Tyne Experiment

In Training Boys

For the Dominions

LONDON, July 19.—Lord Lovat, Parliamentary Under-Secretary for the Dominions, recently launched a project for considerable importance on Newcastle-on-Tyne when he opened a hostel for training lads in agricultural work. The training schemes which are now being carried on under the direction of the Ministry of Labour have already achieved considerable success, but hitherto, in the schemes of training youth for work overseas, it has been found necessary to take the youths away from their own towns and to put them on training farms in another part of the country. Under the new scheme the training is to be given actually in the towns where the youths live.

Employment on Tyne-side is particularly acute through the long continued depression in shipbuilding, coal and iron. In late years it has become increasingly difficult to find work of any kind whatever for lads leaving school. It is to deal with this problem that the Newcastle work has been started. The city authorities have handed over a building which has been converted into a training hostel to hold 50 lads at a time.

Boys between 14 and 17 for Canada and between 15 and 19 for Australia will be taken who are of good character and healthy. They will receive a preliminary training in agriculture through the National Farmers' Union, whose members have arranged to take them daily on farms adjacent to the city. They will travel free of cost to their work daily on the city tramway services. In the hostel itself they will be taught preliminary milking, carpentry, bootmaking, harness, repairing, and physical training. Lectures will be given on elementary agricultural subjects. The period of training will be normally three months and 200 lads a year will be trained.

It is claimed for this training that it can be carried out at the minimum of cost; that lads will learn farming on farms which are run as economical concerns; and that the farmers can give individual help, since not more than three

INFORMAL HONORS

ACCORDED CASSULO
NEW PAPAL ENVOY

OTTAWA, July 20.—His Excellency, the Right Reverend Andrea Cassulo, formerly papal nuncio in Egypt, and newly appointed by the Holy See, apostolic delegate to Canada and Newfoundland, arrived in Ottawa to-day, having travelled from New York on the private car, "Wentworth." He was tendered a most hearty, although unofficial, reception by the ecclesiastical and civil authorities and the Catholic population of the diocese of Ottawa.

His excellency, who succeeds Mgr. Pisto Di Maria as papal delegate, was met at the station by Mgr. Joseph Charbonneau, administrator of the archdiocese of Ottawa; the Hon. W. R. Motherwell, Minister of agriculture, and Hon. P. J. Veniot, postmaster-general, representing the federal government; the Right Hon. F. A. Anglin, chief justice of the supreme court of Canada; M. Frank Lafontaine, member of the board of control, and representing his worship the mayor of Ottawa; members of the canonical chapter of the Basilica of Ottawa; heads and members of the Dominican, Capuchin, Franciscan, Oblate, Holy Ghost Fathers, Services Orders and scores of other clergymen of the Roman Catholic diocese of Ottawa; members of the city council of Ottawa and presidents and officials of the different Catholic societies of the city.

Mgr. Cassulo arrived at New York from Rome last Wednesday, where he was met by Mgr. Joseph Beazzotti, chargé d'affaires of the papal legation at Ottawa, and by Mgr. Joseph Lebeau, chancellor of the archdiocese of Ottawa. The two latter clergymen accompanied Mgr. Cassulo on the train to Ottawa together with Rev. Father Chell, head of the Services Order in Ottawa. Emile J. Hebert, first assistant-general passenger agent of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was also on the train from Montreal to Ottawa.

A guard of honor was formed at the Union Station by Lasalle Academy Cadets, under the direction of Cadet Commandant J. A. D. LaBelle.

The new apostolic delegate was born in Italy, at Castello d'Orba, on November 30, 1869. He was a member of the canonical chapter of Florence, Italy, and of several important ecclesiastical commissions. Later he was private secretary to the late Cardinal Mistrangelo, and then vicar-general of the diocese of Florence.

FAREWELL ADDRESS

On Saturday, July 9th Michael Conway son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Conway of New Zealand in company with Mr. Peter Campbell of Campbell's Cove left the Province and went to St. John, N. B. to join the Redemptorist Fathers at St. Peter's Rectory. On the eve of his departure over a hundred of his friends and acquaintances assembled at his home and presented him with the following address and a purse.

Dear Michael—On this the eve of your departure from among us to work in a new and different field of labor, we your friends and acquaintances assemble here this evening to wish you God speed and bid you a fond adieu. We never wish to part with our best friends and especially you Michael, but when we realize that God has called you to give your life in his service we can only say "His will be done."

Your call to duty evokes a great sacrifice on your part for it asks you to separate yourself from your friends and loved ones at home, in a world, all that you hold dear in this world, to work for the honour and glory of God. "He who does not renounce all that he possesses cannot be my disciple."

Your kind and gentle character at home and among your friends and your successful course at St. Dunstan's University that grand old institution which is always anxious for the welfare of her sons are causes of appreciation to us and a great source of consolation to your parents. Indeed Michael of you we ought well to be proud. We shall miss you though beyond expression for the kind words and smiling countenance of a loving son, brother and friend cannot easily be replaced in this selfish world.

Now dear friend as we see you go forth we would fain bid you stay but will console ourselves with the thought that God is calling you and all we can have now are fond remembrances of the past and good wishes for the future.

We ask you to accept this purse not for its value as it is not worth much in comparison with the value of a true friend but as a little token of our appreciation of your life-long friendship among us. In conclusion we would ask you to remember us in your prayers and in return we shall promise our spiritual assistance while you labour in the vineyard of the Lord.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Charles Auld, Clyde River, who passed away July 22nd, 1925.

In our hearts your memory lingers
Sweetly, tender, fond and true
There is not a day dear Mother
That we do not think of you.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mr. Charles Auld, Clyde River, who passed away July 13th, 1919.

But they little know the sorrow
That is in our hearts concealed.

THE MARKETS

MONTREAL, July 21.—The foreign market for grain in the Montreal market today was steady, there being quite a few loads of wheat and rye accepted overnight and according to exporters and the tone of cable advices there seems to be a better disposition on the part of English importers to operate for both immediate and future requirements and the prospects for business are more encouraging than they have been of late. The only business of importance in the local market was the demand from New York importers for Manitoba No. 6 wheat and sales of several loads were made at dollar prices than could be realized over the cable. There was some demand from domestic and country buyers for odd cars of coarse grains and a moderate amount of business was done. The tone of the spot market was steady. Prices for all grades of spring and winter wheat flour were well maintained under a limited demand from all sources. The demand from local and United States buyers for all lines of mill feed continued good. The undertone was firm. A feature of the export trade was the slight improvement in the demand from local buyers for car lots and a moderate amount of business was done in this respect including sets of western seconds at 30c per dozen on track here and Ontario April eggs at 34c per dozen f. o. b. shipping point. The trade in jobbing eggs continued quiet and prices were unchanged. The receipts were 340 cases. The trade in butter was extremely dull but values were steady the receipts were 2513 packages. The local demand for cheese was fair but the foreign trade was inactive. The undertone to the market was firm and prices were unchanged. Western grades were quoted at 18-18c to 18-14c per pound. The receipts were 4,996 boxes.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 21.—(Eggs)—A slightly improved feeling is reported today from the egg markets of eastern Canada, the situation in the west is generally unchanged.

TORONTO, Ont.—A little better speculative demand is in evidence here dealers are quoting sidewalk extras 32 to 34, firsts 29 to 30, seconds 25 to 26.

MONTREAL—This market is still unchanged with dealers quoting country shippers for ungraded 30 to 31, seconds 27 to 29. However, there is more activity in evidence and a slight advance in a jobbing way is not improbable.

WINNIPEG—Prices here are steady with dealers quoting country shippers extras 28, firsts 26, seconds 21. Prices to retailers are Saskatchewan receipts are light and prices to extras 25, seconds 19, firsts 33, seconds 28.

EDMONTON—The egg market here is steady with dealers quoting chippers for ungraded eggs delivered extras 28, firsts 25.

In Memoriam

THOMAS LOCKE

In the fond and loving memory of the late Thomas Locke of Appin Road who departed this life for a better world on June 5, 1927. He was a life-long resident of Appin Road. A farmer by trade, highly respected by all who knew him, far and near. Notwithstanding his advanced years he was around his work as usual. He was a skilled expert in making axe-handles and was working at his trade till the last minute, when he was stricken with that dread disease pluro-pneumonia from which he never recovered. He bore his sufferings trusting in the Lord who doeth all things well. In his early life he married Margaret McLeod, and to this union was born three sons and three daughters. His wife predeceased him by eight years, also a daughter Frances, 7 years, and another daughter, Mary, Mrs. Mavross, Abrahams, 4 years ago. All that was left of a kind father and loving neighbor was laid to rest on June 7th to await a glorious resurrection. The funeral services were conducted at the house and grave by the Rev. Geo. Sears. The pall bearers were nephews of the deceased: Henry McInnis, Arthur McInnis, John McPhail, Angus Dord, John Gordon and Donald Gordon. There are left to cherish his fond memory Richard W., Samuel A., on the old homestead, Mrs. Annie Diamond, Colville Station; also one son John in Vancouver, and one sister Jane, Mrs. Allen McInnis, two brothers, Richard, Amherst, James Locke, Charlottetown. The deceased was the oldest of twelve children and was always bright and cheerful to the last.

MR. WILLIAM CREAMER

The residents of South Melville and adjacent districts were shocked and surprised to learn of the sudden passing away of William Creamer, during the early hours of July 7th. The deceased, who was in his 71st year, had been stricken with paralysis just three years ago, but had been able to be up around until last October, when another attack sent him permanently to bed. Around the middle of March he was removed to the City Hospital in hopes of the good treatment there being beneficial to him, which it surely was. Toward the last, however, having expressed the wish to come back to his old home, he was accordingly brought there on July 1st only a few days elapsed, when the good God in whom he trusted so much, saw fit to summon his worldly spirit away from this vale of tears.

Fortified by the last rites of his Holy Church he died as he lived, an exemplary Christian, noted always for his ever-ready wit and geniality of person, he was always a welcome addition to any gathering of his friends; and it is not too much to say that in all his affairs, both financial and social, he never made an enemy. He was greatly missed as he was a life-long resident at the Creamer homestead.

His four sisters and elder brother Hugh, pre-deceased him four years ago, and there are left to mourn as brothers, John, of Brae Harbour; Bernard, of Souris; Joseph, of Maplewood; Ambrose and Timothy, of Lowell, Mass.; also his niece Mrs. James D. Flood by whom he was tenderly cared for from the beginning of his illness.

His funeral was a silent testimony of his many friends and took place on Saturday, July 9th to Kelly's Cross Church, where Requiem Mass was sung by his pastor, Rev. P. McMahon. Present in the Sanctuary were: Rev. John A. McDonald of Lot 7, Rev. Theo. Curran of St. Dunstan's University; Rev. W. Monaghan of Seven Mile Bay and Rev. M. J. Smith of Kinkora. His remains were interred in St. Joseph's Cemetery, the pall bearers being, Michael Malone, Alfred Cameron, Patrick Trainor, John D. McParlane, Chas. McKenna, and James E. McQuaid. Mass offerings were donated by Bernard Creamer, Mr. and Mrs. Flood, Joseph Creamer, Wm. E. Noonan and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Malone.

May his soul rest in peace.

Remarkable Gain

by Weak Counties

In English Cricket

ADVANCE OF DERBYSHIRE AND LEICESTERSHIRE AND THREAT TO THE CHAMPIONSHIP LANCASHIRE MAKES SEASON OUTSTANDING

(Canadian Press)

LONDON, Eng., July 19.—No longer, apparently, is the County Cricket Championship, the monopoly of the chosen few. With the season half over, two of the lowly counties, Derbyshire and Leicestershire, are entrenched in the first four places, and moreover deserve to be there.

Yorkshire, which has suffered three defeats, is apparently beginning to decline. Lancashire, the champion county, is hardly so potent a winning-force as it was in years ago. Probably Nottinghamshire would carry the vote of most people as the most likely county to deprive Lancashire of its position of supremacy. Nottinghamshire is second in second place, close on Lancashire's heels.

It is not merely the rise of the weaker counties that make this cricket season the most interesting one since the war, as far as the county game is concerned. It is the defeat of the strong that has given this season's county cricket the charm of the unexpected. Warwickshire inflicted a startling defeat on Yorkshire, and in a second encounter managed to wrest the innings points from them. Worcestershire secured its only victory at the expense of Middlesex. Middlesex itself, weak in bowlers, emerged from two smashing defeats to dismiss the mighty Yorkshire batsmen for 81 runs.

Derbyshire, described at the beginning of the season as the "biggest underdog," has more than fulfilled expectations. Furthermore the team is youthful and might be expected to be better next year.

Sporting writers declare Yorkshire has passed the pinnacle of its post-war fame. It is charged with neglecting to develop its young players in matches in which they could have afforded to rest men with established reputations; men like Kilner and Bell have been allowed to depart to other counties.

Nottinghamshire, championship aspirants, are undoubtedly a difficult side to get rid of. But their defeat last year, was largely dependent upon one man, Larwood. With Richmond apparently not having a good season with his "funny stuff," Nottingham has no dependable wicket getter outside the young fast bowler.

It's easy for a man to be honest
—if it pays better than being other-

Women Not Admitted To Methodist Ministry

(Canadian Press)

BRADFORD, Eng., July 21.—By the close vote of 239 to 209 the Wesleyan Methodist Conference has defeated the proposal to admit women to the ministry. A woman delegate, Mrs. Norman Sargent, said women were not wanted in the ministry. She remarked that women missionaries at the outset of their careers as missionaries, made declarations that they would not marry for five years, but these promises were being broken constantly, and some were broken even in the first year. Miss Hunter, secretary of the Women's Missionary Auxiliaries, said she knew women who were eminently suitable as ministers and desired to be ordained.

Maa: "Very well, indeed, as far as I can judge. They've taught him a little astronomy lately, but, of course I cannot test him in that."
Uncle: "Let me have a try. Come here Bobby. Can you give me the names of three fixed stars?"
Bobby (faintly): "Yes, uncle, Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, and Harold Lloyd."

If sleep is abolished, as has been suggested, the present rising generation will scarcely notice the innovation.
