RESIGNATION.

What tho' the way be dark, And there gleams no light ahead, My blessed Saviour steers my bark, I shall have no fear or dread.

What tho' all hope be gone, And the future bare and dim, My eyes shall seek the blessed dawn, That shall bring a sight of Him.

What tho' the stars should fall, And the sun arise no more, The lowly Christ-child welcomes all, On yonder sinless shore.

And so, let come what may, While life its course doth run, I know there dawns a better day, When sin and strife are done.

Oh, blessed is the one who died On Calvary's cross for me, There flowed from out his pierced side, The blood that set me free.

Let hosts of evil marshalled be, And foes, their strength combined, Hang me upon a Calvary, My God, I am resigned.

IN LOVING MEMORY.

There passed peacefully away to the Eternal Home, at Union Road, King's County, on Friday morning, Sept. 13th, 1912, Mary McMillan, widow of the late John Ross in the 61st year of her age.

Although she suffered greatly at times, for many years from asthma and heart trouble, she was ill only two days and her sudden death came as a great shock to all her friends.

Her noble life and sweet Christian character endeared her to a large circle of friends, and she will be much missed in the home and in the community in which lived. Mrs. Ross was the eldest daughter of the late John McMillan of New Perth.

A family of four sons and four daughters are left to mourn the loss of a wise and loving mother. Ernest in Calgary, Arthur in Edmonton, John in Ottawa, Vernon at home, Mrs. Oliver McNeill, New Perth, Mrs. August Kreye, Inga, Alberta, Olive in Kamloops, B. C., and Bertha at home. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. F. A. Wightman, of Souris, a former pastor of the Methodist church at Union Road, of which deceased was a consistent member.

PLenty OF EVIDENCE.

"I wonder," said Slithers stopping his car at the roadside and addressing an old man working in the fields, "if I can get any gasoline around here?"

"I reckon you kin," replied the old man, straightening up and leaning on his hoe. "Ye kin get it in yer system, anyhow. Them cars ahead o' ye seems to have left a few tons of it behind 'em, judgin' by the condition of the atmosphere."

There Was a Man In Our Town and he was Wondrous Wise— You couldn't fool Him, Oh No! He had drank coffee for years Coffee didn't hurt him.

But The Bump Came Many a man is pretty sure that while coffee may hurt o'hers it dont hurt him— till the bump comes.

But when headache, frazzled nerves, an irritable heart, indigestion and sleeplessness begin to "get him", he's apt to look around for a reason.

The reason is plain when a change is made from coffee to
