MR. ASQUITH'S PLUCKY DAUGHTER

Rescues Her Father from Attack by Suffragettes, and Arrests Them.

(Canadian press) ELGIN, SCOTLAND, Aug. 28.—The British Prime Minister was the object of an attack this afternoon in which his chivalry prevented him from successfully defending himself.

While he was golfing with his daughter on the Lonsieburn Links two stalwart suffragettes sprang at him knocking off his hat, grabbed him by the clothing and dragged him some distance over the ground.

Miss Asquith ran to her father's assistance and for a few minutes proceeded to use militant tactics on his assailants and arrested them, driving them first to Clats Lodge then to the Elgin Police Station.

As on the previous day, the rain interfered to some extent with the play yesterday, and more so with the attendance of the spectators.

The greens were rendered rather heavy, but in spite of the rain the events fixed for the day were carried through.

Play started in the morning with a putting and approaching match which took place in the rain.

The competitors approached three greens, at 75 yds., 50 yds., and 25 yds. Miss Pipes of Amherst and Mrs. Le Noir of Halifax, tied with eight for first place.

This was followed, after an adjournment for luncheon, by the playing of the Championship final, which ended as stated above, and the final in the Championship Desolation, the Consolation Desolation, and the Second Consolation Matches, and the semi-final in the First Consolation Match.

In the First Consolation the competitors to meet in the final were Miss Pipes, of Amherst, and Mrs. Bonnyman, of Amherst, Miss Vroom, of Windsor, and Mrs. Goodwill, of Charlottetown.

The final in the Second Consolation Match lay between Mrs. Purdie, of Amherst, and the former won. In the Championship Desolation, the final was contested by Mrs. Cooke of Moncton, and Miss Pope, of Charlottetown, and resulted in a victory for Mrs. Cooke.

Miss Teigue, of Amherst, and Mrs. Patterson, of Truro, were matched in the final of the Consolation Desolation match, and the former won. Today, at 10.30 a.m., at the club house at the Belvedere Links, the annual meeting of the Ladies' Maritime Golf Association will be held.

In the afternoon besides the final of the First Consolation Match, an inter-provincial match will be played between teams of nineteen players apiece, representing Nova Scotia against New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. They will compete for the Inter-Provincial Golf Cup.

The Nova Scotia team will be captained by Miss Bauld, of Halifax, and the N. B. and P.E.I. team by Miss Smith, of St. John. The teams, as they are paired, will be as follows:— Miss Bauld, (Halifax) v. Mrs. Madison, (Moncton).

Mrs. Handsomebody, (Halifax) v. Miss Stetson, (St. John). Miss Rhodes, (Windsor) v. Mrs. Barker, (St. John).

LADIES' MARITIME GOLF TOURNAMENT

Windsor Lady's Champion

Annual Meeting This Morning. Presentation of Prizes This Afternoon.

The champion lady golfer of the Maritime Provinces for this year, as decided at the annual tournament of the Ladies' Maritime Golf Association which has been in progress on the Belvedere Links, Charlottetown, for the past three days, is Mrs. Handsomebody, of Windsor, N. S.

At the conclusion of the match, at five o'clock, the presentation of the prizes won will be made by the President, Mr. W. K. Rogers.

THE POPE CONDEMNS. MTLAN, Aug. 28.—The pope has published a condemnation of the philosophy of Henry Berghon as sketched in his book on creative evolution. Mr. Berghon announces he will reply in a series of winter lectures in Paris.

AMHERST, N. S., Aug. 27.—After the gullies had been erected in the court yard and in view of the principal streets of the town and all details completed for the sad tragedy that was expected to be enacted tomorrow, that of Charles R. Watt paying the extreme penalty for the murder of his sister's illegitimate child, and after the sheriff had completed all arrangements and the officials in charge were making some final tests of the ghastly structure, when a telegram was received from the Minister of Justice, postponing the date of execution for three weeks.

The prisoner seems to have much sympathy in his favor. When the news was brought to him of the extension of time, his wonderful control and composure broke down. He has prepared himself for the end and would sooner go through the ordeal tomorrow than have the date postponed if it had to come.

He had written many farewell letters to his friends urging them to lead better lives etc. He also wrote to the jailer thanking him for his kindness to him during his stay in jail.

The respite of sentence is for three weeks that is until the 18th of September. It is now felt that the sentence will be commuted to life, or a long term of imprisonment.

FIRST FLORAL SHOW WAS A GRAND SUCCESS

Large Attendance. Magnificent Exhibits Artistically and Tastefully Displayed. Visitors Delighted. Promoters Congratulated.

THAW'S TRIAL IN OCTOBER

(Canadian Press) SHIRBROOKE, Aug. 28.—Harry K. Thaw's lawyers, thrice victorious over the authorities from New York State, rejoiced to-night when they found that the trip which Jerome made to Quebec to interview Sir Lomer Gouin on points connected with Canadian law in the case was in vain.

Sir Lomer having gone to New York to meet Lord Haldane, who will arrive there to-morrow. There is renewed talk to-day of the possibility of Thaw being released on bail until his case comes up in October before the King's Bench, where it now appears his case will be heard.

One of Thaw's counsels said to-night that he would regard this admission of Thaw to bail as a very unwise step. The immigration authorities could then take him in charge, although they could not deport him, in view of his being bound by bond to appear in Court, but they could make it very embarrassing for him.

THE LANGUAGE OF FLOWERS. His Honor said that he might congratulate the Commissioner on his being called on to preside at that first Flower Show and he congratulated himself on being called upon to open the show in Prince Edward Island.

There was a large gathering of spectators when the show was opened at three o'clock. Among those who were present were the Hon. W. S. Stewart, Mr. E. H. Campbell, Superintendent of Education, and Mr. W. H. Aitken.

The Show was opened by His Honor B. Rogers, the Lieutenant Governor, who was introduced by the Commissioner of Agriculture, Hon. Murdoch McKinnon, who presided.

THE PRINCIPAL DIFFICULTY in the way of a settlement is the provision which the United States demands that Huerta shall not be a candidate for election as president.

MEXICAN TROUBLE LOOKS HOPEFUL. (Canadian Press) WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The feeling to-night is that the Huerta Government and the United States will arrive at a mutual understanding leading to a peaceful settlement of the revolutionary disturbances in Mexico.

Government officials express themselves as pleased with developments while neither side has receded from its position. The feeling is much more friendly and matters in dispute are approached with more regard to a practical solution.
