

Look to the Name!

"NAMELESS" lamps cost you money in early burnouts and higher electric light bills. EDISON MAZDA Lamps save you money by giving more light—better light—and longer service. Insist on lamps that bear this name.

A very thin full-back was annoyed by the attentions of a small dog firing a football match. At last, when play had moved to the other end, the back turned and shouted to the spectators: "Whoever owns this dog might call him off." A voice responded: "Come here, Spot. Them ain't hopes, boy—them's legs." Professor—Will you please stop exchanging notes in the back of the room? Student—Them ain't notes. Them's dollar bills. We're shootin' craps. Professor—Oh, pardon me.

A similar charge against another party from Malpeque was adjourned until Thursday.—S.

Miller's Worm Powders not only exterminate intestinal and other worms, but they are a remedy for many other ailments of children. They strengthen the young stomach against biliousness and are tonic in their effects where the child suffers from loss of appetite. In feverish conditions they will be found useful and they will serve to allay pain and griping in the stomach, from which children so often suffer.

Mrs. Hix: I don't take any stock in healing by the laying on of hands." Mrs. Dix: "Well, I do. I cured my little boy of the cigarette habit that way."

BEDIQUE

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Drumm, of Cambridge, Mass., have been spending a vacation with friends in Kinkora and vicinity, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward MacCarville at Kinkora.

Another week has come and gone, and still the showers of rain continue to fall, keeping the grain too soft to haul in. Many fields of grain have been cut for several weeks and has not been stored yet. The potato crop has almost completely gone with the blight, few fields remain green, but the potatoes seem to be almost fully matured, those that were in early in the season. The crop will probably be better than last year, although there was no blight last year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. MacGrath and little daughter, Miss Patricia, who have been visiting Mrs. MacGrath's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roberts, at Middleton, left on return to Jersey City, U. S. A., last week.

Mrs. David Schurman, of Reading, Mass., has been spending a few weeks visiting friends before leaving for United States.

Miss Marion Frizzell, teacher at the Winsloe School, spent the week end, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Frizzell.

The Sunday evening service of the Centreville Bedeque United Church, was given under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Society. Mr. Wilbert Wright presided. A very interesting address was given by Mr. Ralph MacCaull, of North Bedeque. Prayer was offered by Mr. Arnold Henderson. A solo was beautifully rendered by Miss Winnifred Wright. The members of the Society occupied the choir and Mrs. Walter Craig presided at the organ, where singing and music were rendered effectively. The benediction was pronounced by Mr. Thomas Moyle.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beegan, of Cambridge, Mass., have been spending an enjoyable holiday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward MacCarville, Kinkora.

Mr. Ralph MacCarville, of Kinkora, is a student at Prince of Wales College.

Approximately eight hundred people assembled at the Central Bedeque Rink on Monday evening last to witness the second series of tug-of-war for the much-talked-of Morrison and Strong Trophy, open to all the teams in Fourth Electoral District of Prince. Mr. George Sheen referred to the satisfaction of all. Mr. R. P. Brown, of Glace Bay, N. B., announced the contests. Mr. D. B. MacDonald, timer. There were three scheduled games and the following teams took part: North Bedeque team and the Newton team, pulled in two strong struggles with the North Bedeque team victorious in but a few minutes. The next contest was between Freetown team and Albany team, this was a brilliant contest, and in less than three minutes, the Freetown team pulled off in the two struggles. The following and last contest of the series for this evening, was the evenly matched teams of Traveller's Rest and Lower Bedeque. The first pull was won by Traveller's Rest, the second was neatly pulled over by Lower Bedeque and again the Traveller's Rest boys went forth in the final pull and won the contest, wholly. These teams certainly have great strong men, quite capable of taking home the bacon when delivered. An exhibition fixture was arranged by the Kensington team and a picked team from the crowd assembled at the rink, which after a neatly contested battle, was won by the latter team. A small admission was charged at the door, and the sale of ice cream, both together, realized a nice sum. Everyone is looking forward to the next series of games.

Miss Anna Hammill, R.N., has returned to her home in New York City, to resume her duties, after spending her vacation very pleasantly with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hammill, Central Bedeque.

The fishermen are reporting very poor catches these last few days, the price also, remains very low compared with last year.—B.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. JOHN GILLIS

In the passing away of Mr. John Gillis, whose death occurred some weeks ago, at the age of 84 years, the community of Darlington lost one of its most highly respected residents.

For quite a few years the deceased had lived at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. John McLean,

Each day's contest closes at midnight... the judges awarding $100 in cash for the most interesting handwriting submitted during the preceding 24 hours. A $100 cheque will be mailed to daily winners as the awards are made. There's a new contest every day except Sunday... send in as many entries as you like. These one hundred dollar a day contests end September thirtieth at midnight.

The daily prizes are awarded, not for good writing, but for writing which reveals unique or unusual features.

The committee of judges is headed by Mr. Frederic D. Jacob, for 15 years Dominion Government Graphologist, who gives 100 character readings each week to other selected contestants.

WINNER OF THE 15th TURRET CIGARETTE CAR-A-WEEK CONTEST WHICH CLOSED AUGUST 31, 1932

William Potts, Senior Postal Clerk, 903 Colborne Street, London, Ontario

Darlington. He was possessed of a rugged constitution and up until several months ago, when his health began to break down, he was generally quite hale and hearty. A few weeks before the coming of the end he was taken to the Prince Edward Island Hospital for treatment. Instead of improving, his strength gradually waned until on the above mentioned date his gentle spirit winged its homeward flight. Mrs. Gillis had passed away some sixty years ago. Mr. Gillis now leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father, two sons, Mr. M. W. Gillis, Rochester, N.Y., and Dr. J. E. Gillis, Somerville, Mass. The deceased was one of a family of two brothers and three sisters. The other brother, besides Mr. John Gillis, now deceased, is Norman Gillis, who lives at Fredericton and the sisters all of whom predeceased Mr. Gillis by quite a number of years, were Mrs. Hugh McLeod, Bradalbane; Mrs. Donald McLennan, Grandville and Mrs. Angus MacKenzie, Dixon Road.

Mr. Gillis, having travelled a great deal, was quite widely known and was held in high esteem by all. He spent a number of years in Colorado but later returned to his native province, where the greater part of his life was lived. He took a deep interest in all that pertained to the best interests of the school and the church and the community. His quiet, unassuming manner and genial spirit made him a favorite with all. He will be much missed by a large circle of relatives and friends. The end was peace. He knew in whom he had believed and he was persuaded that he was able to keep what he had committed to His trust against that day. The funeral was a very large one. After a short service at the McLean Undertaking Parlors, by Rev. G. Carlyle Webster, the regular funeral service was held in the Presbyterian Church at Hartsville, and was conducted by Rev. G. Carlyle Webster and Rev. R. Hensley Stavert. The pall bearers were: Wm. McLeod, Malcolm McLennan, Donald McDonald, Daniel A. McLean, Rodger McLeod and Louis McPherson. Interment was in the Hartsville Cemetery. (Patriot please copy)
