McKENNA — DOYLE. — One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized in St. Michael's Church, Iona, when Rev. J. C. McCarthy united in the holy bonds of matrimony Mary Martina McKenna, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter McKenna of Orwell Cove and Andrew Simon Doyle, R. C. A. F., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Doyle of Vernon River. During the ceremony appropriate hymns were sung by the choir. The bride looked very charming in a two piece street length gold coloured dress with matching accessories. Her only attendant was her sister Miss Beatrice who wore coronation blue with matching accessories. The groom was ably supported by his brother William. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful gold wrist watch, to the bridesmaid a gold vanity case and to the groomsman a military set. Following the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride. Later the bridal party motored to Charlottetown returning to the groom's home where a delicious supper awaited them. The remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing. The many beautiful gifts, including cash, testified to the popularity of the young couple. Previous to her marriage the bride was tendered a shower by her girl friends at her home and also one in Hamilton, Ontario, where she was employed during the last year. The bride is one of the Island's leading teachers and the groom a patriotic member of the King's services. They are now residing in Dartmouth, Nova Scotia, where the groom is attached to the R.C.A.F. Their many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Doyle many years of happy wedded life together.

The home of Mrs. Fannie Hiltz was the scene of a large gathering of friends on Friday evening, January 7th, to tender a reception to her son LAC. Arnold of the R C. The child, born on December 17, weighed three pounds yesterday. It is being kept in a heated bed. The child's father is a member of the Royal Canadian Air Force and is stationed at an airport near Summerside—S.

Early Wednesday morning, January 5th, 1944, there passed from this life to the life just beyond one of Charlottetown's most esteemed and most useful citizens, Robert Duncan MacCannell.

It was an unexpected transition but such is life.

The funeral was one of the city's largest. All creeds and conditions of society gathered in an overflow which made the congregation as large outside as inside the home. He was troubled with asthma for many years but was able to be at his work until two weeks previous to his death.

DILLON — At his residence 221 King Street, on Wednesday, January 19, 1944, William P. Dillon, in his 72nd. year. Funeral notice later.

A magnificent rendition of the complete vocal score of Gilbert and Sullivan's light opera "The Gondoliers", given by the R.A.F. Male Chorus and the Charlottetown Girls, was heard with great appreciation by an audience which filled Prince of Wales College hall to capacity last night.

The occasion marked the farewell appearance of the talented R.A.F. Male Chorus in this Province, a fact which was noted with regret by Mayor B. Roy Holman, who spoke in commendation of all concerned in the production

A warm tribute to the cast was also paid by Group. Capt. H. N. Hampton, D.F.C., officer commanding the R.A.F Station, by whose kind permission the Air Force personnel appeared He expressed the hope that this would be the forerunner of many other fine concerts in Charlottetown.

A meeting of the executive of the P. E. I. Auxiliary of the British and Foreign Bible Society was held yesterday afternoon in St. Paul's Parish Hall, presided over by Dr. J. H. Ayers in the unavoidable absence of the president, Hon. G. D. DeBlois.

WINSLOE NORTH W.INSTITUTE

Mrs. A.B. Roberts entertained Winsloe N. W. Institute at her home Jan 12. The Vice-President was in charge of the meeting, which opened with Ode and Creed, followed by Roll Call, and minutes of the December meeting. Committtee reported quilt cotton bought, and bill for same was presented and paid. Sick and School committees had no report.

Mrs. John Carter reported 9 pairs socks, 1 scarf, 2 quilts sent to Red Cross. It was decided that all members pass in 25c. at next meeting to help pay for quilt, also that gifts be bought for two new babies in the district. Correspondence was presented, and copies of news distributed. Mrs. Stanley Younker was appointed to have charge of the program for next meeting, place of meeting was undecided.

Collection amounted to $1.00. One new member was welcomed to the society.

Meeting closed with the King Lunch was served by the hostess. (Patriot please copy).
