Local and Other Notes

Gleaned by the Morning Guardian Reporters.

Black Dress Goods.—BEEK BROS. The Georgetown train had a snow-plow attached on Saturday afternoon.

WOOD ISLANDS NOTE.—Work of construction of the Breakwater at Wood Islands will begin about 20th of April.

THE MAIL.—The boats crossed on Saturday afternoon, the foreign mail arriving in Charlottetown about a quarter of eleven.

THE ICE.—People who crossed to the city from St. Hubert yesterday said that the ice was no more than from three to four inches thick.

MOVEMENTS OF THE ICE.—Telephone advices from Wood Islands on Saturday evening reported the S-Rail, from Wood Islands "light," eastward, comparatively free of ice, except a small quantity along the Strait.

THE WHISTLE OF THE OUTGOING CAPES.—Special frightened the horses of Mr. E. F. Purdy last night, and the animal made a dash, upsetting the driver and knocking the reins and harness.

USE OF THE FERRY STEAMER IS READY FOR WORK at an hour and a half notice—has the prospect as regards the ice, is poor.

THE STANLEY.—She arrived at Georgetown on Sunday forenoon. She had no many passengers.

S. N. Co. News.—The "lands of the Northumberland" as well as those of the "St. Lawrence" have been given notice of suspension pending settlement of the company's affairs.

OFF FOR SYDNEY.—Mr. Sidney Mabon, of this city, left last night by the special to Georgetown, where he will join the Stanley on his way to North Sydney, O. E., where he takes a temporary position in the Bank of N. S. in that town.

THE TRAINS.—Evil days of snow blockade have fallen on the Railway lines again. The train which left Charlottetown for Souris on Friday afternoon did not, owing to drifts, near Bear River reach its destination till Saturday, and the Tighe train also had some trouble.

"LAURENCE" WICKER.—A telegram to G. H. T. M. Esq., of this city, on Sunday forenoon from S. J. W. Newland, announced the total wreck of his schooner "Laurence." Her master is Capt. D. W. Myer, of Canis. The Laurier was bound from Boston to St. John's. Her crew numbered, excepting the captain, four men.

TEMPERANCE CAMPAIGN.—The meeting on the 2nd inst. in the market building on Saturday evening was largely attended. The meeting reported the best sentiment of the city, including all the prominent supporters and friends of the temperance cause.
