88 Great George St.

In the schedule below will be found a condensed list of city and Country properties. To Let and For Sale, classified under their several headings. This list does not necessarily comprise all that we may have to offer from day to day, for alterations are being constantly made because of new listings received and rentals and sales that we are making.

A point that we wish to impress upon those seeking properties of any kind is that we are closely informed of realty conditions generally and, with a requisition in hand, can as a rule obtain the property required, if such exists.

To property owners we would again reiterate that the rental time saved in availing themselves of our constantly growing clientele amply pays for our small commission, in addition to which our whole service system is given free of charge.
