Address and Presentation

The many friends of Mrs. Roy Thompson (nee Vera Barrett) met at the home of Mrs. Aage Johnstone to tender her a shower in honor of her recent marriage. The bridal couple entered the room to the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus played by Miss Doris McGregor and were escorted to the seat of honor under a beautiful arch of evergreen and Autumn leaves, by Mrs. Major Barrett.

Mr. E. D. Simpson acted as chairman and in a few well chosen words explained the nature of the gathering and called on Mrs. Earle McLaren to read an address. Mrs. Glen Ramsay and Miss Gertrude Simpson then presented the bride with a well filled purse and a few choice gifts of linen and silverware.

The bride very graciously thanked her friends for their kindness to her and expressed the wish that they would visit her and her husband in Upton Maine where they intend residing. Everyone joined in singing "For they are Jolly Good fellows" after which the rest of the evening was spent in music and singing. Mr. Howard Fraser kindly sang a few old favourites and played some violin selections which added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by some of the ladies present and a very enjoyable evening was brought to a close by singing "Auld Lang Syne."

The following is the address: Mrs. Roy Thompson, nee Vera Barrett Dear Friend: It is with much joy that we gather here to-night on this occasion, to honor you on the event of your recent marriage.

You have lived in our midst all your life and have endeared yourself to all of us with your willingness to help to serve.

We desire on this occasion to extend to you and Roy our sincere good wishes for the years that lie ahead of you and it is our hope that life for you both may be filled with the good and gracious things of life where ever you may be.

This purse of money and other gifts that we your friends and neighbours have much pleasure in presenting to you, is but a small measure of the esteem and love that we have in our hearts for you, and it is our hope that you shall always keep a place in your heart for your friends and well wishers of Belmont and Central.

We humbly pray that God's richest blessing may rest upon you and yours and that life may be very gracious to you.
