Sea View and Vicinity

The weather man has indeed been favoring the farmers recently in sending in many showers of rain and one can hear on all sides the great improvement there is in the appearance of the hay crop. The fishermen are reporting small catches of both codfish and mackerel, in fact, the pears are finding it hard to supply their customers. A host of friends extend sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Donald, Sea View, in the death of their little infant daughter at their home on July 4th.

Should We Raise Horses?

(Experimental Farms Note) With the return of spring activities it is a very opportune time to analyze the horse power available on each farm, what it will be next year and the next few years. According to the Dominion Live Stock Service, the horse industry in Canada suffered a steady decline in population of almost half a million or 14.1 per cent from 1926 to 1936. The United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics reports a total decline of 28 per cent for the corresponding period. In Quebec the horse population was 338,990 in 1935, or a decrease of 26.6 per cent from the 1926 figure of 469,300, a decrease of 22.2 per cent for the same period.

ISLAND OF MY DREAM

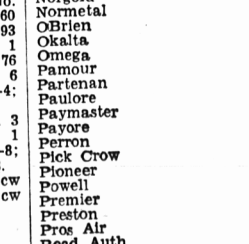

I'd like to write a song of you, Dear "Island of my dream". To prove in all my memories, You've ever been supreme. Chorus: And I'd have laughter, I'd have a smile, A lovely melody, that's worth the while, I'd have sweet moments, of days gone by, And tender memories of P. E. I. This might be heart-aches, and perhaps a tear, A yearning-longing, for by-gone years, But thru' it all you would be my theme, A bit of Heaven, "Island of my dream."

REJUVENATING YOUR SUMMER WARDROBE

If you are looking for a quick and easy method of rejuvenating your summer wardrobe, here are a few suggestions gleaned from the field of Paris fashions. Choose tiny blue handkerchiefs. Linen for a tailored single-breasted jacket to wear over wool or cotton. Border a white organza bow and place it high on the neck of a black wool dress with a jacket bolero of matching wool. Make gloves of polka-dotted silk surah to match the blouse of a tailored suit. Fasten a bunch of gay blue bachelor buttons at the waist of a black and white printed plaid with a knee-high circular skirt. Sew sequins at irregular distances on a square of pastel-colored handkerchief linen, and toss the handkerchief nochalantly over your head for an evening out. Silt your pockets vertically instead of crosswise. And place as many as eight of these neat invisible pockets on a single tailored jacket. Tuck a red rose in the belt of a stiff black taffeta evening dress whose circular skirt ends in a wide ruching. Cut maple leaves out of black patent leather and applique them loosely on a two-inch white kit belt. Applique or embroider your initials on the band of your hat. Substitute a long, tight sleeve for the ordinary short sleeve in lace boleros. Patou makes the tight-sleeved bolero in heavy black lace for a black crepe dinner dress. Contrast a lavender printed silk blouse with a pale yellow wool suit which has buttons made of porcelain in the form of wheat sheaves. Wear emerald green satin gauntlets with an ultra-blue evening dress.
