EARNSCLIFFE THE BEAUTIFUL.—This is, the writer thinks, an appropriate name for this, one of the prettiest places in this, one of the most beautiful islands in America. The place is so pretty, the people so hospitable and kind that it is no wonder so many people come here during the summer months. Amongst those who were visitors in Earncliffe last week were: Mr. and Mrs. Dingwell Jenkins; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jenkins, Seal River; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McEachern, Messrs. Ilett and Arden Richards, Lewis Hayden, and Miss Thillie Hayden, Cherry Valley; Messrs. Frank Lea, William Ross and Daniel McLeod, Vernon River; Mrs. Sutherland, city, and Mrs. Robertson, Boston.

FORT AUGUSTUS AND VICINITY.—The farmers of this vicinity are busily engaged at their hay.—Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Bradley are spending a few days visiting friends in the city.—Messrs Peter Holland and Joseph Duffy have returned from Moncton after purchasing some fine foxes.—The many friends of Mr. William Duffy will be glad to hear that he is recovering from his illness.—Mr. John L. Kelly has removed to his new residence on Pleasant View Farm.—Mr. Garial Dunn of Boston is visiting friends here the guest of his brother Leo Dunn.—Mr. Thomas Dalton spent Sunday at Mt. Ryan the guest of Mr. Campbell.—Miss Margaret Hogarty, teacher of Auburn spent Sunday at her home here.—Miss Kasie Duffy spent the week end visiting friends in Glenfennan the guest of Miss Board.—The School is progressing favourably under skilful training of Miss Paquet, teacher.—Com.

PARIS GREEN.—Order your Paris Green from Johnson & Johnson. 7457.

CEDAR POSTS are very scarce. We have had a shipment this week. Order early. D. M. McLeod, Hunter River. 7440-8-2ME21.

COAL ARRIVED.—The schooner Florrie B. has arrived in port with a cargo of Sydney Screen coal for J. Carragher & Co.

CEDAR POSTS AND SHINGLES.—Just arrived cargo posts and shingles, also boards, plank, lathes and lime. W. T. Weir, Stanley Bridge. 7431-8-2M41pd.

HISTORICAL BELFAST.—It is expected, weather permitting, that the residents of peaceful Eldon will be greatly honoured, in a visit by a number of the intellectual members of the Charlottetown Chess Club next Saturday morning, the party arriving by autos. This occasion will give the visitors an opportunity of seeing the historical church grounds, and the magnificent cliffs by the sea shore. On such occasions, and scenes from nature, as these outings give to men, the spirit of friendship and brotherhood becomes strong, and helps to make life worth living.

NUPTIALS.—A very pretty wedding took place in St. James Church, Charlottetown, on July 23rd when Miss Ida Curley, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Curley was united in marriage to Mr. Parnell J. Curran, Pleasant Grove. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. B. McIntyre, Covehead, in the presence of a number of friends and relatives. The bride wore pearl grey satin with hat to match. She looked nice as she entered the Church to the strains of the wedding march which was excellently rendered by Miss Kathleen McKenna, while Mr. Peter Deighan played hymns during the ceremony. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Alice Curley, and H. J. Curran, brother of the groom acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony was performed they motored to the bride's home where dinner was served and the Rev. J. B. McIntyre gave an elegant address to both. The groom's present to the bride was a gold bracelet, to the bridesmaid a gold cuff link. After spending a few pleasant hours at home they departed for their new home in Pleasant Grove, carrying with them the best wishes of the community for a happy and contented future.

SOLDIERS REMEMBERED

A most delightful affair occurred on the evening of July 17th when a large number of friends and neighbours gathered together in the beautiful grove of Mr. Daniel MacDonald, Garfield, to welcome home two brave boys, namely Pte. Harry Murray and Pte. James Whittle. Pte. Murray has been in the service since 1915 and has been through all the big battles up to September 1918 when he was badly gassed. Addresses of welcome were read and gifts presented by Mr. Thomas MacKenzie and Master Willie D. MacDonald. After the presentation a fitting reply was made by Ptes. Murray and Whittle followed by the returned men and friends sitting down to a dainty repast. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing. This enjoyable function was brought to a close by bunting the heroes and singing the National Anthem.

The following are the addresses. Dear Harry:—We in this locality in behalf of our many friends throughout our community desire briefly hereby to express our warm sentiments in welcoming you back once more to P. E. Island and especially to Garfield where many happy days your bravery, self-denying energy and willing service in the cause of our Empire is highly appreciated by all as your life long badge of home. It is a certain fact that in facing our beligerent foe, you have undergone severe hardships through which kind Providence has carried you through. May he still render your life prosperous in future. Please accept this small gift as a token of our regard.

Dear James:—We your friends and neighbours are gathered here this evening to congratulate you on your safe return to our community. Words of ours fall to express to you how greatly we appreciate the services of your young boyhood were formerly great commander who has watched over you in the past will do the same in the future. Please accept this small gift as a token of our regard and sincere hope and wish is that the best wishes for future happiness.
