RENE VIVIANI AND A. THOMAS ARE OUT OF FRENCH CABINET

PARIS, Sept. 14.—The new French Cabinet contains a new ministry, at first called the ministry of propaganda, but later changed to ministry of missions abroad. Owing to the absence of Franklin Bouillon the new post is not listed with the other ministry designations in the official journal. The new ministry consists of fifteen titular ministers, four ministers of state and eleven under-secretaries.

The New Ministers

The new ministers are divided among five Senators, eleven deputies and two, Louis Loucheur and Albert Clavelle, who do not belong to Parliament. The eleven under-secretaries are all members of the Chamber of Deputies. Sixteen of the new Cabinet members have been ministers or under-secretaries in previous Cabinets and three are former Premiers. The political groups represented in the new ministry do not include the united Socialists. Premier Painleve represents the Socialist-Republican group, while the Socialist Radicals have three members the Radical Left three, the Republican Union of the Senate, two; the Republic of the Left, one; and the Radical Republic Union, 7 members. Seven members of the Ribot ministry retain places in the new Cabinet. The most noted perhaps of the Ribot ministry to go are: Rene Viviani and Albert Thomas.

Ribot Ministry Failed

The Ribot ministry failed late Sunday night, when M. Thomas withdrew and Professor Painleve followed him, being unwilling to remain in a Cabinet where the united Socialists were not represented. Professor Painleve's first combination met the same fate late Tuesday night, when the United Socialists also refused to cooperate with him principally because Alexandre Ribot remained as a minister. As President Poincare insisted on Professor Painleve continuing his effort to form a ministry, he resolved on Wednesday not to give the Social

Not Much Opposition

Eliminating ministries of state would have meant the dropping of Louis Barthou, to whom there has been much opposition since he introduced three years ago, the military service bill. The motion's protest was transmitted to Renault, Daniel Vincent, Rene Besnard, Andre Renard and Maurice Long, while they were present at a preliminary meeting of the Cabinet.

Suspended the Sitting

On Thursday the Cabinet suspended its sitting to allow Renault and other Socialist-Radicals to go to the Chamber of Deputies to meet their partisans. Renault alone submitted to the group's resolution, the other member of the party named for Cabinet positions declared that having pledged their word to Professor Pain-

...they were unable to withdraw. They returned to the preliminary cabinet meeting thus allowing Professor Painleve to complete his combination. Jean Dupuy abandoning the portfolio of agriculture to take the place left vacant by Renault. These events are expected to show that the new ministry will start life without the assurance of active support from the United Socialists. The role played by the United Socialists throughout the crisis is generally condemned by the press as comparable to that of the Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates in Russia.
