There was a big attendance at the band concert in the Gardens last evening and the program which was given in the Fourth Regiment's best style was most praiseworthy and citizens are anxious to hear them once more ere the season closes.

Will the person who picked up a small green purse containing a one dollar bill either between Tryon and Victoria or on the wharf at Victoria Thursday morning kindly leave it at Guardian office or Wright Bros., Victoria, and receive reward.

The first match mixed foursomes for the Barclay Links which was to have been played at the Golf Links yesterday was postponed on account of the wet afternoon. It will be played tomorrow, Saturday. All players are requested to be at the club house at two thirty when a drawing for partners will take place.

William A. Martin passed peacefully away at Newton, Belfast, on the 24th ult., aged 40 years. Mr. Martin returned from Boston in failing health a few months ago, hoping to be benefited by his native air; but alas! it was not to be. He bore his lingering illness with cheerful resignation, and hopefully endured to the end. He leaves to mourn a widowed mother, two brothers and two sisters, who have the sympathy of the whole community in their bereavement.

Much interest will be taken in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Annie J. Shanklin, of Shanklin Settlement, St. John county, and Rev. L. R. Macdonald, of Vegreville (A.S.A.), but formerly of P. E. Island, says the St. John Telegram. The wedding was solemnized Tuesday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, S. C. and Mrs. Shanklin. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. J. B. Shanklin, brother of the bride, in the presence of a large number of the friends and relatives of the popular couple. The bride was becomingly gowned in white. She was unparagoned. After a wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald drove to the city and left on the 7 o'clock train on their way west. They will start Quebec, Montreal, Chicago and other cities. Mrs. Macdonald was one of the best known teachers in the province, having been a valued member of the city school staff for some years. She was also a member of the first group of teachers awarded scholarships at the Macdonald Institute, Quebec (Ont.), and was very popular with her associates. She carries with her in her new life the hearty good wishes of a host of friends. The groom is a graduate of Mc. Aulison University and was formerly a member of the N. B. and P. E. I. Methodist conference.

A. D. Fraser, P. G. C. Templar and W. H. Riley, G. C. Templar of the Grand Lodges of the Canadian Province leave this morning for Toronto, where delegates from the several Grand Lodges of the Canadian Provinces will meet on the 9th inst. for the purpose of organizing a Union National Grand Lodge for Canada. This National Grand Lodge will have a general control particularly of the initiation and propagation work of the Order in Canada. A similar Union National Grand Lodge has been lately formed for the United States. The rapid and remarkable extension of the Order, particularly on the continent of Europe, seems to render an international Supreme Lodge too scattered and unwieldy a body to cope with the particular requirements of distant countries, and no doubt similar Union Lodges will be established in Britain, South Africa, Australia and elsewhere. Rev. James Jeames, P. I. C. Templar of Boston, who will be present at the anniversary of the Grand Lodge of P. E. I. which takes place in this city on Sept. 20th has been deputed by the International Supreme Lodge to institute the Canadian National Grand Lodge. Messrs Fraser and Betty will also visit the Toronto Exhibition, the Niagara Falls and other points of interest before they return.

Mrs. Austin Cameron will be at home at their residence August 10th, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons and Thursday evenings of next week.

The pictures at New Wonderland last evening proved most attractive and with the splendid music and singing passed, for large crowds, a most enjoyable evening.

Miss Mabelle Boyer of Cambridge Mass. who has been a guest with Mrs. Hawley for some days left on a return yesterday afternoon, and will visit in St. John's route.

The excursion season is almost over and all who can are taking the advantage of the outings on the steamer Harland. This afternoon the steamer goes up East River returning early in the evening.

W. R. Aitken accompanied by his sister and mother of this city leave this morning for Toronto. They intend to visit friends and also the Exhibition. Miss Aitken will remain for a term in Haverill Ladies College.

Mrs. George D. Mellett and family have returned back home to Somerville, Mass., after spending two months visiting friends and relatives on the Island. She was accompanied by her mother Mrs. John Gill.

A telegram received by Alexander Home of this city announces the death of John and Alvin Home of Windsor Strassburg, Sask. The body is being forwarded to her late home in Windsor for burial.

A telegram was received in this city Friday, August 28th, by J. M. Nicholson from Trenton, N. S., announcing the death of Jessie B. Hamam, beloved wife of David H. Horton, and eldest daughter of the late Athan Hamm of Southport. The news came as a shock to her sisters and relatives, as the deceased just visited the Island about two weeks ago, and was apparently in the best of health. Mrs. Horton was well known here, and expressions of regret are heard on every side. Her mother, Mrs. Hamam, left Thursday morning in response to the telegram. She leaves to mourn a husband, two children, a mother and the following sisters: Mrs. J. M. Nicholson, Mrs. D. D. McCannell, City, and Miss Lottie Hamam, nurse at Falconwood, Wm. Hamam of Bunbury, Lot 48, is an uncle of deceased.

The residence of Eliphabet and Mrs. Lattard, Widow Shade, Tryon, was the scene of a happy event on Wednesday evening last when their youngest daughter Miss Annie Clark Muttart was united in marriage to Austin Cameron of Augustine Cove. The ceremony, which was performed in the presence of about sixty friends and relatives, was performed by Rev. W. A. Thompson. The bride was given away by her father and looked charming in a gown of white tulle with a bouquet of astors and maiden hair fern. Miss Basie Mellett of Cornwalls, N. S., was bridesmaid and wore white chifon tulle with pink trimmings while C. H. Callbeck of the Patriot supported the groom. After the wedding, dinner was served in the dining room which was delightfully decorated for the occasion. A large number of handsome presents were received by the happy young couple to whom the Guardian extends congratulations.

The funeral of the late Mrs. (Dr) Carruthers at Bedeque yesterday afternoon was very largely attended, between thirty and forty persons from the city including a number of the medical fraternity went by special train and were met by friends at Bedeque station and conveyed to Bedeque where every provision was made for their comfort by the hospitable people of that place. Notwithstanding the heavy rainfall a very large number of persons assembled before the service at the home of Wm. Callbeck at 2.20 to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of one so greatly beloved and highly esteemed and express their sympathy with the bereaved family. Rev. Geo. E. Ross of Zion church conducted the service and was assisted by Revs. Geo. Steel, of Bedeque, Rev. H. E. Thomas of Charlottetown and Rev. H. M. McIntosh of North Bedeque. Mr. Ross delivered an appropriate address from the text Heb. 7:16 "The power of an endless life" and referred in touching terms to the beautiful life and character of Mrs. Carruthers whose home would long remain a fragrant memory to all who knew her and prove a living inspiration to loved ones bereaved. The interment took place in the Centerville cemetery. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful. Dr. Carruthers and family and the wide circle of bereaved relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire province.
