HOME FROM VENEZUELA.—Mr. Karl Fletcher son of the late Mr. C. P. Fletcher of Charlottetown has arrived in the city. Mr. Fletcher after returning home from overseas, where he had been engaged as a recruiting agent for the British army, recruiting British subjects resident in the United States. After the armistice he secured a position with a banking institution in New York and was transferred to Venezuela where he has since been located. He has since received word of his transfer to China and leaves next week for that distant country. The many friends of Mr. Fletcher are pleased to see him again and to know that he is meeting with such success. He is at present stopping at the Davies.

CONTAGIOUS BUT NOT FATAL.—A mild and delightfully contagious epidemic of late has been visiting the parish of Kelly's Cross and claimed a goodly number of willing victims. Brookvale district suffered most. The worst is probably over. Tuesday, the morning of Aug. 24th in St. Ann's Church, Lot 65 Mr. Albert Smith, one of Brookvale's popular young farmers was united in holy wedlock to Miss Annie Malone daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Malone of Green Bay by Rev. Francis McDonald, assisted by the pastor Rev. Thomas Curran. Congratulations are in order. Mr. Smith will reside in Brookvale, and he and his young wife have the kindest wishes of their hosts of friends. On Wednesday morning, August 25 Kelly's Cross Church witnessed an interesting and unusually happy function one not seen often in an ordinary lifetime, viz. the marriage of two brothers, Messrs. Emmett and Anthony Sturdy of Brookvale sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Sturdy. Miss Annie Duffy of Maplewood was made the wife of Anthony Sturdy while Miss Sarah E. Dougherty of St. Anne's Parish was united as the wife of Emmett Sturdy, each couple standing witness to the marriage of the other. Rev. Dr. Curran performed the unique ceremony. Having breakfasted at Mrs. Duffy's Maplewood and dined at Mr. Dougherty's.

MR. AND MRS. ERNEST L. Corbin have very kindly placed their large parlor at the disposal of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Charlottetown Dispensary. Thursday, September 9th for an afternoon tea and ice-cream festival in aid of the Dispensary. 2615-9-4-21

AMBITION TO SUCCEED
I finished my studies at the public school with a record about midway between the head and the foot of my class. Even at this time, I was ambitious, although I now see that my ambition was but poorly directed. I never went to school to further education, I wanted to be earning money, to live in the world, to be bright. I considered myself a very bright young lady and thought that I could easily get a good salary in return for my services.
Mary Ambitious.

Many Young People are Like Mary
They do not understand their true position in reference to a salary. They get others earning good salaries and imagine that they can easily do as well. You must be trained in some special line of work if you are to make your earning being you are now paid to stenographers, bookkeepers and other office workers. We will explain how to qualify for an office position, if you will call on us.
See what Mary Ambitious will do next.
