THE MORNING GUARDIAN

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1901.

HE CAN'T GET OUT.

It is related that when Michel Angelo painted his famous judgment scene he had stipulated that no one should be admitted. But a meddling critic pushed in and condemned the work.

What do our City pastors think of the recent flagrant Sabbath breaking?

Mr. Farquharson called the meeting at Clifton yesterday, but the meeting was strongly in favor of Mr. Hassard.

Halifax has been relieved by an official despatch from Ottawa to Governor Jones announcing that the proposed naval and military review at that city will take place.

It is gratifying to learn from the recent statement of the Chancellor of the Exchequer that the British Government in the Orange River Colony has raised during the past year nearly as much revenue as the Republic raised before the war.

Many tributes are paid by the western papers to the late Hon. N. Clark Wallace. He was a man of more than ordinary intelligence and ability and he dared to differ from his party and to surrender office and salary when their course was contrary to his honest convictions.

A SPLENDID REVIEW. TORONTO, Oct. 11.—(Special).—To-day's military review was a magnificent spectacle. Twenty thousand troops took part.

A MIGHTY CHEER—MEDALS PRESENTED. The Review ended in a mighty cheer by the assembled troops.

TOO MUCH. Exercise is as bad as too little for the growing girl. It is very easy for her to overdo, and this is especially dangerous at that critical period of a young girl's life when she crosses the line of womanhood.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only establishes regularity, but it gives health to the entire womanly organism. It is the best medicine for diseases peculiar to women because it cures the causes of disease completely and permanently.

female trouble, writes Miss Agnes McGowan, of 123 Bank Street, Washington, D. C. 'I tried various remedies, but none seemed to do me any permanent good. The doctors said it was the worst case of internal trouble they ever had. I decided to write to you for help. I received a very encouraging reply and commenced treatment at once. I had not used your 'Favorite Prescription' a week before I began to feel better, and, as I continued, my health gradually improved, and is improving every day.'
