ABEGWEITS CLINCH THEIR FIRST LEAGUE GAME

On Their First Game in the Eastern Section of the N. B. and P. E. Island Hockey League at Summerside Last Night, the Abegweits Defeated the Crystals by the Score of 4-1. The Game was Fast. Eight Penalties Being Handed out by the Referee.

Before six hundred fans on an excellent and fast sheet of ice the first Island game of the N.B. and P. E. Island Hockey League series was played in Summerside last night with the Abegweits holding their unbroken chain of victories.

The Summerside Crystals held them to a score of 4-1 and gave the champions one of the best games they have had this season.

The game was called by referee Frank Brown at 8:55 and was a fast and exciting session throughout. At the face-off Gordon took the puck on a pass from McEachern and for awhile the play was strong around the Crystals net.

McQuarrie intercepting a pass from Gordon took the rubber for a long tramp into the Abegweits territory and with strong support, shot after shot was fired at the Abegweits goal, Morgan refusing in excellent form.

Twelve minutes after the game started, McEachern on a pass from Rodd shot the first goal for the champions. This was followed four minutes later with a tally by Rodd doing some splendid solo work.

The period ending with no further scoring, Abegweits 2 Crystals 0. The second period starting with a determined effort to even matters, the Crystals kept the puck almost constantly in the Abegweits territory and after seven minutes of play, Gauthier on a pass from Houghton, netted the puck for the first Crystal tally, amid the loud cheering of the fans.

In this period both Graves and Morgan were kept busy and time after time they would make shots that would evoke cheers from the hundreds of fans and for the rest of the period the nets were perfectly defended, Abegweits 2 Crystals 1.

The Third Period. Shortly after the bell rang for the third period, Dalton was injured in the abdomen in a mix-up with the Crystals net and was forced to the boards for awhile, this did not stop the Crystals however, and they put up one of the best games of their career.

On a bull-dog determination to not only hold down the Abegweits, but to get the big tally on their side at 10:05 Rodd netted the puck for the Abegweits third tally from a nice piece of combination work and five minutes later McEachern scored the fourth and final score on a pass from Rodd to Gordon, Abegweits 4 Crystals 1.

Penalties. 1st period: McQuarrie for cross-checking and McEachern 5 minutes. McQuarrie, Moore and Rodd, 3 minutes. 2nd period: Moore, 3 minutes for knee checking. 3rd period: Morris and Moore, 3 minutes.

Abegweits Goal: Rodd, Houghton, Dalton, McEachern. Crystals Goal: Gauthier. Defence: Kelly, Moore, Morris, McQuarrie. Forwards: Rodd, Houghton, Dalton, McEachern. Subs: E. Prowse, Monkley, R. Prowse, Gallant, F. Cronin.

Referee—Frank Brown, Umpires—Urban Gillis, Geo. L. Prowse, Timers—Ralph Dodds and Ed. Acorn.

The game was played under protest as Dalton a wing of the Crystals was said to be a member of the Picton team and not eligible for Crystal line-up. About 150 fans went by special train from Charlottetown and after taking in the game and special skating in the Cabaret, returned at 12 midnight.

Lloyd George is Butt Of Morning Post's Sarcasm

LONDON, January 12.—The Morning Post in an editorial says: "The Hearst papers, according to an advertisement which appears in America, announce as a regular contributor David Lloyd George, former Prime Minister of England, an advertiser also the subject on which he is to write. One of the interesting notes, was 'An Answer to M. Poincare, Premier of France.' Another eulogized The Bravery and Devotion of the Irish Leaders."

"These subjects help us to understand why Mr. Hearst, who has shown himself inveterately hostile to England, should be so pleased with his 'regular contributor' and to judge from this advertisement the articles from the pen of Lloyd George which appeared in the Daily Telegraph and the Daily Chronicle yesterday are shared by the yellow press of America."

"However that may be, we congratulate our late Prime Minister on having caught the tone of Mr. Hearst's papers. His reference to Poincare and to Germany might have been written by one of those 'hyphenated American journalists' who served the Teutonic cause so well in the war and since. They have the same pretence of moderation, the same reality of animus."

"As, for example, the concluding sentence, after a long argument against the French position: 'Meanwhile the prospects of Europe's recovery are once more to be retarded by the vain stubbornness of some of her rulers.' Vain stubbornness, indeed. Who was it, let us ask, who first formulated the policy which the French are still determined to carry out? Need we remind our readers of that famous speech in which Lloyd George boasted of his intention to turn German pockets inside out?"

"After all, the difference between Poincare and Lloyd George is in its essence the difference between sincerity and insincerity between candor and duplicity, between political honesty and political dishonesty, between saying what you mean to do, with the intention of carrying it out, and saying what you have no intention to do because you want the votes of your audience."

"Now we are willing to allow that when a British statesman puts himself under contract to write for the Hearst press he must be prepared both to attack the Allies and support the enemies of his country, but we are not under any such obligation, and we venture, in all deference to put the case of France before our readers."

"The Morning Post then proceeds to argue that in the industrial sense Germany is the most prosperous country in Europe; that, judged by bankruptcy returns and unemployment totals, her position is infinitely superior to that of Britain, and that she has succeeded in evading her obligations by unless somebody turns them up. Things don't turn up in this world unless somebody turns them up.

Happenings Of The Week

The dance given by the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia last Monday in the Community Club, was one of the nicest social affairs of the season. There were partners for every one, and the nicely arranged dance program, soft alluring music, and dainty refreshments, all combined to pass the fleeting hours delightfully.

Miss Rosa Longworth's friends are bidding her bon voyage, as she is leaving Monday to join a party of Toronto friends on a world wide tour.

Mrs. W. K. Rogers went up to Summerside, Thursday, to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nell Sinclair, who that day celebrated the 57th anniversary of their marriage. Their friends wish them many happy returns of the day.

Miss Nan Brow is saying farewell to her friends this week, as she is leaving Monday for New York, where she will take an arts course.

Miss Ethel Bagnall, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Rodd, in Ottawa, has returned to St. Anne de Bellevue.

Lace has become so important today that some of the smart noses in New York, are making nothing but lace dresses. Brilliant colors are woven together in these creations, orange and blues and greens, and the foundation is likely to be gold. To cap the glory, beads are also woven into the fabric. A single flower at one side of the waist line is absolutely the only trimming some of the debutantes consider indispensable to their dance frocks of today.

In the face of the season, but the thing of tinsel and velvet with long stem and a spray of leaves touched brightly with rhinestone took, all because hew.

Noted Winnipeg Man Arrives In London

LONDON, Jan 12.—General Burnham, president of the Canadian White Cross Society, has arrived here from Albania. He was the first British officer in the Balkans at the beginning of the war, and has been the last to leave. Several European Governments have honored General Burnham for his services during the war.

General F. W. E. Burnham, M. D., C. M. of Winnipeg commenced his mission in the Balkans early in 1918, when he organized what was known as the Canadian War Hospital Fund, created to furnish medical and surgical relief to the suffering population of Montenegro, Serbia and Macedonia. It was purely a Canadian enterprise, supported by Canadian funds, and carried on by Canadian volunteers.

General Burnham, then a Colonel went to the Balkans in charge of the work, giving his services free, as did the nurses who accompanied him.

During the war the General was chief surgeon in charge of the British hospital in Montenegro, which was in the path of the enemy during the general advance in the latter part of the war. His hospital fell into enemy hands, but following many thrilling escapes, General Burnham evaded capture. After serving on the Western front for many months he returned to the Salonika front, where he founded a well-equipped hospital for the Allies, which was donated to the Serbian Government following the conclusion of the war.

Driven out of Montenegro by the Serbians, General Burnham went to Albania, where he served humanity without pay, his wife joining him in the noble cause.

Admits Marysville To Hockey League

FREDERICTON, Jan. 12.—The western section of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island Amateur Hockey League has admitted the Marysville Hockey Club to membership. It is uncertain so far what will be done with regard to the schedule. Marysville is to make its first appearance Thursday night here, playing Fredericton. The match is to be an exhibition game. Marysville will have the majority of the players they had before and several other players probably will appear with the team.

BOWLING

The Bowling schedule of the Y.M.C.A. re-opened last night after the holiday, and will be continued for the next six weeks.

The game last night was between the Railway and Bachelors the Railway winning out by the large margin of 300 pins over their opponents.

The Railway rolled a total of 2217 pins for the three games while the Bachelors had 1917.

refusing to tax her wealth. The Morning Post proceeds: "This country has acquiesced in that fraudulent bankruptcy and is willing to allow Germany to come to an easy settlement with her creditors. France is less soft. She sees vast resources of the bank lying before her, and is determined to seize them rather than submit to the fraud. The position of Bonar Law is not that France is unjustified in this step—on the contrary, the justification is clear—but as a practical step it will not succeed in its object of extracting reparations. He fears that in this daring attempt to take the chestnuts out of the Ruhr fire, France will burn her fingers. It may be, but France, with her pitiful poor and her starved and crippled industries before her eyes, insists that the attempt is worth making. Possibly it is, and whether it falls or succeeds, it is to the honor of France that she should have the courage to attempt it alone."

Laziness travels so slowly that poverty soon overtakes it. Things don't turn up in this world unless somebody turns them up.
