Bloomfield Station returned last week from the lumber woods in Baie Verte, N. B.

Mr. Dominick Perry, O'Leary, was in Howlan on business last Wednesday.

Mr. Bruce Carruthers was a passenger by train to Summerside on Tuesday morning, March 16th.

Mr. Frank Richard has a lot of lumber hauled home in preparation for a new house in the spring.

Mr. Alban B. Arseneault left on Monday morning for a trip to St. John, then on to different parts of U.S.A. for a visit.

Mrs. Jos. B. Arseneault returned from Summerside, where she spent a very pleasant week-end.

Several of the farmers are getting their potatoes hauled to O'Leary before the roads get beyond sleighing and on return some bring back fertilizer in preparation for the spring.

The many friends of Mrs. Paul J. Gallant will be sorry to learn that she is quite miserable. Mrs. Gallant has spent the winter with her son, Mose and Mrs. Gallant and family of Duvar.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Gallant and little child have just recently returned to Mr. Gallant's old home in Woodstock. Mr. Gallant just finished a short course in town, while his wife kept house for her dad, Mr. Leo Doyle of Brae.

On Friday a. m. the Angel of Death visited Charlottetown Sanatorium and this time claimed Frank O'Leary as its victim in his 22nd year. Deceased was the son of Sylvain Gallant formerly of Howlan and his mother, who predeceased him some ten or more years ago was Emma Gallant daughter of the late Joseph E. Gallant and Mrs. Gallant of O'Leary. After his mother's death, when Frank was not very old he stayed in Duvar at the home of the late Fimin Deroche until old enough to go out on his own. He is survived by his father and the following brothers and sisters: Hector, Arthur, Louis, Domie and Kenneth, Olive and Mary Ellen. His remains were forwarded to Woodstock at the home of his brother Arthur and Mrs. Gallant. The funeral from their home to St. Anthony R. C. Church, Bloomfield took place on Sunday afternoon at 3:30. To the bereaved father, sisters and brothers much sympathy is extended.
