Head-ache

Most headaches are caused by the liver. This vital organ becomes torpid. No bile is excreted, bringing Constipation. This affects both stomach and kidneys. And they in turn, bring the headaches from which so many people suffer.

Fruit-a-tives

or Fruit Liver Tablets

make dull, aching heads as clear as a bell. They act as a tonic on the liver—increase the flow of bile—cure Constipation—prevent Indigestion and Dyspepsia—and keep the kidneys strong and well.

Try these famous fruit tablets, and see how much better you feel.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

LESSON I, FOURTH QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, OCT. 2.

Text of the Lesson, II Kings ii, 12-22. Memory Verses, 12-14—Golden Text, II Kings ii, 9—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1904, by American Press Association.]

Elijah said that it was a hard thing that Elisha asked when he asked for a double portion of His Spirit, and it means a great deal to be filled with the Spirit of God. It means so much that many who think they want to be filled and are not filled would not wonder at it if they could only see themselves as God sees them and see their real unwillingness or unreadiness to be filled. It may mean thousands of souls, as through Peter at Pentecost, or it may mean stoned to death like Stephen, or killed with the sword like James or John the Baptist; it may mean a revival in Samaria or it may mean sent off on a lonely journey to meet one man, as in the case of Philip. It certainly means that self shall be wholly renounced, and to all God's will and way we shall heartily say, Yes, Lord! Spirit controlled cannot in any way mean self controlled.

This double portion Elisha honestly desired, as is manifest in his persistent "I will not leave thee" and in his unwavering intentness when he was told the condition on which he would receive the double portion. He saw Elijah taken, then he saw him no more, but he rent his own clothes, took up the mantle of Elijah and went back to Jordan. When he was first called he was plowing in the field, and he slew his oxen, and with the instruments (probably the yoke and plow) boiled their flesh and gave it to the people and followed Elijah. He was an intense, whole hearted man. He must have plowed a very straight furrow, and as a prophet he followed fully like Caleb and Joshua. As he went back to Jordan with the mantle of Elijah and smote the waters, he cried, "Where is the Lord God of Elijah?" The waters divided before him as they had done for Elijah and himself, and he crossed over, the sons of the prophets witnessing and bearing testimony that the spirit of Elijah rested on Elisha.

So they came to meet him and bowed before him, but whether whole heartedly or not the Lord knew. However, they acknowledged him as their leader in the stead of Elijah. Many complain that they are so much alone in the Lord's service; no fellowship, no sympathy, no one to help or encourage, therefore they can accomplish nothing. Let all such be encouraged by Elisha. See God doing for one lone man what He had done for two and for the millions of Israel.

It is evident that the sons of the prophet were not as fully acquainted with God as they might have been, for fifty of them begged of Elisha that they might go and look for Elijah, lest perchance the Spirit might have dropped him on some mountain or in some valley. He said, "Ye shall not send," but when they urged him till he was ashamed he let them go, and he tarried at Jericho till their return. After three days they returned, but had to report "Not found," as Elisha said it would be. Enoch also was searched for when he was translated, for it is written, "and was not found" (Heb. xi, 5), which implies that they sought him, but found him not. What a great search for missing ones there will be when the church has been caught up to meet the Lord in the air! A dear brother in Christ, who is now with Christ, having heard these truths for the first time while I was pastor of a church in Scranton, Pa., from 1886 to 1892, became so filled with the truth of the Lord's return as he searched the Scriptures to see if these things were so that he wrote a number of most helpful tracts, which can be obtained from L. & K., box 216, Harrisburg, Pa.

The last section of our lesson is the story of the healing of the waters at Jericho. The situation of the city was pleasant, but the waters brought death and barrenness. Elisha, with salt from a new cruse, healed the waters in the name of the Lord, saying, "Thus saith the Lord, I have healed these waters." The prophet did not say that he healed them, but as the representative of the Lord he declared that the Lord had healed them. It was at the spring of the waters that he cast in the salt. All healing must be done at the source of the evil.

Healing for the nations must be from Jerusalem, for it is the heart of the earth and shall yet be the throne of the Lord (Jer. iii, 17), therefore we are told to pray (Isa. lxii, 6, 7). Individual healing cannot be by any outward reform, for it is the heart of man that is corrupt, deceitful, desperately wicked; hence, man's healing must be from within, by a new heart, a new birth (Jer. xvii, 9; Ezek. xxxvi, 26; John iii, 3, 5, 7). Water suggests the word of God and God Himself (Eph. v, 26; Jer. ii, 13), and until we learn to drink of the living water from the throne of God we cannot have health or peace (John iv, 13, 14; Rev. xxii, 1).

As to salt, our Lord said to His disciples, "Ye are the salt of the earth" (Matt. v, 13), but it can only be as we are part of Himself, just as He is the light of the world, and He calls us the light of the world. When we are as one with Him, as Elisha was, He will bless others through us (Gen. xii, 1, 2; Phil. ii, 13).

The closing incident of the chapter is a solemn warning to all, old or young, who mock at the truth of the church being caught up to meet the Lord. The mockers in this case were doubtless young men like the fast young men of our own day who know so much.

Bicyclists and all athletes depend on BENTLEY'S Liniment to keep the joints mber and muscles in trim.

Heres' A Puzzle For Somebody

AND ALL ON ACCOUNT OF "ROYAL HOUSEHOLD"

"The hold upon the people of Annapolis county which this "Royal Household" flour has secured of late is one of the most remarkable things I have seen in my eighteen years business experience," said an Annapolis county merchant who attended the Halifax Exhibition. I find that the majority of my customers absolutely refuse to take anything but "Royal Household" and I tell you it is almost a serious problem with some of us as to how we are going to sell the stocks we have of other fairly good flours.
