a man of medium size, fine presence and lofty aspect, in all respects a true man, a gentleman, whether home or abroad. He everywhere commanded respect and gave it where it was due. He was frank with friends, courteous and candid with opponents, discreet in reproving, wise in counsel. Deception he abhorred, but he loved genuineness, and was unwilling to give or take flattery. His moral courage was finely intertwined with prudence. Like every good man resolved to correct known and visible errors he provoked opposition, but was never thereby deterred from the path of duty. If sometimes he seemed to hesitate in his movements, it was in order to find a more excellent way. Politics—the administration of public affairs—claimed his close attention, but he never was a partisan. He would have made a good statesman, but Providence and grace gave him a more desirable position. At all times he was loyal to God, his country and his church.

It would be difficult to say wherein he most excelled, as a preacher or as a pastor, for on every field in which he labored are found those who bear testimony to his excellence in every phase of ministerial activity. His preaching reflected his study, and at all times his sermons contained more logic than declamation. He used his words to express his ideas, but sometimes they suggested much more. He embodied the fruits of a lifetime of study and research in a volume which he called "A Race's Redemption." In his passing the Methodist Church has lost a well-rounded symmetrically developed and useful minister.

His wife (Grace Lockhart), died three years ago. There are left to mourn their loss, three sons, Kenneth L. and John C., of Halifax, and Wilfrid T., who at present is a cadet in the school of gunnery, Whitley (Eng.). Also two brothers, George B. Dawson, of St. Croix, Hants county (N. S.), and S. Edward Dawson, of Portland (Oregon), and two sisters, Mrs. George Ives, of North Tryon (P. E. I.), and Mrs. Charles L. Wright, of Victoria (P. E. I.). The body will be taken to Tryon (P. E. I.) for interment.

The Book of Knowledge

in the plain and simple language that a child can understand. Do not make your child weary reading over long dull articles to which children are oftentimes subjected when seeking information.

This discourages their first efforts and may turn them away forever from the most precious thing which a child can possess—the desire to learn and find out for himself the things which he wants to know. Adult information, given in scientific language, has no attraction for the mind of the child. It has much the same effect upon him as the old-fashioned sermon which began with "firstly" and ended with everybody asleep.

Pictures Speak Louder Than Words

THE BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE possesses in a marked degree the power to awaken and stimulate growing minds, first and foremost, because it is illustrated with thousands of delightful educational pictures. There must be pictures to attract and hold the child's attention—interesting full-page illustrations, and plenty of them, which tell the story in a striking and artistic manner, and imprint the important knowledge of the world upon the mind in a way that can never be forgotten. The child learns more and faster through the eye during the early years, when he is acquiring the love of learning.

In a houseful where THE BOOK OF KNOWLEDGE is the source of joy and usefulness it is just as common a thing to see father or mother, aunt or uncle, absorbed in the volumes as the children. Everybody wants to know, but nobody wants to be told in a prosy and uninteresting manner. The world of knowledge is also the world of romance, and when the two things can be brought together, as in this remarkable work, there is not a man woman or child who can fail to be interested, or fail to find out.
