URGE MORE WAR ECONOMY.

LONDON, March 1.—The national war economy committee, which yesterday urged abstention from motoring for pleasure, issued to-night a series of new recommendations. These include the cutting down of domestic servants, male and female, and a general reduction in the scale of living in the large houses having gardens and hothouses, so as to liberate this labour for war purposes.

DOCTORS AGREE ON ECZEMA REMEDY

CONFIRM THE STATEMENTS ABOUT D. D. D. PRESCRIPTION.

Geo. T. Richardson, M. D.: "In my opinion, D. D. D. should be applied in all cases of skin disease—an immediate relief to the itch, a calm to excited nerves, soft, soothing yet a powerful agent, a strength to the general system."

Dr. Irma Holmes: "D. D. D. is as near a specific for eczema and the dreaded psoriasis as a quinine for malaria. I constantly prescribe D. D. D., also for salt rheum, tetter, barber's itch, pimples, all forms of itching eruptions, scales, sores."

Dr. Ira T. Gabbert: "I freely admit that D. D. D. reaches most cases of eczema and permanently cures them."

Come to us and we will tell you more about this remarkable remedy. Your money back unless the first bottle relieves you. D. D. D. Soap keeps your skin healthy. Ask about it.

WHY I AM AN ABSTAINER

mad with the awful craving for more drink. I got up and ordered my wife to go out and get some whiskey. Afraid of the consequences if she refused, she reluctantly took the bottle and went out. I sat by the fire waiting.

"While I waited, my little girl commenced to sing in her bed. I got up to look at her, for drunkard as I was, I loved my children. Just as I got to the door of the bedroom I heard the words—

"I am so glad that Jesus loves me, Jesus loves me—even me."

"I paused—waited; but she must have heard me, for she called out. I went in, took her in my arms, and sang and sat by the fire."

"I asked her where she had learned that hymn. She said, 'We sing it at the Sunday school and Band of Hope. I asked her to sing it again. She began in a quivering voice, frightened at the strange request—

"I am so glad that my Father in heaven Tells of His love in the Book He has given; Wonderful things in the Bible I see; This is the dearest—that Jesus loves me."

"I trembled as the words sank into my heart. I felt the tears coming. Very soon I was weeping aloud. My little girl grew frightened, and put her arms round my neck. I said to her, 'Marry, do you think Jesus loves me?'"

"The struggle was terrible; but when my wife returned she found me on my knees praying and praising; for I had learned from my little girl that 'Jesus loves me—even me—even me.'"

"No more drink for me. The black bottle was flung into the fire with a energy that frightened my poor wife. I was rejoicing in a double salvation—the hell of coming judgment—all through the mercy and love of God, all through my little girl."

And with these words he hoisted her up in his arms for us all to see; and as we looked at the child's sweet face there were few tearless eyes in that great assembly. Setting her gently down he brushed his sleeve across his face, and, turning round to us at the back, he said, with deep feeling:

"Men! Jesus loves you. Trust Him! Sign the pledge and help us to save the poor drunkards."

And then he sat down. I do not know that man's name. I do not think I ever heard him or saw him again. I only know this, that as I walked home I felt that my ideas of total abstinence had somehow or other been revolutionized. I could hardly explain the process. I think, it was the last words that kept ringing in my ears. "Trust Jesus. Sign the pledge. Save the poor drunkards."

Yes, I was trusting Jesus and trying to live for Him and to work for Him. But about signing the pledge for the sake of the poor drunkards; that debate ended, thank God, in my becoming a total abstainer, although not an active or aggressive one.

About five years afterwards I was ordained to the sacred office of the ministry, and was called to work in the parish of our Christ Church, Everton, Liverpool.

One day I was summoned in haste to the house of one of our people. There, upon the floor, lay dead a young man who, in the frenzy and fury of drunkenness, had stabbed himself to the heart. There, with his very life's blood upon them, stood weeping his wife and three children.

I came three days later, and knelt by that man's coffin, side by side with the widow and orphans, and I vowed before God that as long as He spared me I would fight the drink."

I have seen no one reason to take back a jot or little of that vow made before God. Yea! rather I have had too many terrible cases of vice and crime and sin caused by intemperance in my parish to remind me of my solemn covenant.

How can I do other than abstain when I think of the terrible ravages of alcohol?

The man who loves his Saviour, and for His sake loves souls redeemed by Him, stands appalled before the dread ravages of alcohol in the spiritual world—60,000 men and women passing into eternity every year, drunk or drunkards!

It is appalling to me; crushes me down; makes me desperate to see its clammy hand outstretched over this fair land of ours, and sweeping into the darkness of the grave thousands of my brother men. As I think of the brave men, the fair women, the helpless children done to death by this accursed thing, my wonder is, not that "I am an abstainer," but that every man who loves his country and his God is not one too.—British Temperance League Tract.
